CHAPTER ONE

I. OFFICE OF STUDENT CONDUCT PRINCIPLES

Georgia Southern University exists to provide an environment in which intellectual achievement, scholarship, and character development can flourish. The Georgia Southern community (Students, Faculty, and Staff) willingly shares the responsibility for sustaining a creative and productive atmosphere through adherence to the highest standards of personal and professional conduct. All who are privileged to be a part of Georgia Southern campus life must remain aware they are representatives of Georgia Southern University, whether they are on campus or elsewhere, and are therefore expected to avoid behavior that brings discredit or dishonor upon themselves or the University as an institution. Recognizing trust is the cornerstone of all human relations, Students will work to build and sustain the trust of their peers, the faculty, and staff by following both the letter and the spirit of the Code of Student Conduct. A Student-centered University embraces a campus climate in which civility and respect among members of the campus community is viewed vital to the overall ethical development of its Students.

The University is dedicated not only to learning and the advancement of knowledge, but also to the development of ethically sensitive and responsible persons. It seeks to achieve these goals through sound educational programs and policies governing Student conduct that encourage independence and maturity.

The student conduct process is not a court of law, and therefore do not follow prescribed legal or evidentiary standards. The student conduct process is also completely separate from any criminal proceeding and one will have no bearing on the other. Should a Student have a pending legal case, the University will move forward with the student conduct process.

The University may apply sanctions or take other appropriate action when the conduct of a Student interferes with the University's (a) responsibility of ensuring the opportunity for attainment of educational objectives; or (b) responsibility of protecting property, keeping records, providing services, and sponsoring non-classroom activities such as lectures, concerts, athletic events, and social functions. Georgia Southern University reserves the right to take necessary and appropriate action to protect the safety and well-being of the campus community.

Representatives from the Student Government Association will have an opportunity to provide input in the formation and evaluation of all policies, rules, and sanctions pertaining to Student Conduct.

The Office of Student Conduct utilizes Georgia Southern University email as its primary means of communication with Students. It is necessary for Students to check their University email daily and to promptly respond to any requests from the Office of Student Conduct or designee.

CHAPTER TWO

II. STUDENT CONDUCT AUTHORITY

The Chief Conduct Officer shall develop policies for the administration of the Student conduct program and the procedural rules for the conduct of hearings that are not consistent with the provisions of the Code of Student Conduct. The Chief Conduct Officer, in consultation with the Dean of Students Office and the Office of the Provost, will determine the composition of the University Student Conduct Board.

The Chief Conduct Officer shall seek to ensure the University Student Conduct Board and Hearing Officers are representative of the University's Students, Faculty, and Staff members who are willing and able to offer fair and thoughtful consideration of each case heard. Such action may include pursuing disciplinary action for violations of University rules and regulations, policies, violations of national, state, and local laws that occur on-campus, off-campus, or on the internet that adversely affects the educational interest of the University.

A. JURISDICTION

Any individual defined as a Student under this Code falls under the jurisdiction of this Code. For incidents that happen on campus or online, processes outlined in this Code will be followed. For incidents occurring off campus, the Vice President of Student Affairs or designee will determine if the interests of the University are affected and thus the incident falls under the scope of this Code. A Respondent may not withdraw from a class where an Academic Dishonesty violation has been alleged or from the University in order to avoid Student Conduct processes.

B. STANDARD OF PROOF

Standard of Proof means the standard by which it is determined whether a violation of this Code has occurred. For the purposes of the Student Conduct process, the Standard of Proof required is a preponderance of evidence (the evidence demonstrates it is more likely than not that, a violation has occurred).

Any decision to suspend or expel a Student must be supported by substantial evidence at the hearing.

C. Minor Violation – Informal Resolution

1. An Informal Resolution for Academic Dishonesty can occur one of two ways:

- a. Between the Accusing Faculty Member and the Respondent
 - i. In order for the case to be resolved informally with the accusing Faculty member, both the Faculty Member and the Respondent must agree to both the findings and the sanctions of the Informal Resolution. Any Student accepting the Informal Resolution will also be sanctioned to disciplinary probation by the Office of Student Conduct. The Respondent has three (3) Days to decide whether or not to accept the Informal Resolution. The Respondent is encouraged to contact the Office of Student Conduct to discuss his or her options.

