Students present at SECCLL

April 14, 2015

On March 26-27, nine Georgia Southern undergraduate students of French traveled to Savannah to present their scholarship at the Southeast Coastal Conference on Languages and Literatures (SECCLL). Dr. David Seaman, the students' professor, organized and chaired two undergraduate panels on 21st-century French literature. The students from the Thursday panel (top picture, left to right) were Kelly McGahee, Ana Gonzalez, Alexa Arroyave, and Andrew Boatright. The Friday panel included (bottom picture, left to right) Rachel Paule, Pearson Gardner, Phillip "PJ" Sheffield, Chrystal Messam, and Nina Becton. The students engaged difficult material with verve and insight and made well-designed presentations. We can all be proud of their and their mentor's accomplishment.

Poem by Dr. David Seaman published

April 14, 2015

Congratulations to Dr. David Seaman, whose poem “Flow” was recently published in BIG SPLASH, network poetico, an anthology compiled by Caterina Davinio. The works were originally exhibited as part of an installation at the Palazzo Reale di Napoli in November, 2014.
