Assistant Professor Solomon K. Smith publishes article on teaching

September 5, 2013

Assistant Professor Solomon K. Smith just published an article on using board games to teach various aspects of history. The article centers on his use of the game 1776 to teach notions of command and the decision making process in his American Revolution Class. For more information, see the following: "Pounding Dice into Musket Balls: Using Wargames to teach the American Revolution," *The History Teacher*. Vol. 46, No. 4 (August 2014).
