Armstrong student-athletes continued to excel in the classroom in the 2010-11 academic year. Sixty-four percent of the 156 student-athletes carried grade-point averages of 3.0 or better. Eighty-three of Armstrong student-athletes were named to the PBC Presidential Honor Roll. Redshirt senior Gwen Clarke (volleyball) earned the honor for an unprecedented fifth time, while five other seniors - baseball player Josh Heath, women's soccer players Kelli Bahr, Tracey Mitchell and Elizabeth Kerkhoff and women's tennis player Alida Muller-Wehlau - earned PBC Presidential Honor Roll honors all four years at Armstrong. Thirty-three student-athletes were named to the Dean's List during the 2010-11 academic year.

Five student-athletes carried perfect 4.0 GPAs for 2010-11 - Bahr, Clarke, Muller-Wehlau, softball player Keela Scott and volleyball player Torrie Bevolo.

Senior Josh Heath was an All-District III Baseball first team honoree for a third straight year, while senior Kelli Bahr, senior Tracey Mitchell and sophomore Kristina Pascutti were an Academic All-District III Women's Soccer honorees.

Josh Heath and Alida Muller-Wehlau were the 2011 President's Cup winners, given by the Savannah Exchange Club to the top male and female student-athlete of the year.

Commissioner's Cup

Armstrong finished third in the 2010-11 Peach Belt Conference Commissioner's Cup standings, which is the conference's all-sports trophy. Armstrong received 63 points out of a possible 89, for a .688 percentage. Armstrong was boosted in the standings by Peach Belt titles in men's and women's tennis, a co-championship in women's soccer, as well as a second-place finish for softball and third-place finishes for volleyball, baseball, men's golf and women's golf.

*Numbers in parentheses indicate maximum number of points that can be awarded for each sport. Ratings are determined by taking the maximum number of points available to each school, depending on how many sports each has, and dividing by the number of points won, based on conference finish through the regular season (except golf and cross country where place is determined by conference tournament finish).

NACDA Director's Cup

Armstrong Atlantic State finished 65th in the 2010-11 Learfield Sports/NACDA Division II Director's Cup. In all, six of the Pirates' 11 sports advanced to NCAA Championships competition.

AASU received 270.5 points to finish 65th out of the 234 schools that received points in the standings - points which are earned by placing in seven men's and seven women's sports qualifying for the NCAA Championships. The Pirates earned 83 points for the women's tennis NCAA semifinals appearance; 64 points for the men's tennis and women's soccer teams appearance in the Round of 16; 25 points for softball's and volleyball's NCAA regionals appearances and 9.5 points for men's golf's appearance in the NCAA South/Southeast Regional.

Senior Josh Heath Named PBC Male Student-Athlete of the Year

HILTON HEAD, S.C. (May 31) - Armstrong Atlantic State University baseball player Josh Heath was named the Peach Belt Conference 2010-11 Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year at the league's annual meetings in Hilton Head. Heath was chosen by the conference's Faculty Athletics Representatives, who looked at information on each candidate and based their vote on 50% academic accomplishment, 30% athletic achievement and 20% leadership qualities. The scholar-athlete award is the highest individual award presented by the PBC.

A native of Locust Grove, Ga., Heath graduated from Armstrong this May with a degree in biology with a 3.91 GPA. He was honored with the Leslie B. Davenport award, given to the most outstanding biology major, this Spring. A three-time Capitol One Academic All-District III selection, Heath was named to the PBC All-Academic team three times and the PBC Presidential Honor Roll four times. He was also named to the AASU Dean's List in the spring of 2011 and recognized by the school as the top overall model student and recognized by the legislature of the State of Georgia.

On the field, Heath appeared in a career-high 50 of the Pirates' 52 games with 47 starts in the outfield. He hit .242 with seven doubles and 16 RBIs and 31 runs scored. He drew 34 walks to tie for the team lead and had a .382 on-base percentage. He collected 14 sacrifice bunts, second-most on the team, and made only one error in the outfield in 72 chances, a .986 fielding percentage. Heath becomes only the second Armstrong student-athlete to win the Scholar-Athlete of the Year award, joining men's tennis player Sundar Raman who was honored in 1995.

Lisa Sweany Named New Director of Athletics

SAVANNAH, Ga. (June 6) - Armstrong Atlantic State University officials announced the hiring of Lisa M. Sweany, senior associate athletics director at Grand Valley State University (GVSU) in Michigan, as the new athletics director for Pirate Athletics. She was introduced to the campus and community at a meet and greet on July 7th in the Student Union Ballroom.

