Reference Code (2.1): 360 Art Music and Theatre Department

Name and Location of Repository (2.2): Special Collections, Lane Library, Georgia Southern University-Armstrong Campus, Savannah, GA, 31419

Title (2.3): Armstrong State University Fine Arts Posters, Programs, and Publicity Materials

Date(s) (2.4): 1994-2016

Extent (2.5): 4 Poster boxes, 2 record boxes and a MS box, approximately 3 linear feet.

Name of Creator(s) (2.6): Art, Music and Theater Department. Armstrong State University

Scope and Content (3.1): Mainly posters and programs for Armstrong State University's theatre productions, music performances and to a lesser extent art exhibits. Bulk of the collection dates from 1998-2015. Finding Aid includes index of posters and programs in the collection for Armstrong Theatre Productions 1994-2016, Armstrong Music Department 1994-2016, and Armstrong Art Department 2000-2015. Box 7 includes clippings, news releases, some photographs and small, design mock-up of theater programs/posters. Box 4 includes four scrapbooks made by the Armstrong Theatre Department from 1994-2005. Posters vary in size but typically measure 11x17 inches and are in color. Collected by Art, Music and Theater marketing manager (1999-2015) Mario Incorvaia,; transferred to University Archives each year or so, in several accessions.

Conditions Governing Access (4.1): Open.

Language and Scripts of Material (4.5): English.

Administrative/Biographical History (2.7): During the period documented by this collection, the Theater Department was separate from the Art and Music, and wasn't joined together into one department until the 1998-1999 school year. The Art, Music and Theatre Department was headed by Dr. James Anderson until 2001, when Dr. Thomas Cato took over through the summer 2017. The majority of the posters and programs were collected by Mario Incorvaia, the Arts Marketing Manager. Armstrong Masquers, University Chorale, University Singers, Wind Ensemble, Savannah Winds, and Art Department Exhibitions and Activities are advertised in these documents.

Related Archival Materials (6.3): Frank Chew Collection, Shirley Hoffman Collection, Masquers' scrapbook, University Relations Photograph Collections.
