RSVP Now for Spring 2017 Data Management Workshops

Lunch-N-Learn: Data Management Plan Basics

Noon - 1pm, Thursday, February 23rd
Library Conference Room

RSVP Now!

Many funding agencies and publishers now require that research data be made publicly available. We will discuss the basics of data management planning, sharing, and archiving, with emphasis on resources and supports available to all campus researchers (faculty and students) through the Zach S. Henderson Library. Dessert and drinks will be provided.

Afternoon Workshop: NSF Data Management Requirements 101

2-3pm, Friday, March 10th
Library Conference Room

RSVP Now!

The NSF and its directorates require that all grant applications include a data management plan. Bring a bag lunch and join us to learn about the NSF's data requirements, why they matter, and how to best prepare your data management plan for a successful grant application. Snacks will be provided.

Lunch-N-Learn: Manage Research Workflows with Open Science Framework and Digital Commons

Noon-1pm, Tuesday, April 18th
Library Conference Room

RSVP Now!

Together, Open Science Framework and Digital Commons offer useful tools for managing your research workflows. Keep all your files, data, and protocols in one centralized location. Avoid trawling emails to find files or scrambling to recover lost data. Control which parts of your project are public or private, making it easy to collaborate with the worldwide community or just your team. Publish your data when it is ready to share. Dessert and drinks will be provided.