Sweany brings to Armstrong extensive experience in NCAA Division II athletics, including more than 10 years with the premiere Division II program at GVSU. Since being named senior associate athletics director in 2007, she has been responsible for budget, personnel and facilities management. Her duties have included direct supervision of seven coaches, overseeing game and event operations, as well as management of all athletics personnel. In addition, she coordinated all aspects of compliance and eligibility for more than 500 student athletes.

She actively researched and implemented a plan to offer women's lacrosse as GVSU's 20th varsity sport. She served on the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletics Conference Executive Council, the Irwin Club Advisory Board and the Intercollegiate Athletics Advisory Board.

"Lisa's extensive experience with a premier Division II athletics program will serve her well as she takes charge of Pirate Athletics," said Armstrong President Dr. Linda M. Bleicken. "The search committee was very impressed with the excellent work Lisa has done to establish strong links between athletics and the campus at Grand Valley State University. We are very pleased to have her join our campus in July, and we look forward to having her work with our coaches, athletics personnel, student-athletes and further build support for our program among our constituents and supporters throughout the region."

Sweany also served as tournament director for NCAA Division II regional and national events hosted by the university, including Men's Golf Nationals, Women's Golf Nationals, Volleyball Nationals and Football Playoffs.

Prior to joining GVSU, she served at Tri-State University in Angola, Indiana, starting in 1995 as athletics facilities director. During her five-year stint at Tri-State, she served in various capacities of increasing responsibility, including assistant basketball coach, head coach of softball and associate athletics director, a position she was named to in March 1995.

Sweany is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics. From 2010, she served as chair of the NCAA Midwest Regional for Softball, helping to oversee rankings in the region. Since 2008, she has served as second vice president and convention planning chair for the Collegiate Event and Facility Management Association, where she was a founding board member.

She holds a master's degree in physical education with a concentration in sports management from Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana and a bachelor's degree with honors in business administration with a concentration in accounting from Tri-State University in Angola, Indiana.

The Armstrong Atlantic State volleyball squad used a late season charge to earn its way into an eighth NCAA Championships berth, going 22-14 overall while also making its eleventh appearance in the PBC Tournament Championship match.

On October 5, after a tough five-set loss to West Georgia, the Pirates sat at 8-10 overall with a month left in the regular season. Armstrong proceeded to win 12 of its final 14 matches to earn the third seed in the PBC Tournament.

Hosted by Armstrong, the Pirates rode the home crowd to thrilling five-set wins over UNC Pembroke and Montevallo to make the championship match. The late-season run and the run to the title match helped the Pirates earn an at-large berth into the 2010 NCAA Championships.

Senior Gwen Clarke wrapped up an outstanding career by earning All-PBC, All-Tournament and Daktronics/CoSIDA All-Southeast Region honors. She hit a team-best .259 this season with 326 kills and 103 blocks, ranking seventh in the Peach Belt in hitting percentage and 13th in kills per set (2.41). Clarke finished her four-year career with 939 kills, finishing tied for seventh on the Armstrong all-time kills chart, while her 242 career blocks rank 10th best all-time.

Junior Torrie Bevolo will achieve a rarity as she will graduate after only three years with the Pirates. The outside hitter wraps up her Pirate career with 1,122 digs - sixth all-time - and 888 kills, tied for 10th all-time.

The Pirates return 11 players for 2011, including second-team All-PBC outside hitter Jessica Santaniello and the PBC's leader in blocks in 2010, middle hitter Brittany Wolf.

Gwen Clarke (far left) earned All-Region honors while wrapping up her Pirate career with 939 kills and 242 blocks. Brittany Wolf (left) led the PBC in blocks as a sophomore, averaging 1.14 per set, ranking 24th in NCAA Division II. Torrie Bevolo (below left) compiled 1,122 digs and 888 kills in three seasons and graduates this year with a degree in Spanish.

The Armstrong Atlantic State women's soccer team fashioned yet another outstanding season in 2010, earning the program's first regular season Peach Belt Conference title while advancing to the NCAA Southeast Region final and finishing the year ranked No. 11 in the NSCAA Top 25 poll.

The Pirates won nine of 10 PBC contests during the regular season, including a key 2-0 victory over Columbus State on October 9th, to finish first in the PBC regular season standings. Armstrong also earned its fourth NCAA Championships berth in just six seasons.

