CommArtsTalk

Spring April 1, 2010, Number No.21

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/comm-arts-talk
Part of the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Georgia Southern University, "CommArtsTalk" (2010). Comm Arts Talk. 5.
https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/comm-arts-talk/5

This newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the Communication Arts Publications at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Comm Arts Talk by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.
Statesboro Cooks

Statesboro Cooks is an educational/academic program produced by MMC students. Students are able to learn hands-on production techniques and applications in the course that produces Statesboro Cooks.

The show airs on Channel 97, which is a CNN Newsource affiliate. Air times for the show are 1:00 p.m., 7:30 p.m., and 1:00 a.m. daily. Shows are broadcast to all households with Northland Cable Television in Bulloch County.

“It was nice having the show but the experience gained from producing it was irreplaceable,” said recent MMC graduate, Brittney Herrington.

Statesboro Cooks frequently features student guest hosts and local cooks from the Statesboro area. The show primarily features recipes historic to Bulloch County, although a few new ones are slid in from time to time.

“Our recipes range from anywhere between country cooking to decadent sweets,” said host and Comm Arts faculty member, Tyson Davis. “We even have some workers from Starbucks coming to cook with us in a few weeks.”

It's "food to go," especially if you are going to a covered dish dinner, a dinner on the grounds or a family night supper.

“I stepped in and did Statesboro Cooks because no one else would,” Davis said. “I took one for the team and it has become one of my favorite things about my job.”

The Playboy of the Western World

The Georgia Southern Rehearsal and Performance class will be performing at the Black Box Theatre on June 10th - 12th at 7:30 p.m. and on June 13th at 2:30 p.m.

The play, “The Playboy of the Western World,” is a three-act play written by Irish playwright John Millington Synge.

The story takes place on the west coast of Ireland in the early 1900s. The play tells the story of Christy Mahon, a young man running away from his farm, claiming he killed his father. But the townspeople are more interested in hearing his story than condemning him for murdering his father.

Admission is a donation of any amount. To make reservations, please call the Center for Arts and Theatre box office at 921-478-5379.
Students can clear for graduation up to four semesters (including summer) prior to their expected graduation date. Clearing provides a triple-check on a student’s academic program of study in that the student, the advisor and the graduation counselor review all the courses remaining for a student to take. The further out you clear, the less likely anything should occur to keep you from graduating. For this reason, students should not wait until their last term to clear for graduation.

Students can pick-up a graduation clearance packet from the Registrar office. Then, they need to make an appointment to meet with their advisor. To meet with their advisors, students will need their unofficial transcript from Wings and their folder from the main office. Once graduation clearance is complete, a copy of the form should be placed in the students’ folder and the student should return the completed form to the Registrar’s office.

---

Department Intern

The summer intern for the Communication Arts department is Stephanie Rachman. Stephanie will be working on a variety of departmental projects including helping plan the Georgia Theatre Conference to be hosted by Georgia Southern in 2011. She will complete her degree in public relations this summer. She is an alumna of Phi Mu sorority and PRSSA here at Georgia Southern. Stephanie is from Roswell, Georgia, but is moving to California in August. She hopes to get a job in public relations or sales in the future.

---

Clearing to Graduate

Students can clear for graduation up to four semesters (including summer) prior to their expected graduation date. Clearing provides a triple-check on a student’s academic program of study in that the student, the advisor and the graduation counselor review all the courses remaining for a student to take. The further out you clear, the less likely anything should occur to keep you from graduating. For this reason, students should not wait until their last term to clear for graduation.

Students can pick-up a graduation clearance packet from the Registrar office. Then, they need to make an appointment to meet with their advisor. To meet with their advisors, students will need their unofficial transcript from Wings and their folder from the main office. Once graduation clearance is complete, a copy of the form should be placed in the students’ folder and the student should return the completed form to the Registrar’s office.

---

Faculty Publications

---

Check Us Out and Contact the Communication Arts Department

On the Web: http://class.georgiasouthern.edu/commarts

On the Air: 91.9 the Buzz

On the Tube: Channel 97

Communication Arts

P.O Box 8091
Statesboro, GA 30460

912-478-5138
912-478-0822 (fax)

Dr. Pamela Bourland-Davis

Department Chair

Haley J. Higgs

Newsletter Editor & Writer

haley_j_higgs@georgiasouthern.edu