Dennis Receives Lori Mobley Groover Leadership Award

April 14, 2016

Lacey Dennis, a junior in the Athletic Trainer program, has been awarded the Lori Mobley Groover Leadership Award. The Georgia Athletic Trainer's Association (GATA) presented the award to three students (high school, undergraduate, and graduate) who have a primary goal of pursuing a career in athletic training. The recipients are recognized due to their leadership potential and passion for the athletic training profession. To be eligible for the award, students had to be enrolled in a school in Georgia and undergraduate level students also had to be accepted into an accredited athletic training program.
