YOUR LATEST NEWS FROM THE INKWELL

A Letter from the Editors

Hello GSU Armstrong Eagles! Thank you for coming on this journey with us. As you can see, we are excited to announce our latest media venture, our weekly Inkwell newsletter. As our print edition has temporarily been reduced in frequency, we have decided to create a different news source to bridge the gap. Let us know what you would like to see in next week's edition on the Google form below!

Thank you for reading,
Lila Miller and Thuy-Linh Dang,
Editors-in-Chief

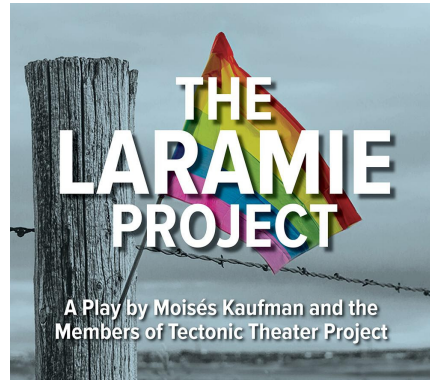

Portal Team 2 Wins First Place in Georgia Southern's 2021 EDC

Portal High School Team 2 took home first place in this year's Engineering Design Challenge (EDC), an event hosted via Georgia Southern's Armstrong campus. This competition involved two teams from Portal High School, as well as teams from Cavalry Day, Jenkins, and a homeschooled team.

Armstrong Theater Department Goes Virtual with The Laramie Project

Georgia Southern hosted an online stream of the theater department's production of "The Laramie Project" from April 8 through April 11. Students were able to freely enjoy the production at their leisure during the time period in which it was offered.

Armstrong Students Carry Differing Opinions on COVID-19 Vaccinations

Increased vaccine eligibility for students has not led to a uniform perception of the vaccine from students on the Armstrong campus. Some students view the vaccine as more of a priority than others, and for a variety of different reasons.
