SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong State University has announced its final Hall of Fame class in institutional history. The Armstrong State Athletic Hall of Fame committee considered nearly a hundred nominations from the beginning of the Pirate athletic program to the very last season of competition in 2016-17 and has selected 40 inductees and five service citation award winners to represent the final class to be inducted into the Hall of Fame.

The final Armstrong State University Athletic Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony will take place on Thursday, December 7th at 6:30 p.m. in the Armstrong Center. There will be a social with the inductees beginning at 6:00 p.m. Tickets will be available to the general public for $40 each and can be purchased by contacting Becky Smith at becky.smith@armstrong.edu.

The new class is listed below, broken up into categories and listed in chronological order from earliest to latest, with Service Citation award winners appearing at the top of the list.

With the final class included, the Armstrong State University Athletic Hall of Fame will feature 122 inductees, including 21 service citation award recipients. The inaugural class was inducted in 1995, and a class was inducted each year through 2004, and from 2011 through the two induction classes in 2017.

SERVICE CITATION

Dr. Linda Bleicken & Carl Bleicken

Dr. Bleicken served as the University President at Armstrong State from 2009-17 and, along with her husband Carl, tremendously supported Pirate athletics during her tenure at the institution. Both were champions of the Pirates off campus and on and could always be found at home events and even away events as two of the biggest Armstrong State athletic fans.

Chad Jackson

Served as the Director of Sports Communications for Armstrong State University from 1999-2017. Developed and maintained the Armstrong State Athletics webpage, handled all media requests for the Pirates’ 12 intercollegiate sports, initiated live streaming of all home events and was instrumental in serving as the athletic department’s liaison to the Hall of Fame committee.

Will Lynch

Served as the Faculty Athletic Representative for Armstrong State athletics for 17 years. Teaches chemistry and has served as the department head of the Chemistry and Physics department. Has taught at Armstrong State since 1993. Represented Armstrong State on Peach Belt Conference and NCAA committees.

Lynn Roberts

Former Armstrong State student-athlete, women’s tennis head coach and Senior Woman Administrator. Helped Armstrong State athletics create its Student-Athlete Advisory Committee and served as its advisor for many years. Supported Pirate athletics throughout her 35+ years at the school as a student-athlete, coach and physical education professor.