Armstrong hosted UNC Pembroke in an NCAA Southeast Region match on November 14th and a Morgan Mitchell goal in the 79th minute not only gave the Pirates their first home NCAA postseason victory, but put Armstrong into the NCAA Southeast Region final for the first time.

An extremely balanced lineup for head coach Eric Faulconer ranked 12th in NCAA Division II in goals per game (2.75) while defensively, the Pirates gave up just 0.83 goals per game, a school record.

Redshirt junior defender Kelli Bahr earned Daktronics/CoSIDA honorable mention All-America honors while also earning NSCAA/adidas Scholar All-America honors and All-PBC accolades. In all, seven Pirates earned All-Conference honors, including Faulconer, who was named the PBC Coach of the Year as well as the NSCAA Southeast Region Coach of the Year.

Senior defender and team captain Carey Patterson led a strong group of seniors in their final years as Pirates by earning All-PBC and NSCAA All-Region honors, while senior Tracey Mitchell finished her four-year career at Armstrong with an outstanding 44-18-7 record in goal, most goalkeeper wins in school history. Fellow seniors Lianne Stricklen, Elizabeth Kerkhoff, Alyssa Anderson and Amanda Morphis also wrapped up their Pirate careers in 2010.

The Pirates return 18 players for 2011, including All-PBC and All-Region forward Kristina Pascutti, All-PBC and team points leader Nadima Skeff as well as All-PBC midfielder Courtney Cawley.

2010-2011 AASU Student-Athlete Awards Banquet

SAVANNAH, Ga. - The Armstrong Atlantic State athletic department held its annual Student-Athlete Awards Banquet on Monday, April 25, at the Armstrong Center.

Individual team and academic awards were awarded as well as a highlight video shown of the 11 sports from the 2010-11 athletic year at AASU. For a third straight year, WJCL-TV and WTGS-TV Sports Director Frank Sulkowski served as emcee of the festivities.

The highlights of the evening included the awarding of the 2010-11 Male and Female Student-Athlete of the Year by the Armstrong Athletic Department. Senior women's tennis player Alida Muller-Wehlau earned the Female Student-Athlete of the Year honors, while senior men's tennis player Rafael Array was named the Male Student-Athlete of the Year. Both were presented their awards by University President Dr. Linda Bleicken.

Men's Golf carried the top GPA among the male sports while Women's Tennis carried the top team GPA of the female sports for the 2010 calendar year.

Head coach Jeremy Luther's men's basketball squad finished 14-12 during the 2010-11 season, knocking off a pair of nationally-ranked teams and receiving votes in the NABC Division II Coaches' Poll while surviving a challenging Peach Belt Conference and non-conference schedule.

The Pirates began the year with three straight wins, including an impressive 94-74 road win at preseason nationally-ranked Valdosta State on November 21. Armstrong went into the new year with an 8-3 record that also included an 88-84 Peach Belt win over No. 13-ranked USC Aiken.

Another key win came on January 17 as Chris Edwards' three-point basket with 0.9 seconds remaining in overtime gave the Pirates a 67-66 come-from-behind victory over Montevallo. The Pirates knocked off their second nationally-ranked foe of the spring on February 10, taking down No. 16 Georgia Southwestern State, 86-80, at Alumni Arena.

Senior Jesse Wheeler averaged 11.5 points per game and 5.0 rebounds per game, while ranking third in the PBC and 57th in the nation in free throw percentage at 85 percent, earning the Ashley Dearing Award for the Pirates. Fellow senior Brett Goodwell averaged 11.0 points and 6.2 rebounds per game, ranking among the PBC's leaders in rebounding, field goal percentage (.512) and blocked shots. Senior walk-on Tray Bryant had a memorable debut against Hiwassee, recording 22 points and 10 rebounds in his first collegiate action during Armstrong's Fall Finals Classic.

Junior shooting guard Chris Vanlandingham led the Pirates in scoring, averaging 15.0 points per contest, while earning third-team All-PBC honors. The Pirates return eight players from last season's squad for 2011-12.

The Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball squad finished the 2010-11 season with an 8-18 overall record and a 4-14 record in Peach Belt Conference play.

The Lady Pirates opened the season with a 56-47 region win over Converse, and also knocked off Allen and Edward Waters before opening the Peach Belt Conference campaign with a 77-73 win over Augusta State, holding the Lady Jaguars scoreless over the last two minutes of the contest to season the victory.