- ii. A Respondent is eligible for an Informal Resolution only if they have no previous findings of responsibility for the violations listed in this chapter.
- iii. The Faculty Member will provide the Respondent with written notice of a scheduled meeting at least three (3) Days prior to the meeting. The purpose of the meeting will be to review and discuss the Charges before a final decision is reached.
- iv. A third party observer may be present at the request of the Faculty Member or Respondent.
- v. Documentary evidence and written statements may be relied upon by the Faculty Member, as long as the Respondent is allowed to respond to them at the meeting. Respondents may also be allowed to bring relevant witnesses.
- vi. If the Respondent accepts responsibility for the violation, the Faculty Member and Respondent may then resolve the problem in a manner acceptable to both. If the Respondent denies the violation, or does not accept the sanction(s) determined by the Faculty Member, the case must then be referred to the Office of Student Conduct within ten (10) Days.
- vii. Should the Faculty Member conclude there was no violation of the Code of Student Conduct, the case will be closed. The Faculty Member will send all relevant documentation to the Office of Student Conduct.
- viii. Upon conclusion of the process, the Faculty Member and Respondent should both sign and date the Informal Resolution form, detailing the specific offense(s) and the sanction(s) assigned. Each party will retain a copy. The original form, along with all relevant documentation, will be submitted to the Office of Student Conduct and will become part of the Respondent's permanent file. The Respondent will receive a letter from the Office of Student Conduct, outlining the agreed upon outcome of the case.
- ix. Any Respondent has the option to accept an Informal Resolution. By accepting the Informal Resolution, the Respondent waives their right to a formal hearing and an appeal.

b. Between the Office of Student Conduct and the Respondent

- i. Any Respondent with prior findings of responsibility for Academic Dishonesty violations or who is currently on disciplinary probation or Status Two must be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for adjudication.
- ii. In cases where a first Academic Dishonesty violation is sent to be resolved to the Office of Student Conduct, the Student will have the option to resolve the case informally or request a formal hearing. Any Student who wishes to accept the Informal Resolution will receive any academic sanction(s) imposed, and also be sanctioned to disciplinary probation by the Office of Student Conduct. The Respondent has three (3) Days to decide whether or not to accept the Informal Resolution.

D. Minor Violations – Formal Resolution

1. In a Formal Resolution, the Respondent appears before the University Student Conduct Board for adjudication of their case.
2. The Respondent will be notified in writing of the date, time, and location of the hearing. This notice will also include any alleged violations of the Code of Student Conduct, and the names of the University Student Conduct Board members who will adjudicate the case. The Respondent will then have three (3) Days from the Receipt of this notice to challenge any individual scheduled to be a part of the University Student Conduct Board hearing the case. The composition of the University Student Conduct Board may be challenged only based on a conflict of interest or perceived bias. Challenges should be submitted in writing to the Office of Student Conduct who will render a decision.
3. During the University Student Conduct Board hearing, the Complainant and witness (if applicable) will have the opportunity to be present to answer any questions the University Student Conduct Board may have, as well as any questions the Respondent may have. The Complainant and witness (if applicable) will also have the opportunity to question the Respondent. All questions from the Complainant, witness, and Respondent must be directed in writing to the chair of the University Student Conduct Board. The chair of the University Student Conduct Board will ask the questions as written and will limit questions only if they are unrelated to determining veracity of the Charge leveled against the Respondent. The reason for any question not asked will be read into the record.

2. Students who fail to complete their sanctions by their determined deadline will receive a hold and a late fee on their Student account. Student Groups or Student Organizations that fail to complete their sanctions by the determined deadline may have additional sanctions assigned including, but not limited to a late fee. An expelled Student may not enter any part of the campus without specific authorization from the Office of Student Conduct. Students who reside on campus will have a minimum of 48 hour notice to remove all of their belongings out of the Residence Hall after notification the sanction of expulsion is in effect.

