@CT2

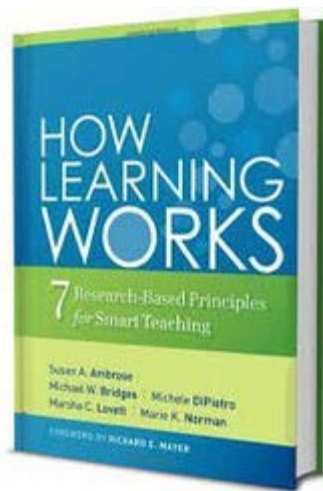

We Have a Few Ideas

There's still time to sign up for Writer's Boot Camp! This intensive boot camp will help you dig into your summer projects by allowing you to set aside time for writing. Sessions will run from 8:45 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. May 8-11. Be sure to register soon!

Can't make it? Looking for a way to keep your writing on track? Check out the additional Writer's Boot Camps we'll be hosting over the summer:

- June 19-22; 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.
- July 24-27; 8:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m.

Teaching Academy

Would you like to learn how to motivate students in your classes? Are you interested in new teaching strategies that enhance student learning? Do you want to learn how to create inclusive learning environments that support all students in your classroom?

CTL's Teaching Academy provides an opportunity to read, discuss, and reflect on research-based principles of student learning in the context of your own teaching. Based on the book How Learning Works, session will allow you to engage in a series of activities that can support you in cultivating a reflective approach to teaching and identify ways to refine your own pedagogical practice.

The summer Teaching Academy will meet Tuesdays and Thursdays May 16 through June 1, 10-11:30 a.m. Register now!

Attendance is limited to 20 participants; by registering you commit to attending all group meetings.

Thank You to Our Flipped Showcase Presenters

Thank you to our faculty presenters at the Flipped Learning Showcase! The showcase was the culmination of a year long Faculty Learning Community, during which faculty members designed, implemented, and assessed flipped learning modules.

Interested in joining the 2017-2018 cohort? Read more about this year-long opportunity, and stay tuned for further announcements!

Be sure to congratulate the participants!

Brad Holley, French

Shainaz Landge, Chemistry

Joe Rousseau, Management

Pete Rogers, Civil Engineering and Construction Management

Salman Siddiqui, Electrical Engineering

Jorge Villa Vargas, Physics

Lainie Wilson, Accounting

Congratulations on Another Year of Teaching Excellence!

The CT2 staff thank you for your dedication to serving our students. We're here to help you on that mission. It's never too soon to start thinking about fall courses! Follow us on Facebook and share your summer course planning posts! Stop by over the summer to work on your course with an instructional designer.

Interested in one of our intensive programs, faculty learning communities, or book discussion groups? Check our website application deadlines and meeting schedules.

We wish you all a productive and rejuvenating summer!
