1-27-2021

Midweek Memo

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/midweek-memo-newsletter

Part of the Higher Education Commons

This newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the University Communications and Marketing at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Midweek Memo by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.
Parker College of Business students and faculty excel in virtual global competition

Sales students in the Parker College of Business spent the fall semester communicating and making deals with a robot through the virtual RNMKRS College Sales Skills Competition.

Read more about the RNMKRS competition here.

Complete employee annual performance evaluations by Feb. 26

Electronic W-2s now available in OneUSG Connect

Complete business transaction reports by Jan. 31
With final accreditation, new Georgia Southern music industry degree ready to launch

Women's, Gender and Sexuality Studies Program promotes inclusivity for LGBTQ+ students, new minor

Renowned educational theorist and teacher educator to lead Georgia Southern 2021 Fries Lecture

Watch the 2021 MLK Celebration speaker live on Facebook tonight at 6 o'clock
It's a busy weekend for the Eagles! Men's basketball, men's and women's tennis and rifle all host teams on campus!

Center for Art and Theatre to host visiting contemporary art exhibition

More opportunities to experience Georgia Southern

You may have heard

News and other information going around

FOR THE LOVE OF BLUE

What is the For the Love of Blue Campus Giving Campaign?

How your gift contributes to fulfilling students' dreams

Why I give to the For the Love of Blue campaign

As a Georgia Southern alumnus and an employee of the University, there is no other option than to give back. It's the people that make me want to give back. Whether it is maintaining a beautiful campus, supporting regional and national prominence of athletics, or ensuring our students have the tools they need to succeed, I give because the Georgia Southern community is invested in excellence.

As dean of the Jiann-Ping Hsu College of Public Health, I give because I know I’m supporting people that make a difference. Please take a moment and think about the people here and how your support can make everyone’s work better and give to For the Love of Blue.

Stuart Tedders, Ph.D., dean of the Jiann-Ping Hsu College of Public Health

Why do you give to For the Love of Blue? Submit your photo and reason for giving back to news@georgiasouthern.edu to be featured in next week's Midweek Memo!

In case you missed it

Stay up to date with Eagle Nation and earn free rewards through the GATA Rewards app
COVID-19 vaccination distribution information
Mileage reimbursement rates updated for calendar year 2021
Register for the Winter Sing-Along with Brandi Harvey
Georgia Southern hosting Youth Mental Health First Aid certification course
ESPN2 to air Friday night’s men’s basketball home game against Coastal Carolina

Extra! Extra!

Georgia Southern professor reflects on importance of inauguration — WTOC
MLK Commemorative events — WTOC
Details announced for the 28th annual American Traditions Vocal Competition — Broadway World
Broadway Advocacy Coalition announces scholars for the Cody Renard Richard Scholarship Program — Broadway World
Leadership SE Georgia names 2021 coordinators — Statesboro Herald
Georgia Southern AD: Athletics events going to happen in Savannah in the future — Savannah Morning News
Have a story, event or achievement idea for inclusion in Your Midweek Memo? Submit ideas for consideration to news@georgiasouthern.edu by Mondays at noon.