Melissa Ray is @ Boeing – Enterprise DBA!

July 24, 2013

I remember that you had said when we were graduating that you'd like updates to know where we graduates end up. I have just completed all of my hiring contingencies for Boeing in Charleston, SC where I will begin working as a level 2 Enterprise Database Administrator in August.

Additionally, you should let any students who are graduating soon know that Boeing in Charleston is in the process of a huge expansion and they are hiring thousands of new employees, starting with IT. MANY of these positions are entry level.
