OTHER UPDATES...

University Housing Projects

Siding replacement at University Villas, roof repair at Freedom's Landing and window replacement at Southern Pines will be completed in the coming weeks. Wi-fi and internet improvements in both University Villas and Freedom's Landing are also wrapping up before the start of the semester.

Russell Union

While the large-scale HVAC update is nearing completion, cabinetry and front-of-the-house construction at Chick-fil-A are being finalized as well as back-of-the-house construction and reorganization. Interior construction, tiling, and cabinetry in Starbucks continues and equipment installation should commence shortly. Both are anticipated to be completed before the beginning of Fall semester 2017.

Parking and Transportation

Paving has been completed in north Lot 21 and the area behind the Parking and Transportation office. Landscaping and lot striping for both areas are nearly complete and these areas of Lot 21 will be re-opened to the public in the coming weeks.
