Welcome to the New School Year

August 28, 2013

The University Honors Program officially welcomed all 467 students Tuesday, August 27. This number sets a new record for University Honors Program participation, and the program is delighted to report that 112 of those students joined us from the ranks of current students at Georgia Southern.

This growth in the program's numbers reflects a growing interest in the type of challenging and enriching program the University Honors Program provides. Our students take advantage of Undergraduate Research and Experiential Learning opportunities and complete an Honors Thesis.
