Since its founding in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University has continued to develop to meet the Savannah community's educational needs. From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 250-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the Southeastern United States.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-year unit of the University System.

The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to its present 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university's reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 2001.

The university offers more than seventy-five academic programs and majors in its School of Arts and Sciences, School of Health Professions and School of Education.

The academic community includes approximately 7,000 students and more than 250 faculty members. Enrollment has nearly doubled in the last 15 years, from 3,700 students in 1990 to its current number.

Across campus, evidence of the university's growth can be found in its facilities. Recently completed buildings include a 115,000 square foot, $28 million dollar science building opened in 2002; the brand new Student Recreation Facility, which is the temporary home of the Lane Library while the Library undergoes an 11-month renovation project and phases one and two of Compass Point, the school's first dormitory buildings which opened in 2003. Phase two provides an additional 300 beds to the already existing 275 beds from phase one and campus leaders are in talks for a planned phase three addition to Compass Point.

The athletic department of Armstrong Atlantic State University is housed in the Armstrong Sports Center, completed in 1995. The Sports Center includes offices for the physical education department, training room and weight room areas, basketball courts, indoor track and offices for coaches and athletic department personnel. The building played host to the Peach Belt Conference's basketball tournament in 1998 and 1999 and hosts several in-season tournaments each year. In 2004-05, Armstrong Atlantic State hosted Peach Belt Conference Championships in volleyball and golf, while also hosting the 2005 NCAA Division II Men's Golf National Championships.

AASU sponsors ten intercollegiate sports and is a charter member of the Peach Belt Conference, formed in 1991. Women's soccer and women's golf debut in 2004-05, joining men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball, men's and women's tennis, men's golf and softball as sports that AASU sponsors.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and non-traditional students. Sixty percent of AASU's student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation - to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

Dr. Thomas Z. Jones University President

Thomas Z. Jones, the sixth president to serve at Armstrong Atlantic State University, begins his fifth year at AASU. Hired on August 1, 2000, Jones was selected by the Board of Regents and University System of Georgia Chancellor Stephen R. Portch after an exhaustive national search.

Dr. Jones served on the faculty and administration at Columbus State University, as its vice president for academic affairs from 1988-2000, prior to coming to Armstrong Atlantic State. A 30-year veteran of university teaching and administration, Dr. Jones has taught at Indiana State University, Emory and Henry College and the West Virginia Institute of Technology. While at West Virginia Tech, Dr. Jones served as the Westmoreland Professor of Mining, an endowed professorship, and vice president of academic affairs.

Dr. Jones received his bachelor's degree in physics from Fairmont State College, his master of arts degree in geology from West Virginia University and his Ph.D in Geology from Miami (Ohio) University.

From 1980-1988, he owned and served as president of Technical Evaluation Consultants, Inc., a privately owned business specializing in providing science, technical and engineering services for business, industry, government agencies and the legal community.

Dr. Jones and his wife, Joyce, have two sons, Matthew and Michael.

Dr. Eddie Aenchbacher Athletic Director

Dr. Eddie Aenchbacher begins his tenth full year as the athletic director for Armstrong Atlantic State University.

Dr. Aenchbacher's responsibilities include overseeing the entire athletic department and promoting Armstrong Atlantic State athletics in the community of Savannah.

Dr. Aenchbacher received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Armstrong Atlantic State in 1979, where he was a standout student-athlete for the baseball team as a pitcher. He received his Master's degree and Doctorate of Education from the University of Georgia.

Along with his student-athlete experience at AASU, Dr. Aenchbacher also coached the Pirate cross country teams for five years and started the first AASU men's soccer team, which he coached for seven years.

During Dr. Aenchbacher's tenure as athletic director, AASU's athletic programs have had tremendous success in the classroom and on the playing field. Student-athletes at AASU have excelled in academics with 51 percent earning a 3.0 grade point average or better. The overall grade point average of AASU student-athletes is 2.83, higher than the overall institutional GPA. In 2004-05, the AASU athletic department captured the school's third NCAA Division II National Championship in women's tennis and successfully hosted the 2005 NCAA Division II Men's Golf Championships, the first NCAA national championship event ever hosted in Savannah. The Pirates also collected the fifth-most points per sport sponsored in the annual NACDA Director's Cup competition, which tracks the performance of Division II schools in all sports.

Dr. Aenchbacher has been married for 13 years to Michele and together they are the proud parents of two children, Jesse and Lainey.

Eric Faulconer Head Women's Soccer Coach

Eric Faulconer begins his first season as the head coach of the fledgling Armstrong Atlantic State women's soccer program. The former head coach at Thomas University, Faulconer started the Lady Night Hawks program in 1999 and compiled a 68-44-6 record in six seasons at the NAIA institution.

