GS legend Adrian Peterson joins Chad Lunsford's staff

Former Eagles star running back Adrian Peterson was named the new director of student-athlete development for the Georgia Southern University football program. He will be serving as a mentor to many GS football players, help oversee their academic progress and have a hand in recruitment for the GS football team. Full Story.

Campus planetarium to show award-winning show

The Planetarium will be showing “Life: A Cosmic Story” on Feb. 22 and 23, with showtimes at 6, 7 and 8 p.m. The show is narrated by Jodie Foster. The intention of the show is to “help to understand where you are in the universe and how life forms,” Planetarium Coordinator Dillon Marcy said. Full Story.

About Georgia's 911 amnesty law

Before 2014, anyone in Georgia suffering from an illegal drug overdose or any underage drinker experiencing alcohol poisoning risked arrest when calling for medical help. As a result, calling 911 was not an option for them, which led to several easily preventable deaths. However, thanks to Georgia's 911 Medical Amnesty Law, this is no longer an issue.
