Student Teams Awarded at SAE World Congress in Detroit

May 4, 2017

An undergraduate and graduate student research team of the Engine Combustion laboratory, led by faculty advisor Dr. Val Soloiu, presented their research papers at the Society of Automotive Engineers World Congress in Detroit MI (4-6 April 2017). The team, composed of Martin Muinos, Aliyah Knowles, Remi Gaubert, Jose Moncada, Bernard Ibru and Thomas Beyerl, presented their state of the art research on topics ranging from advanced combustion modes and noise and vibrations studies in automotive engines to intelligent/autonomous vehicles technologies. The team received seven awards for their research, and they should be congratulated for this noteworthy accomplishment.