"We are thrilled to have Eric Faulconer come in and hit the ground running in building our women's soccer program at Armstrong Atlantic," Athletic Director Dr. Eddie Aenchbacher said. "His track record in not only starting Thomas University's program from scratch but doing it by utilizing a successful mix of in-state Georgia kids and out-of-state talent impressed us greatly, and we are confident he can bring similar success to AASU and the Peach Belt Conference right away."

True to those words, Faulconer assembled a roster of 22 players for the inaugural AASU women's soccer program that included four of his former Thomas University players, three transfers from Division I institutions and nine players from the state of Georgia, including four from the immediate Savannah area.

Faulconer was the NSCAA/adidas 2003 South Region Coach of the Year as well as the NAIA Region 13 Coach of the Year for leading Thomas to a 15-6-2 mark and a berth in the NAIA National Championships in Santa Barbara, Calif., where the Lady Night Hawks advanced to the second round. In 2004, Thomas was ranked as high as No. 10 in the NAIA National rankings and finished with a 11-5-2 record and a third straight berth in the NAIA Region 13 tournament.

"I'm very excited to head up the first women's soccer program at Armstrong Atlantic State," Faulconer said. "I'm also looking forward to continue the fine athletic traditions that Armstrong has developed recently in Savannah. While at Thomas, we competed against many teams from the Peach Belt and I feel that familiarity will help us be instantly competitive in the conference. There is a wealth of talent in the Coastal Empire area as well as the state of Georgia, which should provide us with a rich recruiting base."

In Faulconer's second season at Thomas in 2000, he led the Lady Night Hawks to a 12-9 overall record and an undefeated 9-0 home campaign. In 2002, his fourth season, Thomas went 12-6-1 and earned the program's first NAIA national ranking (18th) and advanced to the NAIA Region 13 Championship game. His 68-44-6 record ranks as the 16th-best career winning percentage in NAIA.

Prior to starting the Thomas University women's soccer program, Faulconer was an assistant coach with the Thomas University men's soccer program during the 1998-99 season. He also served as Deputy Commissioner of the professional Eastern Indoor Soccer League from 1996-98. In addition to his duties with Thomas University, Faulconer also served as the Director of Girls Player Development for the Tallahassee United Futbol Club and on the staff with Tallahassee-based Warner Soccer. Faulconer holds a USSF National B License and is a member of the Florida Youth Soccer Association Olympic Development coaching staff.

Born in New Jersey, Faulconer's family moved to Naples, Florida in 1979. He graduated from the Florida State University with a bachelor's degree in political science in 1992 and a master's degree in public administration in 1996, with additional graduate course work in sport administration. Eric and his wife Ginger have one son, Zachary Collin Faulconer.

Alison Clarke

Assistant Women's Soccer Coach

Alison Clarke, a Drogheda, Ireland native, will be assisting coach Eric Faulconer this inaugural season. A 2005 graduate from Thomas University with her bachelor's degree in history, she played and started all 84 games during her four-year career under the guidance of coach Faulconer. Alison is the all-time Thomas University record holder in games played and started.

She served as team captain and was a NAIA Academic All-American graduating with Magna Cum Laude honors. Clarke was selected as the team MVP in 2000 and won the Coaches Award in 2001 and 2004. Captained and helped lead the 2003 NAIA Region 13 championship team. She served as a student assistant at Thomas in 2005, helping the team achieve a program best national ranking of tenth.

"I am very excited that Alison is joining our soccer program at Armstrong Atlantic," coach Eric Faulconer said. "During her four-year playing career she was instrumental in leading Thomas University from a fledgling program to a national power. She knows what it takes to be successful and I believe she will have a positive impact on our program."

AASU Women's Soccer Live On The Web !

The Armstrong Atlantic State athletic department will bring you every shot of the inaugural AASU women's soccer home schedule right to your computer in 2005 as the Pirates stream live audio and video of all seven home matches over the Internet.

Fans will be able to catch all of the action from the official Website of AASU Athletics, www.athletics.armstrong.edu, using the power of Windows Media Player.

AASU debuted its Internet broadcasting system in 2001 with incredible success as every home men's and women's basketball game, volleyball match, the majority of the Pirates' baseball and softball games and the NCAA Mid-Atlantic Women's Tennis Regional were available last season.

For more information about the AASU Web broadcast, visit the AASU Athletics Web Site or contact Director of Sports Communications Chad Jackson at jacksoch@mail.armstrong.edu

AASU Begins Inaugural Women's

Head coach Eric Faulconer has been here before.

The former head coach at Thomas University in Thomasville, Georgia, Faulconer has been asked to build a women's soccer program from scratch for the second time in his coaching career.

In six seasons, Faulconer built Thomas into one of NAIA's most respected programs. Now he turns his attention to the Coastal Empire as he builds the Armstrong Atlantic State University program.

So what kind of expectations do the Pirates have in this, their first year of competition?