 - g. Educational Sanction(s) – An educational sanction may consist of the assignment of specific projects to be performed by a Student, Student Group, or Student Organization, such as writing a research paper on a specific topic, performing community service hours, attending an educational program, and/or writing reaction papers on a specified topic. Prior to issuing a sanction, the Chief Conduct Officer or the Hearing Officer will be made aware if the Respondent has any previous violations of the Code of Student Conduct. This may have an effect on the type and level of the sanction(s) to be imposed.
2. When a Student Group or Student Organization engages in an act of misconduct, the University reserves the right to take action not only against the Group or Organization but also

- against the individual Student members of the Group or Organization. Please see Chapter Eleven for more information on Student Groups and Student Organizations.
3. The following list of sanctions is intended to show the range of sanctions that may be imposed on a Student.
 4. This list is not to be regarded as all-inclusive but rather as a sample of sanctions that may be imposed. Other University policies and regulations may impose specific penalties for specific violations, and nothing in this chapter is intended to limit the imposition of those specific sanctions.
 5. Respondents who fail to complete their sanctions by their determined deadline will be assessed an overdue sanctions fine and a judicial hold. The University is not responsible for any financial loss incurred by the Student for any sanction.
 6. Institutional Sanctions:
 - a. Disciplinary Warning – An official written reprimand stating unacceptable behavior has occurred and any further inappropriate behavior or other violations of the Code of Student Conduct may result in more serious Student Conduct actions by the University.
 - b. Status One – Disciplinary Probation is a specific period of time for which the Student is not in good disciplinary standing during which further violations of the Code of Student Conduct may result in suspension or expulsion. Violations of Disciplinary Probation generally will result in more serious disciplinary action against the Student, such as suspension or expulsion from the University.

If any one condition or sanction is not met within the time allotted, the Student will be consequently charged with Failure to Comply. In order to be considered to return to Georgia Southern University after suspension, the Student must complete all sanctions and conditions originally assigned.

The Office of Student Conduct will not take responsibility for the facilitation of these exchanges.

- h. Educational Sanction(s) – An educational sanction may consist of the assignment of specific projects to be performed by a Student, such as writing a research paper on a specific topic, performing community service hours, attending an educational program, or writing reaction papers on a specified topic. CHAPTER TEN

X. SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AND INTERPERSONAL VIOLENCE

Members of the University community, Guests, and visitors have the right to be free from all forms of sex-based discrimination, including but not limited to, sexual violence, Sexual Harassment, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence, and Stalking. These offenses, whether committed by a stranger, friend or acquaintance are serious offenses. Students engaging in this activity may be subject to both criminal and civil prosecution in a court of law and subject to disciplinary action by Georgia Southern University. In addition to being potentially criminal actions, these offenses are also some of the most underreported crimes on American college campuses. Georgia Southern University encourages Victims of these offenses to report them and to seek assistance from appropriate campus and community resources.

