EVERETTE CEMETERY

Candler County, Georgia (formerly Bulloch Co.)

There are errors in previously published listing of the graves in this cemetery; error in name, in date of death; and several omitted. It is therefore being listed here in its correct version due to verification of names in family Bibles, Wills, etc. Genealogy notes have been added by Mrs. Alvaretta K. Register, Certified Genealogist, who is compiling a book on this family and their descendants.

The name EVERETTE is shown on the gate of the iron fence which surrounds the graveyard. Members of the family who remained in Bulloch County use EVERETT while those who moved on to Thomas County, Georgia, to Alabama, Mississippi, and Texas use EVERITT.

EXCELSIOR CEMETERY

Candler County, Georgia (formerly Bulloch Co.)

Excelsior was a thriving community during the 1800s, made up of prosperous and prominent families of Bulloch Co. An Academy was located there, and people in other sections of the county, send their children to live with relatives in Excelsior during the school term. When Candler Co. was created in 1914, this area fell into the new county.

The Excelsior Cemetery, sometimes referred to as "The Old Williams Cemetery" and at other times as "The Atwood Cemetery", is located 18.9 miles from Statesboro. Directions: Go south on Hwy. 301 & 25; turn into Hwy. 46 when it forks with 301; go through Register, Ga. At Pulaski, Ga. (13.5 mi. from Statesboro), turn left onto a paved road; go under the underpass of Interstate #16; then over a bridge, a total of 5.3 mi. from the left turn at Pulaski. Immediately after the bridge, and a high embankment on left, will be seen the cemetery on left. The lot has grass in front and graves in the back, and is surrounded on three sides by woods.

Some of the stones are hard to read, therefore names and dates have been checked against Bibles, census, and obits. The survey was done by Mrs. Hazel Rosser and Mrs. Alvaretta K. Register. Genealogy notes have been added by Mrs. Register, a Certified Genealogist. Read from first row, always beginning at the left of each row.

BULLOCH COUNTY, GEORGIA

MACEDONIA MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH CEMETERY
Bulloch County, Georgia

LOCATION: The Church and Cemetery is located in the 48th Militia Dist. of Bulloch Co., in the area called "Hagan". Residents of the area are identified as such in census records.

Or, (2) Go out Hwy. 301 north, 7.7 miles from Statesboro; turn right at the sign of Cooper Weis plant; continue from pavement onto dirt road; at second intersection, turn right. The church is within sight on left side of road.

HISTORY: Macedonia Baptist Church was organized in May 1854 by Rev. James R. Miller. A monument was erected in his memory and dedicated on Thanksgiving Day 1903. One hundred years history of the church has been published, and is a cherished possession of many members.

CEMETERY: A survey of tombstones was made by four members of Archibald Bulloch Chapter DAR, assisted by four members of the Church. To assure accuracy, members of the church double-checked all of it. In addition, data on burials in unmarked graves has been supplied by Mrs. Gordon Waters, and Mrs. James O. Anderson from family Bibles. When dates were not on tombstones, research has been done from census records, etc. by Mrs. Alvaretta K. Register, a Certified Genealogist. Mrs. Waters is related to many persons buried in this cemetery, and knew others personally. The committee was composed of the following:

Church:	Mrs. Lynward L. Perkins
	Mrs. Gordon Waters
	Mrs. Lottie Miller
	Mrs. Myra Halfacre
DAR:	Mrs. James O. Anderson
	Mrs. Aldine A. Rosser
	Mrs. Lawrence B. Kelly
	Mrs. Alvaretta Kenan Register, Chairman

Names with a line covering two graves, indicate the same headstone. Those with a line around a group of graves, indicate a curb stone, iron fence, or other marker showing a family lot.

This cemetery is part of a volume of Bulloch County Cemeteries, thus the page numbers do not begin with number one. The index is keyed to the page number in the book.

NEW HOPE CEMETERY
Bulloch County, Georgia

New Hope Church, ten miles east of Statesboro, was the second Methodist Episcopal Church established in Bulloch County. Georgia was then, and until 1830, a part of the South Carolina Conference.

The first "New Hope Meeting Home" was built near the Horace Hagin home on the present Brooklet-Clito Road in 1804. The first New Hope Cemetery was established there. No markers are left now, as it has been covered with trees.

In 1825 a new building was built on the Savannah-Milledgeville stage road (known today as Georgia Route #24, the Statesboro-Oliver Road).

A second cemetery was begun at that time and is in use today. The present New Hope Church was built in 1907.

A committee of members of the New Hope Church made a survey of the cemetery in December 1979. Mrs. W. A. Hodges served as chairman of the group.
