Library Faculty Personnel Policies

Contents Revised January 2014

Introduction

Zach S. Henderson Library is the chief mediator between the community of Georgia Southern University scholars to which it belongs; the ever growing student body it serves; and the corporate conveyers of information. The Library serves as conservator of traditional knowledge forms and cultural legacies, and is at the heart of a rapidly evolving system of scholarly communication. Continuing technological advances have changed the delivery systems of information, and have added, via the internet, a cyberspace learning environment that transcends geographical borders. In fulfilling the Library’s mission, Henderson librarians practice the profession of librarianship as clinical faculty, as distinct from being teaching and research faculty in a school of library science. For this reason, performance expectations emphasize excellence in librarianship, service to the profession and university, and scholarship, in that priority order. As a result, the following guidelines and criteria apply to all tenure track library faculty to help meet performance expectations.

Annual, Tenure, Promotion, and Post-Tenure Reviews.

Each faculty member (whether tenure-track or non-tenure track, part-time or full time, or post-retirement part-time) is evaluated annually to ensure effective performance and facilitate improvement. Annual evaluations also serve as the basis for recommending merit salary increases and determining continuation of non-tenured, tenure-track faculty and non-tenure-track faculty (excluding full-time, temporary/visiting faculty). Special evaluations are made for the following specific decisions:

- pre-tenure review
- tenure
- promotion
- post-tenure review

The Tenure Committee will conduct all pre-tenure, tenure, and post-tenure reviews, and the Promotion Review Committee will review promotion candidacies. With the exception of the Dean of the Library and the department head or supervisor of the candidate under review, the Tenure Committee will be composed of all library faculty members who have received tenure and the Promotion Review Committee will consist of all associate and full professors. A simple majority of committee members will constitute a quorum. No votes on any personnel action will be taken by either committee unless there is a quorum, and only faculty members in attendance may vote.

The Post-Tenure Review Committee will consist of the P&T committee. The P&T committee will elect a member of the committee to be chair. A faculty member is not eligible to serve during a year in which he/she is a candidate for post-tenure review. For the specific activities and deadlines associated with Post-Tenure review, see the Georgia Southern Faculty Handbook, Section 213 and the Board of Regents Policy Manual, (8.3.5.4) Post Tenure Reviews take place at every five year interval from the last promotion and/or post tenure review.
Procedures.

Annual Reviews: Faculty submit a report of their professional activities to their department head or direct supervisor by early January. Department heads/supervisors conduct annual faculty reviews January through March.

Special Reviews: Prior to fall semester the Dean of the Library will set the deadlines for submitting documentation in support of promotion, tenure, pre-tenure, or post-tenure candidacies. The schedule will allow for an adequate time period for the review of documentation prior to the meeting when the tenure and promotion committees will act upon the candidacies. Candidates for promotion must declare themselves in the spring prior to when their applications will be reviewed, in order ensure there is enough time to select external reviewers. Post-tenure materials are submitted in January and pre-tenure materials are due February 1 (see sections 212 and 213 of the Faculty Handbook http://academics.georgiasouthern.edu/provost/pdf/handbook.pdf), and the committee consideration of those candidacies will be scheduled accordingly. The Dean of the Library will stipulate the deadline by which committee recommendations must be submitted to the Dean. In cases of promotion or tenure reviews, after full discussion of a candidate each member of the appropriate committee will submit one vote, and the votes will be tallied on a single sheet of paper. Individuals will not be identified according to how they voted. Abstentions are permitted. The tally and written comments constitute the report to the Dean of the Library. If more than 50 percent of the ballots are in favor of tenure or promotion, a positive recommendation is forwarded to the Dean. Otherwise, the committee will forward a negative recommendation. In the latter event, a candidate has seven days from receiving the written notification of the committee’s recommendation to submit a request for reconsideration by the committee. The Dean of the Library, after also considering input from the candidate’s department head/supervisor, will forward a written decision, either positive or negative, to the Provost, and will inform the candidate, in writing, of the decision (see Appendix I). The candidate will have ten days to submit a request for reconsideration of a negative decision to the Dean. In cases of a pre-tenure or post-tenure review, the committee will meet and discuss the faculty member’s merits and weaknesses. If it is a pre-tenure review, the committee will then vote on whether the probationary candidate is on schedule to meet tenure requirements, ahead of schedule to meet tenure requirements, or not on schedule to meet tenure requirements. If 50% or more vote that the candidate is not on schedule to meet tenure requirements, the committee will include in its report the area(s) in which it believes the candidate is lacking. If it is a post-tenure review, the committee will vote on whether the candidate’s performance since her/his last promotion, tenure, or post-tenure review has met expectations or has not met expectations. If 50% or more of the committee members vote that the candidate has not met expectations, the committee will include in its report the area(s) in which it believes the candidate is lacking. The committee may also vote that the candidate is deserving of special recognition for meritorious achievement, and if the committee so finds the rationale will be included in the committee report. A pre-tenure or post-tenure committee report is given to the candidate’s supervisor, who will review the results with the Dean of the Library before discussing the report with the candidate. Post-tenure reviews are subject to the same appeal process as tenure reviews.

Timetable.