A. Sexual Misconduct and Interpersonal Violence

1. Nonconsensual Sexual Contact: Any physical contact with another person of a sexual nature without the person's consent. It includes but is not limited to touching (or penetrating) of a person's intimate parts (such as genitalia, groin, breasts, or buttocks); touching (or penetrating) a person with one's own intimate parts; or forcing a person to touch his or her own or another person's intimate parts.
2. Sexual Exploitation: taking non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for one's own advantage or benefit, or for the benefit or advantage of anyone other than the one being exploited. Examples of Sexual Exploitation may include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - a. Invasion of sexual privacy;
 - b. Prostituting another individual;
 - c. Non-consensual photos, video, or audio of sexual activity;
 - d. Non-consensual distribution of photo, video, or audio of sexual activity, even if the sexual activity was consensual;
 - e. Intentional observation of nonconsenting individuals who are partially undressed, naked, or engaged in sexual acts;
 - f. Knowingly transmitting an STD or HIV to another individual through sexual activity;
 - g. Intentionally and inappropriately exposing one's breasts, buttocks, groin, or genitals in non-consensual circumstances; and/or
 - h. Sexually-based bullying.
3. Sexual Harassment: Unwelcome verbal, nonverbal, or physical conduct, based on sex or on gender stereotypes, that is implicitly or explicitly a term or condition of employment or status in a course, program, or activity; is a basis for employment or educational decisions; or is sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive to interfere with one's work or educational performance creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work or learning environment, or interfering with or limiting one's ability to participate in or to benefit from an institutional program or activity.
4. Dating Violence: Any violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the alleged victim. Dating Violence includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse. Dating Violence does not include acts covered under the definition of Domestic Violence.
5. Domestic Violence: Any violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the alleged victim; by a person with whom the alleged victim shares a child in common; by a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, or by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the alleged victim.

6. Stalking: Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for his or her safety or the safety of others or suffer substantial emotional distress. Course of conduct means two or more acts, including, but not limited to, acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with person's property. Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim. Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

A. REPORTING SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

A Complainant or Victim of Sexual Misconduct may, but need not, file a criminal complaint with law enforcement officials; file a misconduct report with a Responsible Employee or the Title IX Coordinator; or file both. A report may be filed anonymously, although anonymous reports may make it difficult for the University to address the complaint. Any individual who believes they have been a Victim of Sexual Misconduct is encouraged to report allegations of Sexual Misconduct promptly.

All reports of Sexual Misconduct alleged to have been committed by a Student must be handled consistently with requirements aforementioned.

All reports of Sexual Misconduct alleged to have been committed by a non-Student member of the Georgia Southern community will be addressed and/or resolved through the University's and the Board of Regents' applicable policies for discipline of non-Students.

All allegations of Sexual Misconduct will be reviewed by the Title IX Coordinator. The Title IX Coordinator will facilitate any investigation needed based on the needs of the case. Any Formal Hearing(s) will be heard and adjudicated by a trained sexual misconduct board. During an Informal or Formal Hearing, the Respondent and Victim will be given the opportunity to present a personal impact statement to the board or hearing officer. Both the Respondent(s) and Victim(s) will receive dual notification of the outcome of any adjudication.

1. Institutional Reports

- a. Complainants of Sexual Misconduct who wish to file a report with the University should notify a Responsible Employee or the Title IX Coordinator. Responsible Employees informed about Sexual Misconduct allegations involving any Student should not attempt to resolve the situation, but must notify and report all relevant information to the Title IX Coordinator as soon as practicable. Confidential Employees are not bound by this requirement but may be required to report limited information about incidents without revealing the identities of the individuals involved to the Title IX Coordinator, consistent with their ethical and legal obligations. All members of the University System of Georgia institutions' communities are encouraged to report incidents of Sexual Misconduct promptly.
- b. The Title IX Coordinator's identity and contact information shall be published on the Georgia Southern University website, as well as in any relevant publication. Georgia Southern University has Deputy Title IX Coordinators to whom reports may be made, as well. Complainants are encouraged to report their complaints in writing, though oral complaints should also be accepted, taken seriously, and investigated, to the extent possible. While complaints should be made as quickly as possible following an alleged incident of Sexual Misconduct, all reports should be accepted regardless of when reported.

