Upcoming Workshops

Summer 2019 Teaching Online Certificate Program

Applications are now being accepted for the Summer 2019 session.

The Teaching Online Certificate Program (TOC) prepares and certifies faculty to teach and design online courses at Georgia Southern University. The Summer 2019 TOC Program consists of three parts: a five-week online workshop, a three-week course development practicum, and two face-to-face technical training workshops.

TOC Workshop: May 20 – June 23 (5 weeks)

TOC Design Practicum: July 1 through July 21 (3 weeks)

Apply now for the Summer 2019 TOC Program

*Please do not register on the University Training Website. Please login to your Georgia Southern email account to fill out the application. Online seats are limited. Full-time faculty who are assigned to teach online courses during the Summer 2019, Fall 2019, and Spring 2020 semesters will receive priority placement.

Designing Technology-Facilitated Group Work

Technology allows instructors to create more collaboration between students in face-to-face, blended, and online classes. This session will explore research-based, pedagogical reasons for using collaborative tools to facilitate group work, regardless of your course format. We encourage you to attend the companion tool training to this workshop, "Folio Groups." Come find out how you can get your students working together more effectively!

Monday, March 25 from 3-4 pm in Solms 207 (Armstrong)

Communicating & Connecting with Your Colleagues

Join your colleagues online during this 30-minute CTE Webinar to share various teaching strategies and technology resources related to the following topics:

- Engaging Students
- Course Design
- Time Management
- Technology/Apps and Tips

Addie Martindale, Ph.D. is an Assistant Professor in the School of Human Ecology teaching Fashion Merchandising and Apparel Design classes. Her research focuses on apparel design and merchandising pedagogy, the motivations and consumption practices of nontraditional apparel consumers, and sustainable design.

Monday, March 25 from 7:30-8 pm (Online)

Connect from your office or phone remotely to learn about tips, tricks, and tools of teaching offered by a panel of your colleagues.

Web Accessibility Workshop - Online

This self-paced, fully online workshop covers methods to help you meet Americans with Disabilities Act standards by making online course documents and files accessible to learners with disabilities.

Participants may complete the activities at any time while the workshop is open. Participants can expect to spend four to six hours to complete the workshop. Certificates of Completion are awarded to faculty who complete the workshop successfully.

The workshop is open from March 25 to April 15. Online seats are limited to 12 participants.

Faculty Writers Boot Camp

Extended writer's boot camps offer faculty a way to get in extensive writing time without sacrificing their entire break. By attending the boot camp all day every day for four straight days, you get a lot of writing done. Participants work in timed 75-minute sessions on their writing and research.

Please note: this is not a writing workshop. You will not receive instruction on how to improve your writing. You will have the opportunity to focus on getting your writing done.
