It all started with a question.
What do you want most?

Saturday October 20, 2012

Sponsored by: The Office of Student Leadership & Civic Engagement
Our Mission

The Office of Student Leadership and Civic Engagement, guided by the principles of transformational leadership, integrates learning, service, and leadership to empower students to become active, global citizens who lead with a lifelong commitment to service.

Our office is dedicated to helping students develop both in and out of the classroom through:

Leadership
A strong co-curricular leadership program of workshops, seminars, conferences, and nationally recognized speakers.

Civic Engagement
Put your leadership skills to work by participating in weekly volunteer events, alternative break trips, hunger and homelessness week, and more.

Service-Learning
Connect your classroom experience to the community in courses that combine academics and service.

Learn. Serve. Lead

Workshop Session 10:10 – 11:00

Workshop Title: Stepping Up, Speaking Out, and Resisting Everyday Oppression--RU 2041
Presenter: April Schueths, Assistant Professor of Sociology and Nathan Palmer, Lecturer of Sociology, Georgia Southern University
Workshop Track: Social Justice Issues
Workshop Description: Dry mouth, cold clammy hands, heart rate flying. When someone says something prejudiced or does something discriminatory it can be hard, in the moment, to know how to respond. In this workshop Dr. April Schueths and Nathan Palmer offer strategies for stepping up, speaking out, and resisting everyday oppression.

Workshop Title: Check the Ego, Cato! Approaching and Confronting Peers--RU 2080
Presenter: Dan Zimmerman, Resident Director for Southern Pines
Workshop Track: Emerging Leadership
Workshop Description: Are you a fan of the Hunger Games? Do you want to learn how to handle conflict among your peers? Come volunteer as tribute, and discover the styles and behaviors at your fellow tributes, and take victory and success home to your district!

Workshop Title: What Color is Your Leadership?--RU 2084
Presenter: Ryle, Office of Student Leadership and Civic Engagement Graduate Assistant
Workshop Track: Self-Leadership
Workshop Description: Your personality plays a large role in your leadership, especially your self-leadership. Understanding some key aspects of your personality is helpful to understanding yourself as a leader. Find out what color accurately describes you and your leadership style. In this energizing interactive presentation, the participants will learn dynamics of leadership as it relates to True Colors.

Title: We have an advisor…What do we do with them?--RU 2047
Presenter: Jess Turuc, Interim Director of Fraternity and Sorority Relations
Workshop Track: Greek Leadership
Workshop Description: We’ve all got one, an advisor but do you sometimes wonder what’s their purpose? What do they want from us, besides meeting deadlines and staying out of trouble. However, there is no doubt that advisors play an important and integral role in guiding the chapter. After attending this session, participants will have a better understanding of the role of an advisor and receive great tips to maximize the relationship between the advisor and chapter.
Workshop Session 10:10–11:00

Title: OMG! I’m a Greek Leader!–RU 2047
Presenter: Jess Turuc, Interim Director of Fraternity and Sorority Relations
Workshop Track: Greek Leadership
Workshop Description: Every student has a jammed-packed schedule but add being a member of a fraternity or sorority to it and it’s like adding another heap of mashed potatoes. This session will target time management, stress management, and leadership tips from a Greek alum to help you make the most of your involvement and years at Georgia Southern, while keep your sanity.

Workshop Title: What is Leadership–RU 2041
Presenter: Kerry Greenstein, Associate Dean of Students
Workshop Track: Self-Leadership
Workshop Description: This session will help students identify their beliefs about leadership. It will help students understand different theories and approaches to leadership as well as which theories guide their own leadership.

Workshop Title: Are Your V.A.L.U.E.S. Red Carpet Worthy?–RU 2080
Presenter: Amy Zieziula, Interim Director of Student Conduct & Julie Cantor, Coordinator of Student Conduct
Workshop Track: Emerging Leadership
Workshop Description: Bring your popcorn, get your junior mints and come see how leadership really is on the “big screen”. We’ll show you how the stars use V.A.L.U.E.S. as a foundation for their leadership style, and how you can become red carpet worthy.

Workshop Title: The Heifer Model: Put Your Plan Into Action–RU 2084
Presenters: Shelby McCarter, Alternative Break Board Co-Chair
Heather Jo Harralson, Coordinator of Civic Engagement
Workshop Track: Social Justice Issues
Workshop Description: Learn the four-stage community development model Heifer International uses to guide their international presence. The model can be used to put your plan into action and help meet needs in your local community.

Schedule

8:00 a.m.–8:30 a.m. Registration
8:15 a.m.–9:00 a.m. Opening Remarks
9:10 a.m. 10:00 a.m. LEAD Session 1
10:10 a.m. 11:00 a.m. LEAD Session 2
11:10 a.m.-12:00 p.m. LEAD Session 3
12:10 p.m.–1:00 p.m. Hunger Banquet
1:10 p.m.–2:00 p.m. Keynote Speaker
2:10 p.m.–2:30 p.m. Closing Remarks & Goodbyes
How Do I Get There from Here? Setting and Achieving Attainable Goals--RU 2047
Presenter: Tommy Segi - Intramural Sports Director
Workshop Track: Self-Leadership
Workshop Description: Great leaders have a plan both for themselves and their organizations. Failing leaders and organizations have no plan – they try to get by each day and then do it all over again the following day. This “no plan” strategy makes it hard for one to measure success or achievement. A great leader’s “plan” should include short-term and long-term goals that are specific, time bound, and attainable. In this workshop, participants will develop a plan for themselves and for an organization of which they are a member/leader.

Workshop Title: Social Injustices behind Social Movements--RU 2080
Presenter:
Heather Jo Harralson, Coordinator of Civic Engagement
Shelby McCarter, Co-Chair of Alternative Break Board
Lindsay Higgs, Co-Chair of Alternative Break Board
Amber Montrose, Education Chair of Alternative Break Board
Jasmine Hines, Fundraising Chair of Alternative Break Board
Workshop Track: Social Justice Issues
Workshop Description: Take a journey through time to look at social movements that were fueled by social injustices. Also, investigate recent movements and their current impact on social justice issues. Come join members of the Alternative Break Board to discuss how a movement can transform a social injustice.

Workshop Title: Leaders Building Leaders--RU 2041
Presenter: Kerry Greenstein, Associate Dean of Students
Workshop Track: Greek Leadership
Workshop Description: This session will help students learn how to identify the future leaders of their organization. It will also discuss ways to mentor and properly train them to take on the leadership roles in the future.

Workshop Title: Active Citizenship--RU 2084
Presenter: Ryan Keese--Graduate Assistant in the Office of Student Leadership and Civic Engagement
Workshop Track: Emerging Leadership
Workshop Description: This presentation explores what it means to be an Active Citizen. We will review the Active Citizen Continuum and explore the roles of each member along the way. Find out were you fall on the continuum and how you can become an Active Citizen in your community.