YOUR LATEST NEWS FROM THE INKWELL

A Letter from the Editors

Hello GSU Armstrong Eagles! Thank you for coming on this journey with us. As you can see, we are excited to announce our latest media venture, our weekly Inkwell newsletter. As our print edition has temporarily been reduced in frequency, we have decided to create a different news source to bridge the gap. Let us know what you would like to see in next week's edition on the Google form below!

Thank you for reading,
Lila Miller and Thuy-Linh Dang,
Editors-in-Chief

Fall 2021 to Start Mid-Week

The first day of classes for Fall 2021 will start on Wednesday, Aug. 11. Administrators planned the university calendar this way in order to plan for the full schedule of “student-focused” activities designed to enhance students’ experiences of returning to campus. These activities may include music events, meet-and-greets, picnics, recreational activities and volunteer opportunities.

Film Review: “White: Melody of Curse”

Looking for a horror movie this weekend? “White: Melody of Curse” is the best choice. The movie from Korea was first released in 2011 and rapidly went to the fifth rank of the box office chart with the film grossing $5,299,831 in total.

Telfair Museums Offers New Exhibitions

While the world waits for COVID-19 vaccinations and the pollen to clear the air, Telfair Museums has a number of intriguing art exhibitions to venture into safely. The exhibitions range across from Telfair's two out of three museum sites and offer exhibitions of interest in many areas.
