Eagles look to extend win streak in Arkansas

Following an impressive win over UTA, the Eagles look to improve their record by two more games- both against teams they've already played and beaten. Georgia Southern sits at fourth in the Sun Belt conference as the Eagles continue to hold an impressive record of 15-7 overall and 6-3 in the conference and are on the prowl for more wins. Addressing women in I.T. at GS

Less than 20 percent of women in the United States are leaving college with a degree in the computer science and information technology fields, according to the National Center for Women and Information Technology. GS, however, may be taking a step in the right direction with a recent interest in a chapter for Women in Technology at Georgia Southern. Full Story

Unapproved signs removed at the RAC

RAC removes unapproved signs following negative response from patrons. One of the signs featured the quote "The problem with socialism is that you eventually run out of other people's' money." by former British Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher. Full Story
