Epps preserves history with utility box mural

February 7, 2018

Last summer, Master of Fine Arts candidate Cyndy Epps was selected to paint an electrical box on the corner of Walton Way and Milledge Road in Augusta, a few blocks up from Augusta University. Epps's design, chosen unanimously out of nine submissions for the project, reflects the history of the Summerville neighborhood and memorializes a huge 150-year-old yellow deciduous magnolia that once stood on the property. Epps completed the project over several days in January and was featured on Augusta's WRDW-News 12.