Armstrong picked up conference wins over Flagler and swept the season series from Augusta State, then came up with a thrilling 55-48 overtime win at North Georgia on Jan. 29 as a Mauri Wells open layup with 3.5 seconds left pushed the game into overtime, then the Pirates hit two three-pointers in overtime to pull away for the key road win.

Senior Arpine Amirkhanyan, Armstrong's lone senior for 2010-11, earned PBC Player of the Week honors on Dec. 6 for averaging 22 points and 12.5 rebounds in a pair of wins that week. She finished the season ranking 12th in the PBC in scoring, averaging 12.3 points per game, while ranking fourth in the PBC in rebounding, averaging 9.0 boards per game. She also ranked among the league's leaders in field goal percentage (.456), free throw percentage (.808) and also earned PBC All-Academic team honors.

Freshman Mauri Wells had an outstanding debut season, ranking third in the league in rebounding (9.7 rpg) while also averaging 11.9 points per game, ranking 16th, and shooting .481 from the floor, eighth-best in the league.

Junior point guard Jazmin Walker ranked second in the PBC in minutes played per game and averaged 3.42 assists per game, while freshman Ashley Slade led the PBC in free throw percentage at .870. Armstrong returns eight players for the 2011-12 season from last season's squad.

Senior Arpine Amirkhanyan (below right) was the PBC's Player of the Week on Dec. 6 and finished her two-year career ranked second all-time in Armstrong history in free throw percentage (.789). Mauri Wells (above right) ranked among the league's leaders in scoring, rebounding, field goal and free throw percentage as a true freshman. Junior Jazmin Walker (above left) ranked second in the league in minutes played as the Pirates' starting point guard and freshman Ashley Slade (above middle) led the PBC in free throw percentage.

No. 23

Junior Scott Strickland (top right) became Armstrong's first pitcher with 100+ strikeouts since 2005, ranking second in the PBC and earning All-PBC and All-Region honors. Junior John Roberts (middle right) earned All-PBC honors for a second straight season while ranking among the PBC's leaders in batting average, hits, doubles, triples and RBIs. Junior Drew Walker (bottom right) was the third All-PBC honoree for the Pirates in 2011, leading Armstrong in home runs while ranking among the league's best in on-base percentage, RBIs and slugging percentage.

The Armstrong Atlantic State baseball squad notched its 32nd-straight winning season in 2011, advancing to the Peach Belt Conference tournament semifinals and finishing the year ranked No. 23 in the final Collegiate Baseball Division II Top 30 coaches' poll.

The Pirates earned a reputation for come-from-behind wins early in the season, beginning with senior Michael Price's walk-off RBI double in the bottom of the ninth for a 3-2 win over defending NCAA Division II champion Southern Indiana, giving Armstrong the series win over the Screaming Eagles.

Armstrong trailed Missouri-St. Louis, 7-1, on Feb. 26 but rallied for a 10-8 win over the Tritons, and the Pirates overcame a 7-3 deficit in the bottom of the ninth with five runs to knock off Lander, 8-7, on March 18. The Pirates also recorded come-from-behind road PBC wins over Montevallo and USC Aiken.

The keys to the Pirates' success in 2011 came down to pitching, defense and small ball. Armstrong's team ERA in 2011 was 3.33, a full two runs better than 2010, while Armstrong defensively led the nation in double plays and ranked 12th in fielding percentage. The Pirates also led the nation in sacrifice hits for the second time in the last three seasons.

Price finished his four-year career for Armstrong earning an ABCA All-Southeast Region gold glove honor while leading DII in sacrifice hits with 28. Senior Josh Heath ranked among the league's leaders in sacrifice hits and walks while earning 2010-11 PBC Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors. Senior lefthanded pitcher Trent Landa earned PBC All-Tournament honors while fellow seniors Jonathan Fulghum, Blake Culberson and Drew Carnes also finished up their careers.

Junior catcher John Roberts and junior pitcher Scott Strickland each fashioned All-PBC and All-Southeast Region honors in 2011 and lead a core group of 15 players who return to play for the Pirates in 2012.

The Armstrong Atlantic State University fashioned another successful season in 2011, advancing to the NCAA Championships for the ninth time in the last 11 seasons, while finishing second in the Peach Belt Conference standings.

Sparked by Peach Belt Conference Player of the Year April Jowers, the Pirate offense led the Peach Belt in batting average and on-base percentage while also ranking second in the league in slugging percentage. Jowers in particular set a new Armstrong single-season hitting record by batting a PBC-leading .497, which ranked third in NCAA Division II. She also bettered her own school single-season stolen base record with 28 and became Armstrong's first consensus first-team All-American since 2002.

