PREFACE

This volume is a continuation of the survey of Bulloch County cemeteries by the Genealogical Records Committee, Archibald Bulloch Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. As before cemeteries in surrounding counties which once were in Bulloch County are included.

After a three year search, it is believed that most of the still-existing small family cemeteries have been located. And the survey of church cemeteries in Bulloch County has been completed. Still to be accomplished is a survey of Bulloch Memorial Gardens and of the "new" section of Eastside Cemetery.

Where two or more persons are buried with a single headstone, this is indicated by "SS" (same stone) between the inscriptions. A line drawn around inscriptions shows that there is a lot, enclosed by a concrete curb, fencing or otherwise enclosed. "UTM" indicates that there is no tombstone but only an undertaker's metal marker. "Illeg." or "Ill." indicates that the inscription is illegible.

A small amount of information given by descendants, and census and marriage records is included.

As with the last volume, much assistance has been given to our surveying. The staff of the Statesboro Regional Library has been most cooperative and two members of the staff, Mrs. William Starling and Mrs. David Starling, have given considerate assistance with the actual surveying.

Directions for reaching each cemetery from Statesboro are included, together with names of surveyors and date surveyed.

This volume contains 20 cemeteries with a total of 1781 tombstone inscriptions.

Typist-Mrs. David Starling.

VISIT TO BANKS BURYING GROUND NEAR LEEFIELD, Bulloch County, Georgia

March 6, 1967

I visited the Banks Cemetery that Miss Mittie Hodges told me about.

My great uncle Jonah Banks told me about this place before he died.

This cemetery is supposed to be where Cuyler Banks and family and also Martha Streagles Banks are buried.

The cemetery was just where Miss Mittie told me it would be. It was not in the Macedonia Church Community but near Leefield. The Allen Davis mill pond is now called Hagin's Mill Pond and the cemetery is within sight of the old Davis residence (behind it).

The farm where it is located is now owned by a Mr. Cowart whose father bought the land about 1913. The cemetery is in a field in front of the Cowart house. These people have plowed the cemetery under and only the stumps of small oak trees distinguish the boundary of the plot. Someone has tried to burn the stumps and had piled up the remaining stones and tried to burn these too.

Only two stones were found:

Small concrete stone: (Very crude)

Sacred to

T. H. Banks
Born April 13, 1882
Died Sept. 28, 1883
Little Tommy is with Jesus

Small marble stone

Children of Dr. T. T. and L. Seibels

Thomas Lamar
April 12, 1880
Sept. 15, 1886

Martha J.
Dec. 12, 1884
Dec. 21, 1884

There were 3 very small foot stones with the above children's initials on them--piled up with the head stones--A pity these people have no respect for the dead.

Originally this was called Corinth Cemetery and it was a part of Corinth Missionary Baptist Church which once was on the property. The membership gradually decreased until the decision was made to combine with the Leefield Missionary Baptist Church. The church building was sold to a Black congregation and it was moved to another location. The cemetery was given to Leefield Baptist Church.

OLD DELOACH CEMETERY
Evans County, Georgia

Directions; From Nevils go out Nevils-Daisy Road for 2.3 miles. Turn right on dirt road. (Martin Cemetery is on the left at the turn.) Go .3 of a mile. Turn right. (First dirt road) Go 2.3 miles, past DeLoach Church on the left and across a creek bridge, which is the Evans County line. Road becomes paved. Go .4 of a mile from the paved road. Turn right on a dirt road. Cemetery is .1 of a mile. Mrs. Ethel Byrd, granddaughter of nos. 39 and 40, went with us to this cemetery. It was in Bulloch County until 1915 when Evans County was created.

The cemetery is cyclone-fenced and fairly well-kept. The tombstones are more or less placed in a haphazard fashion. Some face one way, some the other. There are no rows as such. We began at the left front.

Surveyed 7 Oct. 1982 by Mrs. William Starling, Mrs. David Starling, and Mrs. Lawrence Kelly, Chmn.

OLD EUREKA CEMETERY
Once called ZOAR
Bulloch County, Georgia

Directions: From Stateboro go out 301 North to Clito. At Clito Baptist Church turn right on paved road. Go 1.2 miles to second dirt road. Turn left. Go .9 of a mile, past Eureka Methodist Church. Cemetery is in front of W. E. Thompson's house. It is fenced. It is so badly neglected that most of the graves are almost inaccessible.

We were told by a long-time resident of the area that there once was a store on each side of the cemetery. In one store was the Post Office called Zoar and that originally the cemetery was called Zoar Cemetery.

Surveyed by Mr. and Mrs. David Starling and Mrs. Lawrence B. Kelly, Chmn. on Nov. 7, 1982.
