"COVERS DIXIE LIKE THE DEW"

ATLANTA, GEORGIA
August 12, 1950.

Dear Mother Dyar:

We missed you so much from the Press meeting, and we appreciated your sweet letter. I hope the Journal-Constitution party yesterday was a good one; our guests seemed to enjoy it. But it wasn't right for you to be absent.

Ellen and Billy, our 10-year-old son, are in Michigan. The girls and I are leaving today to join them for a two-week vacation.

Affectionately yours,

Wright