In the circle, sophomore Megan Barnwell continued to improve as she ranked second in the PBC and 19th in NCAA Division II in strikeouts with 246, the most in a single season for the Pirates in seven seasons. On March 8, she punched out 23 batters in a 5-4 11-inning win over Columbus State, tying the NCAA Division II single-game strikeout record. She also delivered a 3-0 shutout win at No. 3 North Georgia on April 9 and earned All-PBC and NFCA All-Region honors.

Sophomore outfielder Shelby Duff had a breakout season at the plate, hitting .370 with seven home runs and 43 RBIs, earning first-team All-PBC and All-Region honors, while junior Baillie Temples continued to perform at a high level by hitting .390.

Four seniors closed out their Armstrong careers in 2011, including senior Erin Billingsley, who became Armstrong's first NCAA statistical champion since 2002 by leading the nation in sacrifice hits. Seniors Meagan Qualls, Amber Janus and Alisa Malte also finished up their Armstrong careers

Head coach Ted Evans returns 10 players from this past seasons' squad for the 2012 campaign.

The Armstrong Atlantic State men's tennis team advanced to the NCAA Round of 16 in 2011, while capturing its seventh-straight Peach Belt Conference tournament title as well as seventh overall regular season crown. The Pirates finished the 2011 season with a 26-1 overall record and a No. 3 national ranking, while completing only its second undefeated regular season in program history.

Included among those 26 wins was a 7-2 win over eventual national champion Valdosta State back in March - the only loss suffered by the Blazers during the season. Armstrong also defeated No. 2 Barry, No. 5 Lynn, No. 6 Abilene Christian, No. 7 West Florida, No. 8 Rollins and No. 9 Columbus State during the regular season and fashioned an overall 18-1 record against teams ranked in the Top 35 in the ITA's national rankings.

Seniors Mikk Irdoja and Rafael Array teamed to capture the ITA "Super Bowl" doubles championship in the fall and rode that momentum through an outstanding spring that saw the pair finish the 2011 season ranked No. 1 in the final ITA DII rankings. Array finished his career with 133 singles and doubles victories combined, setting a new Armstrong career victories record of 266. Both players earned ITA All-America honors in both singles and doubles for the season.

Junior Eudaldo Bonet fashioned an outstanding 41-3 overall singles record in 2010-11, finishing the spring season as the top-ranked singles player in the nation and earning Peach Belt Conference Player of the Year honors as well as ITA All-American accolades.

Freshman Pedro Scocuglia put together an impressive 21-2 singles record in the dual match season to earn Peach Belt Conference Freshman of the Year honors, while head coach Simon Earnshaw earned PBC Co-Coach of the Year honors for guiding the Pirates to an undefeated league campaign. Sophomore Matus Mydla also earned All-PBC singles and doubles honors.

The Pirates lose just Array from this past season's squad and return five players for 2012.

The Armstrong Atlantic State women's tennis team advanced to the NCAA Division II semifinals in 2011, its eighth straight trip to the semis. Armstrong also captured its eighth straight Peach Belt Conference regular season title as well as its eighth straight PBC tournament crown en route to a 28-3 season and a final No. 4 national ranking by the ITA.

The Lady Pirates did not drop a point in a perfect Peach Belt campaign in 2011, going 12-0 in the league and winning each match by a 9-0 score. Armstrong began the year as the No. 1-ranked team in the nation and stretched its win streak to a school-record 69 straight matches that dated back to 2009, winning its first 21 matches of the 2011 season. The Pirates still have an 86 consecutive match win streak in regular season PBC play that dates back to 2003, as well as an impressive 103 consecutive home winning streak that also dates back to 2003.

In the fall, senior Alida Muller-Wehlau and freshman Barbora Krtickova claimed the ITA "Super Bowl" doubles championship and earned an invite to the ITA Indoor Championships. As the only non-Division I duo in the field, Muller-Wehlau and Krtickova captured the consolation bracket championship, knocking off Stanford's Hilary Barte and Mallory Burdette in the final.

Muller-Wehlau put the finishing touches on an outstanding career by earning Peach Belt Conference Player of the Year honors as well as ITA All-American honors in singles and doubles - the Lady Pirates' first four-time All-American in both singles and doubles since Zsafia Golopencza in 2004. In her four-year career, she compiled a 130-21 singles and 158-19 doubles record for a school-record 288 overall wins in Lady Pirate history.

