STARTING OFF SPRING 2022

The Office of Inclusive Excellence strives for success at Georgia Southern University. We acknowledge that success involves many core values, including embracing and accepting individuals for who they are. While, our focus is to maintain and inclusive environment, we genuinely care about the academic success of our students. One of the most important keys to reaching academic success in higher learning is time management. Check out these quick facts on how you can become more successful this year by learning how to manage your time!

HOW TO PRACTICE ALLYSHIP AT GEORGIA SOUTHERN UNIVERSITY

1) READ THE ALLYSHIP NEWSLETTERS
Each monthly newsletter is filled with an abundant amount of information about different religions, races, genders, cultures, and traditions. Knowledge is the key to success, and by learning something new would contribute to the growth of inclusiveness at GSU.

2) STAND UP FOR SOMEONE
The need for inclusiveness exists because of inequity that does exist. Therefore, to become a better ally stand up for someone who has a different lifestyle than you!

3) ATTEND AN EAGLE TALKS
Eagle Talks is a student-led adaptation of Courageous Conversations, which is designed to provide a safe space that is conducive to open, honest, and authentic dialogue about difficult but relevant topics that impact the Georgia Southern community.

CELEBRATE WITH US!

KOREAN AMERICAN DAY
JANUARY 13TH

National Korean American Day respects Americans with full or partial Korean descent. This holiday also acknowledges the arrival of the first Korean immigrants to the States. A fun way to celebrate Korean American Day is to enjoy a Korean meal with your friends!

WORLD RELIGIONS DAY
JANUARY 15TH

World Religions Day promotes diversity around the world and encourages people to learn about different religions. This holiday advances equity in the world and increases the respect amongst the different religions. One of the ways you can celebrate World Religions Day is to listen to talks and listen to someone of a different faith belief.

MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. (MLK) DAY
JANUARY 17TH

MLK Day is a U.S. holiday honoring the phenomenal works of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., a civil rights leader who promoted and practiced non-violent retaliation tactics against racial segregation. To respectfully celebrate MLK Day, you can simply watch his famous "I Have A Dream" speech and remember how far our nation has come. Another excellent way to celebrate MLK Day would be to engage in an MLK Day parade!

INTERNATIONAL HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE DAY
JANUARY 27TH

International Holocaust Remembrance Day is celebrated on January 27th. This holiday commemorates the six million Jews who were massacred by Nazi Germany from 1941 to 1945. Try watching a film about the holocaust in order to honor the millions of lives lost during the genocide of European Jews. "The Boy in The Striped Pajamas", is a great film to watch in remembrance of the holocaust!
