Georgia Southern University Ranked Fourth in the Nation for Graduating African-Americans Majoring in the Physical Sciences

February 1, 2012

Georgia Southern University has been ranked fourth in the nation for graduating African-Americans majoring in the physical sciences by Diverse: Issues in Higher Education. The physical sciences are chemistry, physics and geology.

“This recognition by Diverse: Issues in Higher Education is the result of the hard work of our students, faculty and staff,” said Bret Danilowicz, Ph.D., dean of the Allen E. Paulson College of Science and Technology. “It is an honor to be recognized as a leader in educating students who will make significant contributions to their fields once they leave Georgia Southern University.” Read more...
