Faculty ensemble to perform at SAI national convention

April 5, 2012

Georgia Southern’s Faculty Brass Quintet and Percussion ensemble will be among the few groups to perform at the Sigma Alpha Iota music sorority’s 2012 National Convention in Atlanta this summer. Performing groups nationwide are allowed to apply and audition for a limited number of performing slots at this convention.

In addition to the musicale that it will perform, the Faculty Brass Quintet and Percussion ensemble also has been chosen to open the convention with a concert composed by Dr. Michael Braz.

The ensemble, which consists of Bill and Alice Schmid on trumpets; Stephanie Furry on horn; Rick Mason on trombone; David Purser on tuba and Matt Fallin on percussion; will perform Aug. 3.
