Spring 2014 Honors Research Symposium

April 10, 2014

Join the University Honors Program on Friday, April 18, for an afternoon of research and conversation at the Spring 2014 Honors Research Symposium. This event is designed to showcase the research and creative activities of students in the University Honors Program. Graduating seniors deliver oral presentations of their Honors Thesis research while freshmen, sophomores, and juniors in the program participate in the poster session.

The event takes place at the Nessmith-Lane Conference Center and begins at 12:15 p.m. with a reception and poster session. Graduating senior Thesis and Capstone presentations begin at 1:30, with a second session at 2:45, and the final session at 4:00.

The Honors Research Symposium is the University Honors Program's celebration of National Undergraduate Research Week (April 14-18).
