CSDS Graduate Students Present on Age-Related Hearing Loss

October 9, 2019

This past August, Georgia Southern University graduate students in the Communication Sciences and Disorders \(CSDS\) program had the opportunity to partner with Georgia Relay and Georgia Center of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (GCDHH) for a Bingo Bash Hearing Loss Lunch and Learn in Port Wentworth, Georgia. The event was held to address hearing loss in the aging population. Graduate students provided attendees with hearing screenings, discussed hearing loss prevention and provided a presentation on age-related hearing loss. Participants of this event enjoyed riveting games of Bingo, won prizes, enjoyed a delicious lunch and learned about the many different services Georgia Relay, Georgia Center of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing and Georgia Southern University have to offer.