Fellow Peach Belt Conference coaches see talent from the Pirates, placing them sixth in the nine-team league in a preseason poll. Coach Faulconer's squad even earned a third- and a fourth-place vote from his colleagues, hinting that the Pirates won't be able to sneak up on anybody this season.

In building the Armstrong Atlantic squad, coach Faulconer made an easy decision to stay with what was familiar, bringing four of his Nighthawk players over from Thomas University to play for the Pirates. All four are expected to start and form a solid core for AASU in 2005.

Senior midfielder/forward Claire McCombe (5-5, Sr., Cumnock, Scotland) and junior midfielder Donna Cheyne

(5-6, Jr., Lanarkshire, Scotland) each have experience in coach Faulconer's system and against top competition, whether it's playing for the Nighthawks or back home in the Scottish Women's League.

McCombe is a three-time NAIA All-Region player and a two-time All-America player who possesses excellent skills distributing and scoring, while Cheyne will serve as the team captain at AASU. Junior defender Jessica Chipple (5-11, Jr., Hinesville, Ga.) and sophomore defender Emily Latner (5-9, Soph., Pensacola, Fla.) bring experience to the back as Chipple was an NAIA All-America honoree in 2003 and Latner started all 16 games as a freshman for Thomas.

More experience to the youthful Pirate squad comes in the form of junior goalkeeper Tarra Kohler (5-6, Jr., Panama City, Fla.), who was the starting keeper for Birmingham Southern last year. The Panthers captured the Big South Conference title and advanced to the NCAA Championships.

Beyond those five, however, the rest of the AASU squad consists of all players in their first years of collegiate action - a number that includes 14 freshmen.

Up front, the Pirates will look to a trio of forwards to help generate offense. Freshman Shana Neves (5-7, Fr., Milton, Fla.) has the distinction of being the first official signee in the history of AASU women's soccer

Chipple was an NAIA All-America defender for Thomas in 2003 and played high school soccer at nearby Liberty County HS.

Donna Cheyne will serve as the Pirates' team captain during their inaugural season in 2005. Cheyne was the team captain for Eric Faulconer at Thomas in 2004 for the 10th-ranked team in NAIA.

Soccer Season With High Hopes

Jamie Craine is just one of 14 talented freshmen who will suit up for the Pirates in 2005. Craine was the Volusia/Flagler County Player of the Year in 2004.

and scored 81 goals in her four-year career at Pace HS in Pensacola. Another Floridian, Lyndsi Stricklen (5-3, Fr., Middleburg, Fla.) shined in the Sunshine State with 113 career goals for Ridgeview HS, a number that ranks ninth all-time in the state's history. Local product Aubrie Roberts (5-10, Fr., Savannah, Ga.) was a second-team All-Coastal Empire selection by the Savannah Morning News and brings good size to the position. Others could see time up front as well, including McCombe, Whitney Wise (5-4, Fr., Evans, Ga.) and Ashley Brown (5-7, Fr., Niceville, Fla.).

Any of those forwards could also drop back and see time in the midfield, joining a pair of freshman who have impressed in the preseason. Louisiana native Maggie Kennedy (5-5, Fr., Abita Springs, La.) and Florida native Jamie Craine (5-7, Fr., Port Orange, Fla.) each come to AASU with excellent high school credentials. Kennedy was involved in the Louisiana ODP squad and helped St. Scholastica to two state finals appearances, while Craine was the Volusia/Flagler County Player of the Year according to the Orlando Sentinel. Time in the midfield could also be seen by local products Erin Lariscy (5-3, Fr., Savannah, Ga.) and walk-on Danielle Pickell (5-6, Soph., Savannah, Ga.) as well as Aussie native Tana Griffiths (5-5, Soph., Victoria, Australia).

Joining the pair of Thomas transfers in the back are a pair of talented freshmen from the Brunswick area. Chelsea Kaiser (5-8, Fr., Brunswick, Ga.) and Jennifer Brian (5-7, Fr., St. Simons Island, Ga.) both helped Frederica Academy to two GISA state titles and Kaiser is a two-time GISA All-State selection. Both played club ball out of Atlanta and have made the adjustment to collegiate soccer early on. Another defender who could surprise is Candice Modlinski (6-0, Sr., St. Charles, Ill.), a former four-year player on the nationally-ranked AASU volleyball squad. Modlinski was a member of the Illinois ODP squad while in high school and has shown good skills despite being away from the sport competitively for six years. Other defenders who could see action in 2005 include Nyisha Nelson (5-5, Fr., McDonough, Ga.), Holly Grulich (5-6, Fr., Tallahassee, Fla.) and Anna Goolsby (5-7, Fr., Evans, Ga.).