The timetable for promotion and tenure evaluation, as described in sections 208 and 209 of the Faculty Handbook http://academics.georgiasouthern.edu/provost/pdf/handbook.pdf, will be followed. The timetable for post-tenure reviews shall also conform to the Faculty Handbook, section 213, in which the Board of Regents policy states that each tenured faculty member is to be reviewed five years after the most recent promotion or personnel action, as defined below, and at five-year intervals unless interrupted by a promotion, a written declaration to retire within five years (submitted to the appropriate dean), or a leave of absence. Section 212 of the Faculty Handbook stipulates a pre-tenure review will take place in a tenure-track faculty member’s third year, but Henderson Library will conduct a full pre-tenure review in all six probationary years (see Appendices II and III). Additionally, Section 214 of the Faculty Handbook outlines the requirements for non-tenure appointments (e.g. lecturers and senior lecturers). Evaluation and promotion guidelines for non-tenure track appointments are also described in this section.

Criteria for Evaluation

Faculty undergoing tenure or post-tenure review must demonstrate effective performance in Category A below, and substantial achievement in Categories B and/or C. Candidates for promotion who are already tenured must demonstrate that since the last increase in rank they have achieved an effective performance record in Category A and accomplishments in Categories B and/or C commensurate with the rank being sought. Appendix IV contains a description of the documentation that must be provided for pre-tenure, post-tenure, promotion, and tenure reviews.

Concerning general professional and scholarly qualifications, and the rank of the library faculty, Henderson Library has consulted but has not adopted the entire language used in A Guideline for the Appointment, Promotion and Tenure of Academic Librarians published by the Association of College and Research Libraries (ACRL) (see http://www.ala.org/ala/mgrps/divs/acrl/standards/promotiontenure.cfm). This statement defines the criteria for review of librarians in American institutions of higher education, and is designed so as to be adaptable to the rules and guidelines established by individual colleges or university systems.

Librarians appointed as lecturers will undergo annual reviews at the same time as other annual faculty reviews are conducted. Library lecturers must demonstrate achievement in librarianship and in at least one of the following areas: (1) service; (2) personal, professional growth and development.

After six years of service, a lecturer may be reappointed only if the lecturer has demonstrated "exceptional librarianship and extraordinary value to the institution," which shall be defined as achievement in librarianship, service, and personal, professional growth and development. Additionally, a Library lecturer may be considered for promotion to Senior Lecturer after his/her reappointment after six years of service.

Examples of achievement in librarianship, service, and personal, professional growth and development can be found in Appendices V-VIII.

Library lecturers may be considered for promotion to Senior Lecturer, following the requirements described in Faculty Handbook section 214.0102."

A. Contributions to the educational function of the University. In this category, librarians will be evaluated on their areas of professional responsibility within the Library. This corresponds to the area defined as Teaching in the University System of Georgia guidelines for tenure and promotion. Teaching is the most fundamental description of the work done by faculty in their daily job responsibilities (see Appendix V).

B. Research, scholarly, and creative activities. In this category are activities that serve to create or disseminate knowledge, entertainment, or aesthetic and cultural enrichment.

C. Service: In this category are activities undertaken for the benefit of the Henderson Library, the university, the community, and the library profession through professional organizations at the national, regional, state, or local level.
Examples of activities which may be included in Categories A, B, and C are listed in Appendices VI-VIII.

Appendix IX, "Research, Scholarship, and Professional Development Service Activities for Tenure and/or Promotion" provides a measure of the library faculty’s consideration of the value of various activities by candidates for promotion or tenure. These are listed in order of rank, 3 as highest and 1 as lowest. Candidates should strive to complete relatively high-ranking activities.

External Peer Review Guidelines

Each tenured for tenure-track faculty member undergoing either a promotion or tenure review shall submit to his/her chair or unit head the names and contact information of at least three qualified individuals not directly involved in the faculty member's work (i.e., have not been involved as a mentor or close collaborator) who can objectively review the faculty member's portfolio. The individuals should be experts in the faculty member's field and hold an academic appointment at an institution at least similar to Georgia Southern with rank at or above the rank to which the candidate is aspiring. The department chair or chair of the department's Tenure and Promotion Committee shall solicit letters from two of the individuals that address the quality of work performed and readiness of the candidate for promotion and/or tenure. In addition to submitting names for individuals who may be contacted for external review, the faculty member may submit up to three names (and contact information) of individuals who may NOT be contacted by anyone involved in the tenure and/or promotion review. The department chair in association with the Tenure and Promotion Committee chair may also solicit up to two additional letters from any individual not on the forbidden list that he or she may think has the background commensurate with carefully evaluating the candidate's portfolio and contributions to the profession.

The documentation from the external reviewer should be in the Dean's office two weeks prior to the P&T deliberation. The P&T committee will use the documentation from the external reviewer as part of the deliberation. Regardless of whether or not any external review documentation is received, the P&T Committee deliberations will proceed as scheduled.

This information must be provided for each reviewer:

- Name
- Title/Rank
- Address
- Phone Number
- Fax Number
- E-mail Address
- Brief statement of their qualifications

The Tenure & Promotion Committee Chair requests that the faculty submit names of potential external reviewers before the established deadline (see Appendix X: Sample Letter to External Evaluator)

Amendments to Promotion and Tenure Policies

Faculty members hired into the tenure track shall be responsible within their probationary period for meeting the Library promotion and tenure criteria in effect at the time their employment begins. For all subsequent promotions, faculty members shall be responsible for meeting the Library promotion criteria in effect at the time of their application for promotion. Then-existing procedural provisions regarding the composition and responsibilities of Library personnel review committees for promotion and/or tenure and required application materials shall apply to all faculty at the time of their application for promotion and/or tenure.
