

CLASS Notes

October 12, 2009

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/class-notes>

Part of the Arts and Humanities Commons, and the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Georgia Southern University, "CLASS Notes" (2009). CLASS Notes. 4.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/class-notes/4>

This newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the Arts and Humanities, College of - College Publications at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in CLASS Notes by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

CLASS

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS &
SOCIAL SCIENCES

notes

October 12, 2009

Welcome to Georgia Southern University / College of Liberal Arts & Social Sciences

On Tuesday, October 13th at 7:30 p.m. the Center for Irish Studies will sponsor the Gaels of Music concert and fundraiser. This celebration of Irish music and culture will be held at the Averitt Center for the Arts' Emma Kelly Theater in downtown Statesboro. Now in its fourth year, the event raises money for the Eddie Ivie scholarship, which allows Georgia Southern University students to study in Ireland at the prestigious University of Limerick. This year's concert is hosted by Harry O'Donoghue and features the music of Gabriel Donohue, Danny Rae Cole, Frank Emerson, Johnnie Kennedy, the Irish Dancers of Savannah, and GSU Music Majors. A reception featuring food and beverages from Kevin Barry's Irish Pub in Savannah will be held at 6 p.m. prior to the concert, and tickets are available at the door.

In early November, the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences will initiate a web-based membership society called Friends of CLASS. For only $50 per year, alumni and other supporters can become Friends of CLASS and help support the many outstanding programs and activities that are part of the College. Look for details about this new initiative in the next edition of CLASS Notes.

Also in November, CLASS Notes will expand to include even more information about the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences. In its new monthly format, CLASS Notes will feature a different department or center each month while continuing to keep you up to date on CLASS-related news, events, and accomplishments. We also will recognize new Friends of CLASS each month.

Look for the November issue of CLASS Notes by mid-month.

Warm Regards,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads 'Michael R. Smith'.

Michael R. Smith, Dean

Upcoming CLASS Events

Art and Theatre

September 14 - October 22

Roxie Edge of 90

University Gallery, Center for Art & Theatre

Faculty Exhibition

Contemporary Gallery, Center for Art & Theatre

October 26 - November 12

Seeds of Passage

Contemporary Gallery, Center for Art & Theatre

A Generation of Printmaking

University Gallery, Center for Art & Theatre

Music

October 12, 1:00 p.m.

Student Recital

Carter Recital Hall, Foy Building

October 13, 7:30 p.m.

Faculty Recital

Kyle Hancock, baritone and Karla Qualls, piano

Carter Recital Hall, Foy Building

October 15, 7:30 p.m.

Graduation Recital

Jonathan Hesse, piano

Carter Recital Hall, Foy Building

October 16, 7:30 p.m.

Vocal Arts Gala

Carter Recital Hall, Foy Building

October 18, 3:00 p.m.

Senior Recital

Alex Sellers, saxophone

Richard Mercier, piano

Carter Recital Hall, Foy Building

Lectures and Readings

November 5, 7:00 p.m.

Reading by Dorothy Allison, author of Bastard out of Carolina and Skin: Talking about Sex, Class, and Literature

Performing Arts Center (PAC)

November 10, 6:00 p.m.

"The German Army and the Holocaust"

Lecture by Dr. Geoffrey Megargee, historian from the National Holocaust Memorial Museum

College of Information Technology (CIT) Lecture Hall