Despite the experience advantage, Kohler's hold on the starting goalkeeper job has been pushed by freshman Lisa Gray (5-11, Fr., Savannah, Ga.). The first-team All-State selection helped St. Vincent's to a final four appearance and she was a four-time All-Coastal Empire selection by the Savannah Morning News in her high school career.

A first-year program always finds difficulties in scheduling and the Pirates will be forced to play 11 of its 17 regular-season games away from home. AASU will get home matches against four league foes - Lander, UNC Pembroke, USC Aiken and Columbus State - as well as Georgia Southwestern State, Erskine and the Savannah College of Art & Design.

AASU athletic teams benefit from the fine athletic training staff, headed by medical director Dr. Spencer Wheeler and head athletic trainer Stacey Foust.

AASU's training room, part of the Armstrong Sports Center, sits adjacent to the fitness center and across the hall from the Pirate locker rooms. The room offers the most modern and advanced equipment to help players deal with injuries and rehabilitation.

Training Center Administration

Dr. Spencer Wheeler
Team Physician

Dr. Spencer Wheeler is the medical director and team physician for Armstrong Atlantic's athletic teams. Dr. Wheeler completed his medical school training at the Medical College of Georgia in 1985, and his orthopaedic training at the University of Florida. Wheeler served two sports medicine fellowships; one at Johns Hopkins Institute and one in Sydney, Australia. Dr. Wheeler served as the head of athletic care in Atlanta for the 1996 Summer Olympics.

Stacey Foust, ATC, MMSM
Head Athletic Trainer

Stacey Foust begins her second season as the head athletic trainer at AASU. A member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association and the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society, Foust graduated from Messiah College with her bachelor's of arts degree in athletic training in May of 2003 and completed her master's degree in sports medicine from Armstrong Atlantic State in 2005.

Foust worked on the AASU staff in 2003-04 as a graduate assistant and has also worked at the Penn State Milton S. Hershey Medical Center in Hershey, Pa., as well as her work as a student assistant at Messiah College in Grantham, Pa. She has also assisted at the Boston Marathon and at the Special Olympics.

Rusty White
Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer

Rusty White is in his second season as a Graduate Assistant in the AASU Athletic Training Department.

A member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association and the National Strength and Conditioning Association, White graduated from Wingate University with his bachelor's of science degree in athletic training in May of 2003. He is currently pursuing his his master's degree in sports medicine, as well as his graduate certificate in strength and conditioning. White also spent the summer of 2005 interning for the Savannah Sand Gnats, the local "A" affiliate of the Washington Nationals.

Historic Savannah, Georgia, is located on the Atlantic Coast, at the confluence of the Savannah River and the Atlantic Ocean. Throughout its history, there has been one adjective consistently used to describe Savannah: beautiful.

The reason? There's something about the unique beauty of Savannah that cannot be forgotten. Streets with canopies of moss-laden trees are honored venues for scores of historic homes. The town squares that Savannah's founding father, James Oglethorpe, laid out as public meeting places are now treasured "pocket parks" located throughout the downtown area.

A renovated waterfront area serves as the hub for shopping and entertainment. Nearby sandy beaches draw streams of visitors with persistent cool breezes and the endless lure of the rolling sea. Finally, there's an indescribable - but readily discernible - feeling in the air that pervades Savannah, a kind of "laid back" approach to the world, a "rootedness" that makes living or working in Savannah an experience second to none.

By way of affirmation, Le Monde, the leading French newspaper, called Savannah "the most beautiful city in North America."

Savannah has recently captured the imagination of a nation through its history and its appearance in several feature films, including "Glory," "Forrest Gump," "Something to Talk About," "Midnight In The Garden of Good and Evil" and the 2000 hit film "The Legend of Bagger Vance," starring Will Smith and Matt Damon. Also, Savannah hosted the yachting events of the 1996 Summer Olympics and most recently served as the media home for the G-8 Summit. As a result, tourism has become one of the leading industries in the area.

Savannah hosts over six million tourists each year. Tourism impacts the Savannah area by more than $634 million. The city boasts over 7,000 rooms and more than 100 restaurants as folks have learned that Savannah is more than just a convenient rest stop on the interstate to Florida.

The climate of Savannah features warm, and sometimes hot, weather for most of the year. There are seven months in which the average temperature is 70 degrees or higher. The lowest average high is in January at 60.3 degrees.

The population in Savannah is roughly 130,000 and Chatham County is the fifth most populous county in the state of Georgia.

Savannah also sits centrally located to some of the Southeast's finest beaches. Tybee Island, located less than 30 minutes from Armstrong Atlantic State's campus, offers six miles of unspoiled sands, tempting seafood and gracious accommodations. Resort areas such as Hilton Head, South Carolina, are less than one hour away and provide even more relaxing getaway options.

Whether it's the lure of historic settings, the friendliness of a Southern community or the beautiful climate of southeast Georgia, Savannah is the place for you.
