Article VIII.

No officer or Committee member of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of this corporation of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any of the property of the officer, or Directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation, provided, however, the above provision shall not apply to the personal liability of a director of the corporation:

(1) for any appropriation, in violation of his/her duties, of any business opportunity of the corporation;
(2) for any acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violations of the law; or
(3) for any transaction from which the director received an improper personal benefit.

Any repeal or modification of this Article by the corporation shall not adversely affect any right or protection of a director or the corporation existing at the time of such repeal or modification.
Article IX.
Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of by the District Court of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article X.
These Articles of Incorporation may be altered, amended or repealed by a two-thirds majority of the Board of Directors. Proposed amendments must be submitted to the Secretary to be sent out with regular Board announcements.

In witness whereof, the undersigned has executed these Articles of Incorporation.