- c. The Title IX Coordinator shall refer to the System Director any allegation(s) of Sexual Misconduct that could, standing alone as reported, lead to the suspension or expulsion of the Respondent(s). The System Director will work with Georgia Southern University to determine whether any interim measure(s) are necessary and to assign an investigator who will work under the direction of the System Director or designee, if directed by System Director. If an allegation is not initially identified as one that would lead to the suspension or expulsion of the Respondent(s), but facts arise during the course of the investigation that would require transfer to the System Director, the Title IX Coordinator shall transfer oversight to the System Director or designee. The System Director shall have the discretion to retain oversight or transfer oversight to Georgia Southern University.
- d. Anonymous Reports
Georgia Southern University provides a mechanism by which individuals can report incidents of alleged Sexual Misconduct anonymously. Complainants should understand, however, that it will be more challenging for Georgia Southern University to investigate and to take action upon anonymous reports.
- e. Retaliation
Anyone who, in good faith, reports what they believe to be misconduct under this Policy, or who participates or cooperates in, or is otherwise associated with any investigation, shall not be subjected to retaliation. Anyone who believes they have been the target of retaliation for reporting, participating, cooperating in, or otherwise being associated with an investigation should immediately contact the Title IX Coordinator for Georgia Southern University. Any person found to have engaged in retaliation in violation of this Policy shall be subject to disciplinary action.
- f. False Complaints
Individuals are prohibited from intentionally giving false statements to a system or Georgia Southern University official. Any person found to have intentionally submitted false complaints, accusations, or statements, including during a hearing, in violation of this Policy shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action (up to and including suspension or expulsion) and adjudicated under the Code of Student Conduct.
- g. Amnesty
Individuals should be encouraged to come forward and to report Sexual Misconduct notwithstanding their choice to consume alcohol or to use drugs. Information reported by an individual during an investigation concerning use of drugs or alcohol will not be used against the particular individual in a disciplinary proceeding or voluntarily reported to law enforcement; however, individuals may be provided with resources on drug and alcohol counseling and/or education, as appropriate.

2. Law Enforcement Reports

- a. Because Sexual Misconduct may constitute criminal activity, a Complainant also has the option, should they so choose, of filing a report with campus or local police, for his or her own protection and that of the surrounding community. The University may assist the Complainant in reporting the situation to law enforcement officials.
- b. Complainants considering filing a report of Sexual Misconduct with law enforcement should preserve any evidence of Sexual Misconduct, including, but not limited to, the following:
 - i. Clothing worn during the incident including undergarments;
 - ii. Sheets, bedding, and condoms, if used;
 - iii. Lists of witnesses with contact information;
 - iv. Text messages, call history, social media posts;
 - v. Pictures of injuries; and/or
 - vi. Videos.

B. HANDLING REPORTS OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

1. Support Services

Once a Student or employee makes a complaint or receives notice that a complaint has been made against them, or the Title IX Coordinator otherwise learns of a complaint of Sexual Misconduct, the Complainant, Respondent and alleged Victim (where applicable) should receive written information about support services, such as counseling, advocacy, housing assistance, academic support, disability services, health and mental services, and legal assistance, available at Georgia Southern University. Information on support services will be provided regardless as to whether an individual elects to go forward with filing a formal complaint of Sexual Misconduct or with notifying law enforcement.

Information on support services will also be provided to Students and employees, regardless of where the alleged misconduct occurs. Available support services are listed on the Georgia Southern University Title IX website.

2. Interim Measures

Interim measures may be undertaken at any point after Georgia Southern University becomes aware of an allegation of Sexual Misconduct and should be designed to protect the alleged Victim and the community. Before an interim suspension is issued Georgia Southern University must make all reasonable efforts to give the Respondent the opportunity to be heard, consistent with the provisions in the policy.

3. Jurisdiction

Georgia Southern University shall take necessary and appropriate action to protect the safety and well-being of its community. Sexual Misconduct allegedly committed by a Student will be addressed by this policy when the misconduct occurs on Georgia Southern University property, or at Georgia Southern University sponsored or affiliated events, or off-campus, as defined by the Georgia Southern University's Code of Student Conduct.

4. Advisors

Both the alleged Victim and Respondent, as parties to the matter, shall have the opportunity to use an advisor (who may or may not be an attorney) of the party's choosing at the party's own expense for the express purpose of providing advice and counsel, pursuant to the provisions of this Code.

5. Informal Resolutions

Allegations of Sexual Misconduct may be resolved informally, without a determination of misconduct, if all of the following are met:

- a. When Complainant(s) and Respondent agree to an Informal Resolution;
- b. When the initial allegation could not result in expulsion;
- c. When the Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) agree to the terms of the Informal Resolution; and
- d. When the investigator concludes that Informal Resolution is in the best interest of the parties and the Georgia Southern University community.

