BAΨ Annual Meeting—Denver, Colorado

The BAΨ annual conference was held at the Mile High City of Denver, Colorado. The conference is required for all Chapters in order to maintain superior Chapter status. During the conference, BAΨ members from around the globe combined to participate in various professional sessions, competitions, community service day, and plentiful networking opportunities with advisory forum members and exhibitors. The community service event was Project Homeless Connect. At this event, over 1000 clients were assisted by approximately 2000 BAΨ volunteers and service providers. Help was available in the following areas: medical assistance; food stamps; employment assistance; bus tokens; clothing; IDs; insurance; housing; haircuts and massages; and more. It was truly a life-changing experience. This video summarizes the event: http://www.bap.org/PHCVideo.aspx

The conference meetings started on Friday, August 12th, and ended Saturday, August 13th. Each hour consisted of several different sessions, each of which offered valuable learning experiences. Georgia Southern was a host Chapter that volunteered to assist in the Saturday meetings. We can proudly say that the Zeta Delta Chapter of Beta Alpha Psi, through hard work and dedication, remains a Superior Chapter.

You are the “mitochondria” of Beta Alpha Psi. In other words, your energy and excellence are the reason we exist. A list of those that spoke during the spring follow:

Hancock Askew & Co.
Dabbs, Hickman, Hill and Cannon

Draffin and Tucker, LLP
Elliott Davis
Bulloch County Business & Finance Superintendent

Our Appreciation to Mr. Don Daniels

Our Chapter of Beta Alpha Psi is lucky to have many superb alumni. While all alumni are equally important, it seems appropriate to give special recognition to Don Daniels. For those that don’t know, Don Daniels is a Georgia Southern alum and currently serves as the Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer at JetBlue Airways. Each year, Don helps our officers with airfare to the Annual BΑΨ conference on JetBlue. His generosity allows our organization to spend its resources in other important areas. As an example, BΑΨ gave out four scholarships to its members and candidates this past spring.

Our former BΑΨ President, Brenden Adams, described Don perfectly with the following quote: Don Daniels is genuinely one of the nicest people I have ever met. He has been one of the University’s biggest supporters over the years, especially for his contributions to the Zeta Delta Chapter of Beta Alpha Psi. His contributions have helped send our officers to the annual meeting held this summer. This opportunity provides valuable learning experience for our officers, which enhances the long term success of our organization. Although we greatly appreciate his financial support, it should be noted that Mr. Daniels’ character and loyalty to his University outweigh his financial contributions.”

Don, from all current and prior BΑΨ officers, please allow us to thank you for your efforts. As aforementioned, we appreciate more than just your contributions. You are the epitome of TRUE BLUE!

Sincerely,

All BΑΨ Officers

Many Georgia Southern accounting students won accounting-related scholarships this year. Many of these were offered at the 2011 Accounting Day, an event similar to Meet the Firms that is held in the spring. The awards display the excellence and diligence that GSU students strive to achieve. The graciousness of the firms and organizations to give these scholarships to our students shows just how remarkable the accounting profession is as a whole. As many firms and organizations have seen firsthand, our students always attempt to provide a positive return on the investment. The Georgia Southern Accounting Association has a three word motto that summarizes the beliefs of our accounting students: “Honesty, Integrity, Purpose.”
