New Health Center to Open November 2015

“The new Health Center is going to be a state-of-the-art medical facility, but what I’m most proud of and what our students are most excited about is this building is going to give us the opportunity to meet the demand we see every day on our campus,” said Dr. Brian Deloach, medical director of Georgia Southern University Health Services. “We see 150 students a day and we’re bursting at the seams. The Center will allow us to better achieve our mission—to keep our students healthy so they can succeed academically.” Learn More >