The alleged Victim(s) and Respondent(s) have the option to end Informal Resolution discussions and request a formal process at any time before the terms of an Informal Resolution are reached. However, matters resolved informally shall not be appealable.

6. Timeframe

Efforts will be made to complete the investigation within a reasonable timeframe, which will be determined based upon the allegations, availability of witnesses and/or evidence, etc. in a particular case. When the timeframe will extend past the reasonable timeframe, the parties will be informed of the delay and the reason for the delay. The investigator shall keep the parties informed of the status of the investigation.

7. Investigations

All Sexual Misconduct investigations involving a Student Respondent, whether overseen by the University's Title IX Coordinator or the System Director, shall follow the investigation process set forth in Chapter Six of this Code.

8. Hearings, Possible Sanctions and Appeals

All Sexual Misconduct hearings, sanctions, and appeals involving a Student Respondent, whether overseen by the University's Title IX Coordinator or the System Director, shall follow the investigation process set forth in Chapter Six of this Code. All Sexual Misconduct adjudication involving an employee Respondent, shall be addressed utilizing the University's employment policies and procedures.

C. INVESTIGATIVE PROCESS

1. Georgia Southern University will conduct a thorough and confidential investigation of all complaints of Sexual Misconduct and interpersonal violence. Any act that may violate this policy will subject the offender to sanctions up to and including dismissal after compliance with due process requirements.

2. In order that the University can take measures to correct the behavior, persons who feel that they have been subjected to actions that violate this regulation, and persons who may have knowledge of these violations, should:
 - a. File a report with the Director, Equal Opportunities and Title IX Office or any member of the University's administrative staff OR if anyone is unwilling or unable to file a report during normal business hours, they may call Public Safety at (912) 478-5234 for Statesboro campus or (912) 344-3333 for Armstrong and Liberty campuses.
3. Retaliation against a person who participates in a good faith investigation of a Sexual Harassment complaint is a violation of state and federal laws for which the offender shall be subject to disciplinary action.
4. For more information about the procedures for reporting Sexual Misconduct contact the Equal Opportunities and Title IX Office at (912) 478-5136 or TDD (912) 478-0273 for the Statesboro campus. Inquiries concerning Title IX may be referred to the Title IX Coordinator in the University's Equal Opportunity, the Deputy Title IX Coordinator(s) in the Dean of Student Office, or to the United States Department of Education Office for Civil Rights.

D. WHAT TO DO IF YOU BECOME A VICTIM

1. If you have been sexually assaulted or physically abused, seek immediate medical attention, preferably within 72 hours of the assault or as soon as possible. Whether the incident or course of conduct occurred on or off-campus you may report the assault to the Department of Public Safety. If the incident or course of conduct has occurred off-campus, it may be reported to the appropriate agency, such as Statesboro Police Department, Bulloch County Sheriff's Office, Savannah Metro Police Department or Chatham County Sheriff's Office. The Department of Public Safety will also involve these outside law enforcement units as necessary depending on the facts of each individual case. Code of Student Conduct violations may be reported to the Office of Student Conduct. In addition, these offenses may be reported to the Title IX Coordinator in the Equal Opportunity and Title IX Office. It is the Victim's option whether or not to seek assistance from law enforcement and campus authorities.
2. You may elect to file criminal charges in a court of law or file a report under the Georgia Southern University Code of Student Conduct, or both.
3. While it is always your option to contact law enforcement, it is important you strongly consider doing so, regardless of whether you intend to press criminal charges, file a report with the Office of Student Conduct, or seek a protective order. When it is established in a court of law a substantial amount of time has elapsed before reporting a sexual assault to law enforcement officials, it may tend to diminish your credibility. If you decide to press criminal charges, it is important a prompt report be on file with the appropriate law enforcement agency. It is important to understand reporting the incident to the police does not obligate you to press criminal charges or file a report with the Office of Student Conduct.
4. Georgia Southern University will investigate complaints of sexual misconduct and interpersonal violence, Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, and Stalking, promptly, fairly, and impartially. Confidentiality, including exclusion of the Victim's personal identifiable information, will be respected to the extent permitted by law if requested by the Victim. Investigations will be conducted by officials who receive annual training on issues related to these offenses, how to conduct an investigation and hearing process which protects the safety of the Victims and promotes accountability.

