I. Purpose

The Academic Convocations policy is designed to ensure an appropriate faculty representation at May and December commencement exercises as well as the Honors Day program.

II. Policy Statement

The academic year contract includes participation in the May and December commencement exercises as well as the Honors Day program, and faculty are expected to participate in academic regalia.

III. Exclusions

None.

IV. Procedures

At times, based upon limited seating capacity, the Provost's Office will announce a proportional percentage of faculty for each college and the libraries and will request that units adhere to those limits in determining the line of march.
