Southern Hospitality

Conference Services Weekly Update

THE SEASON FINALE

We did it! We made it through this busy summer, all the while maintaining a standard of “southern hospitality” that would make any mother immensely proud. Our last few camps, Youth For Christ and BUILD 2 checked-out of Centennial Place and Kennedy on Friday, and like our many other conference groups, expressed their appreciation for their warm welcome and enjoyable stay here at Georgia Southern University. Thanks to our staff always striving to go above and beyond for our guests, they didn’t step foot back on their buses without letting us know that they were already excitedly anticipating returning to our campus next year. Youth For Christ, whose stay was managed by Marcus Mosely, had glowing remarks for our staff, housing accommodations, dining facility and meeting spaces.

However, though we are very proud of our staff, it would be remiss of us to not acknowledge the other departments within auxiliary services that make Conference Services a “one-stop-shop”. We would like to give a huge thank you to Eagle Dining Services, Parking and Transportation, Facilities/Maintenance, and - last but certainly not least - University Housing.