5. Know the Victim has the right to have past unrelated behavior excluded from any hearing held pursuant to the Code of Student Conduct.

E. POSSIBLE SANCTIONS FOR SEXUAL MISCONDUCT:

1. Possible sanctions for a Student found in violation of sexual misconduct may include but are not limited to disciplinary probation, suspension, or expulsion from the University.
2. In any campus disciplinary proceedings related to this policy, the Complainant and the Respondent will be informed of the outcome of the case, along with any sanctions imposed. The Office of Student Conduct may also implement other interim measures, including but not limited to no contact agreements and bans from certain areas of campus. Violation of any, such no contact agreement or ban may result in a separate charge of Failure to Comply. The University may impose an interim suspension when it is determined it is appropriate against a Respondent under this policy (See Chapter Twelve for more information).

F. RIGHTS FOR VICTIM AND RESPONDENT STUDENTS

In cases of sexual misconduct, both the Victim and the Respondent have the following rights:

1. The Victim has the right to file a report against the Respondent with a violation of law. The Victim may also file a report alleging a violation of the Code of Student Conduct, resulting in an investigation and possible action under the Code of Student Conduct.
2. The Victim has the right to have their name withheld from "timely reports" issued under the Clery Act.
3. Both the Victim and the Respondent have the right not to give testimony.
4. Both the Victim and the Respondent have the right to have an advisor of their choice accompany them throughout the student conduct process.

6. Both the Victim and the Respondent will be informed simultaneously, in writing, of the outcome of the disciplinary proceeding, and when the result becomes final.
7. Both the Victim and the Respondent may be at the hearing during the presentation of any evidence or material on which a recommendation will be made.
8. In appropriate cases, both the Victim and the Respondent may request reasonable accommodations including but not limited to adjustments in academic programs and campus living arrangements.

A Student Group and or Organization found responsible for violating the Code of Student Conduct may receive one or more of the sanctions listed below, as determined by the Chief Conduct Officer or designee after review of the findings of fact and recommendations of the University Student Conduct Board or Hearing Officer. CHAPTER TWELVE

XII. ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS

AMNESTY POLICY

Georgia Southern University is committed to provide guidance so Students can learn to develop a responsible approach to social challenges, including whether to use alcohol, how to do so in moderation, and how to comply with local, state, and federal laws governing alcohol consumption. It is expected Students will abide by the laws and the policies established by the University. However, Georgia Southern University is aware that there will be instances when Students may face medical emergencies involving excessive alcohol and/or drug use and because of this, the University has implemented a Medical Amnesty Policy.

- The Georgia Southern University Amnesty Policy is not intended to shield or protect those Students or organizations that repeatedly violate the Code of Student Conduct. In cases where repeated violations of the Code of Student Conduct occur, the University reserves the right to take judicial action on a case by case basis regardless of the manner in which the incident was reported.
- If you believe you have a situation which qualifies for amnesty under this policy, please contact the Office of Student Conduct to receive further instructions. The decision to grant amnesty under this policy resides with the Chief Conduct Officer.

A. AMNESTY

1. For those Who Offer Assistance

To encourage Students to offer help and assistance to others, Georgia Southern University pursues a policy of amnesty for violations when Students offer help to others in need. Additionally, at the discretion of the Chief Conduct Officer, amnesty may be extended on a case-by-case basis to the person receiving assistance. No conduct proceedings or disciplinary Charges will result; however, an administrative meeting will be required where educational and support options will be explored.

