ABOUT THE COLLECTION

Biographical History: Peter Zack Geer was born in Colquitt in Miller County, Georgia on August 24, 1928. In 1951 he graduated from the Walter F. George School of Law at Mercer University in Macon and became an attorney. After service as a member of the Georgia House of Representatives, Geer was elected the fifth Lieutenant Governor of Georgia from 1963 to 1967 under Governor Carl Sanders. Geer returned to the practice of law after 1967. In 1973, Geer prosecuted four men accused in the murder of the Alday family in Donalsonville, a small farming community in Southwest Georgia.

Scope and Content: This collection consists of personal and professional papers of Peter Zack Geer, Jr. Materials span 1923-1967 and include documents relating to Geer's law practice, his service as Executive Secretary to Governor S. Ernest Vandiver (1958-1961), and as Georgia Lt. Governor under Governor Carl Sanders (1963-1967). The subject files contain information regarding the civil rights movement, race relations in Georgia, Julian Bond, Herman Talmadge, and Jeannette Rankin. The papers also contain the law files of his father Peter Zack Geer, Sr.

Note: The following folders contain materials which were all filed in large folders marked "Miscellaneous." I tried to sort the material out so specific items would be easier to find. The dates for this material are roughly 1959-1961; most of it concerns either the 1960 presidential election directly, or such issues as states' rights, civil rights, integration, and segregation, which were issues important to the election and the political battles which followed.

Big Johnny Reb

- This is a publication put out by WDAK radio station in Columbus. These releases are mostly transcripts of editorials used on the air by WDAK and its affiliates.

State Government News

- This is a monthly publication put out by the Council of State Governments, containing news on intergovernmental relations, legislative sessions, and state governments over the country.

Gilreath Press Syndicate

- These are releases put out by the Gilreath Press Syndicate, which was based in Atlanta, mainly concerning Georgia state government and politicians.

1960 Election

- These materials are all directly related to the 1960 Presidential election. There is a great deal of correspondence related to the electoral voting after the November election.

Civil Rights

- These materials all relate to desegregation and other civil rights issues. They are mostly made up of correspondence, newsletters from various interested organizations, press releases, and legislative bills.

Politics on Parade

- These are all editions of a newspaper column, "Politics on Parade," written by Sid Williams. There are no dates on the columns, and no indication of which papers the column appeared in, if any.

Note: The material in the following files were also in the "Miscellaneous" files. These deal more with government and other issues in Georgia. The materials in the issues files (such as "Transportation") include correspondence, newsletters from interested organizations, press releases, newspaper articles, and drafts of legislation concerning the topic.

Federal Spending Facts

- This file contains various issues of Federal Spending Facts, a newsletter put out by the Council of State Chambers of Commerce. The newsletter provides information on the federal budget and various issues involved with federal spending.