Senior Tina Ronel also capped her Armstrong career, going 21-5 in singles, earning All-PBC honors and final national rankings in both singles (No. 23) and doubles (No. 18).

Freshman Barbora Krtickova was named the PBC Freshman of the Year and teamed with Muller-Wehlau to earn a final No. 1 national ranking in doubles, while also earning All-American honors in singles. Freshman Aleksandra Filipovski also had an outstanding debut as a Lady Pirate, going 26-3 in singles and earning All-PBC and All-America singles honors.

The Armstrong Atlantic State men's golf team advanced to the NCAA DII Golf Championships for a tenth straight season in 2010-11, an impressive run since the reinstatement of the golf program 11 seasons ago in which the Pirates have been a perennial postseason participant.

The Pirates were solid all season long, finishing fifth or better in eight of its 11 tournaments during 2010-11, and Armstrong finished third in the 2011 Peach Belt Conference Championships, hosted at Savannah Quarters Country Club in April. Armstrong also claimed runner-up finishes at the 2010 Laker Collegiate Invitational in September as well as the Armstrong Pirate Invitational in February.

Armstrong's 295.17 stroke average in 2010-11 was also the lowest for Pirate golf since the reinstatement of the program in 2000-01, bettering the 295.65 stroke average set by the 2004-05 team that finished second in the NCAA DII National Championships.

Senior Ridge Purcell led a deep Pirate squad by playing in all 29 rounds and finishing the year with a 73.79 stroke average, earning first-team All-Peach Belt Conference honors as well as GCAA All-Southeast Region honors while earning two Top 5 finishes and four Top 10 finishes.

Senior Aaron Elrod also put together a solid final season with the Pirates, carding a 74.00 stroke average and earning second-team All-PBC honors as well as two Top 5 finishes and three Top 10 finishes. Senior Parker Gordon finished his four-year Armstrong career by playing 23 rounds and carding a 75.39 stroke average in his final season with two Top 10 finishes.

Junior Matt Motes earned second-team All-PBC honors as well as PBC All-Academic honors, carding a 74.51 stroke average in 29 rounds, and also became only the second Armstrong men's golfer to earn GCAA Scholar All-America honors.

Freshman Rebecca Goldman (above) carded an 82.00 stroke average and finished third in the Peach Belt Conference Championships in 2011, earning PBC All-Tournament honors and finishing in the Top 10 in three tournaments. Junior Kim Knox (right) posted an 84.44 stroke average, earning PBC All-Academic honors. Sophomore Kelly Pearce (far right - with head coach Michael Butler) led the Lady Pirates in stroke average in 2010-11 with an 81.10 tally in all 20 rounds, earning second-team All-PBC honors as well as PBC All-Academic honors. Pearce also collected three Top 10 finishes.

The Armstrong Atlantic State women's golf team continues the steady climb since becoming an intercollegiate sport in 2005-06, finishing third in the Peach Belt Conference in 2010-11 as well as setting a new school single-round, single-tournament and season scoring mark all during the season.

The Lady Pirates put together a 327.85 scoring average, two and a half strokes better than their previous single season scoring record of 330.33, set last season. During the Peach Belt Conference Championships, Armstrong closed out the tournament with a school-record 311 round, eclipsing the previous record of 312, set during the SCAD Spring Invitational in 2010.

Armstrong's 631 total at the Kiawah Island Invitational on February 5-6 was also a school record, beating the 638 total set during that same SCAD Spring Invitational in 2010.

The Lady Pirates finished sixth or better in six tournaments during the 2010-11 season, including a third-place finish in the Armstrong Lady Pirate Invitational at Savannah Quarters - the first regular season tournament hosted solely by the Armstrong women's golf program.

Senior Carrie George closed out her Armstrong women's golf career by carding an 85.79 stroke average in 14 rounds of action and in her four-year career, George played in 58 rounds with an 85.76 career stroke average. Senior Sarah Johns also closed out her Armstrong career with an 83.00 stroke average in 14 rounds played and a career 84.57 stroke average in 45 rounds played.

Sophomore Kelly Pearce led the Lady Pirates in stroke average in 2010-11 at an 81.10 clip, earning second-team All-Peach Belt Conference honors and finishing in the Top 10 in three tournaments. Freshman Rebecca Goldman earned PBC All-Tournament honors with a third-place finish and carded an 82.00 stroke average in 20 rounds played in 2010-11.