2. For those who Report Serious Violations

Students who are engaged in minor violations but who choose to bring related serious violations by others to the attention of the University are offered amnesty for their violations. No conduct proceedings or disciplinary Charges will result; however, an administrative meeting will be required where educational and support options will be explored.

3. For Victim

Georgia Southern University provides amnesty to Victims who may be hesitant to report to University Officials because they fear they may be accused of policy violations, such as underage drinking, at the time of the incident. No conduct proceedings or disciplinary Charges will result; however, an administrative meeting will be required where educational and support options will be explored.

4. Safe Harbor

Georgia Southern University has a Safe Harbor rule for Students. The University believes Students who have a drug and/or addiction problem deserve help. If any Student brings their own use, addiction, or dependency to the attention of University Officials outside the possibility of conduct sanctions and seeks assistance, a conduct complaint will not be pursued. No conduct proceedings or Charges will result; however, an administrative meeting will be required where educational and support options will be explored.

B. TREATMENT

C. STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY ON PARENTAL/GUARDIAN NOTIFICATION

Georgia Southern University is committed to the elimination of alcohol and drug abuse within the University community. The University is concerned with the safety and welfare of Students. The approach to violations of the alcohol and drug policy is designed to be proactive. While the primary approach in response to alcohol and drug violations is educational, it should be clear that violations of the alcohol and drug policy will also result in disciplinary sanctions imposed by the University.

The University may notify the parents of any violations of University alcohol or drugs policies for Students who are under the age of 21 on the date of the incident.

Exceptions

1. The parents or legal guardians of Students under the age of 21 who are financially independent from their parents as defined by the Office of Financial Aid will not be notified.
2. The parents or legal guardians of Students under 21 years of age may not be notified under extraordinary circumstances. This will be determined on a case-by-case basis by the Office of Student Conduct in consultation with other offices within the Division of Student Affairs.

D. STUDENT CONDUCT ACTIONS/RECREATIONAL FACILITIES STATUS

Per the Campus Recreation protocol and as a result of non-compliance with any University or Campus Recreation and Intramural policy, Students, Student Groups, and Student Organizations may be ejected from the recreational activities facilities by University staff. Students, Student Groups, and Student Organizations who are ejected may also be referred to the Office of Student Conduct and face conduct Charges based on their reported behavior.

E. STUDENT CONDUCT RECORDS

Student Conduct Records are not noted on the official transcript. Requests for Student Conduct Records can be made utilizing the Open Records request process through the Office of Legal Affairs. See <http://president.georgiasouthern.edu/legal/services/open-records-and-subpoenas/> for more information on how to request a copy of your Student Conduct Record. Students may request a copy of their own Student Conduct Record through the Office of Student Conduct. In accordance with University System of Georgia policy, all Student Conduct Records will be maintained for five years after the Student has graduated, the Student's last date of attendance, or officially withdrawn from Georgia Southern University.

F. INTERIM SUSPENSION

In certain circumstances, the Associate Vice President/Dean of Students or designee, in consultation with the System Director for the University System of Georgia, may impose a University or Residence Hall suspension prior to a hearing. An interim suspension should only occur where necessary to maintain safety and should be limited to those situations where the respondent poses a serious and immediate danger or threat to persons or property. In making such an assessment, the University should consider the existence of a significant risk to the health or safety of the alleged victim or the campus community; the nature, duration, and severity of the risk; the probability of potential injury; and whether less restrictive means can be used to significantly mitigate the risk.

During an interim suspension, Students may be denied access to the Residence Halls and/or to the campus (including classes) and/or all other University activities or privileges for which the Student might otherwise be eligible, as the Student Conduct Officer may determine to be appropriate. The Student will be responsible for working with Faculty Members to make-up any missed work (if possible).

If an interim suspension is imposed, the notice and hearing should follow within ten (10) Days.

G. CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT REVISIONS

Georgia Southern University reserves the right to revise or correct the Code of Student Conduct as needed. The most updated edition can be found on the Office of Student Conduct website. Those revisions and corrections shall supersede all earlier printed and Internet versions.
