Student Government Association Holds Annual State of the University Address
The Student Government Association (SGA) held its annual State of the University Address recently, which provided an opportunity for the student body to interact directly with Georgia Southern University administration.

During the event, attended by more than 300 students, administrative vice presidents, various deans and other faculty and staff members, President Brooks Keel, Ph.D., welcomed the student body and spoke about the exciting new facilities and academic programs underway.

School of Nursing Celebrates Inaugural White Coat Ceremony
The Georgia Southern University School of Nursing was recently chosen as part of a test program in which 100 schools received funding to pilot its first-ever White Coat Ceremony. The School celebrated the event on Friday, Sept. 19 at the Georgia Southern University Performing Arts Center. The ceremony was the result of a collaborative partnership between The Arnold P. Gold Foundation (APGF) and the American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN).

Georgia Southern Radio Network Highlights Faculty Experts and Programs

During Georgia Southern’s football game on Saturday, Sept. 20 against the University of South Alabama, Hope Wallace, lecturer of Fashion Merchandising and Apparel Design (FMAD), sat down for a halftime show radio interview with the Georgia Southern Radio Network to discuss one of the University’s fastest growing and newest programs: FMAD. “Students can expect to be immersed in the world of fashion right away,” she said. Georgia Southern University’s Fashion Merchandising and Apparel Design Program has gained national exposure for being ranked in the top 25 percent in the nation and the ninth best in the South. You can listen to the broadcast.

Produced by Georgia Southern Athletics, Georgia Southern Radio Network is broadcast on 11 stations in the network across Georgia and the Southeast. You can listen to the exciting lineup of programs throughout the season during half-time on local station 103.7 “The Boomer” in Statesboro.
