DEDICATION...

Class Sponsor—Chairman, Division of Languages—conjugation of English verbs—that indefinite black "Chevy"—those wonderful and unforgettable stories of childhood with fourteen brothers and sisters—All of these reflections will not vanish from our minds; but because he has won the admiration and respect of each student, the Senior Class of 1950 dedicates this Reflector to Dr. Fielding Dillard Russell.

Jack W. Brady

Mason C. Clements
Ray City, Georgia

John L. Kelly
Savannah, Georgia

Those chosen for Who's Who among students in American Universities and Colleges are: Jack W. Brady, Mason C. Clements, John L. Kelly, Douglas Moore, Bobby Quick, Lola Robbins, Martha Tootle, and Alvin Williams.

Each year a selected number are chosen by a committee made up of the faculty and members of the junior and senior classes. This honor bestowed upon these outstanding students is comparable to the Rhodes Scholarship and Phi Beta Kappa.

They were chosen above other students for their outstanding work in leadership, extra-curricula activities, scholarship, and whole hearted devotion to their school and fellow students.

With such a standard as this set up each student may aim toward his own goals with Who's who heading the list for those with the initiative to reach it.

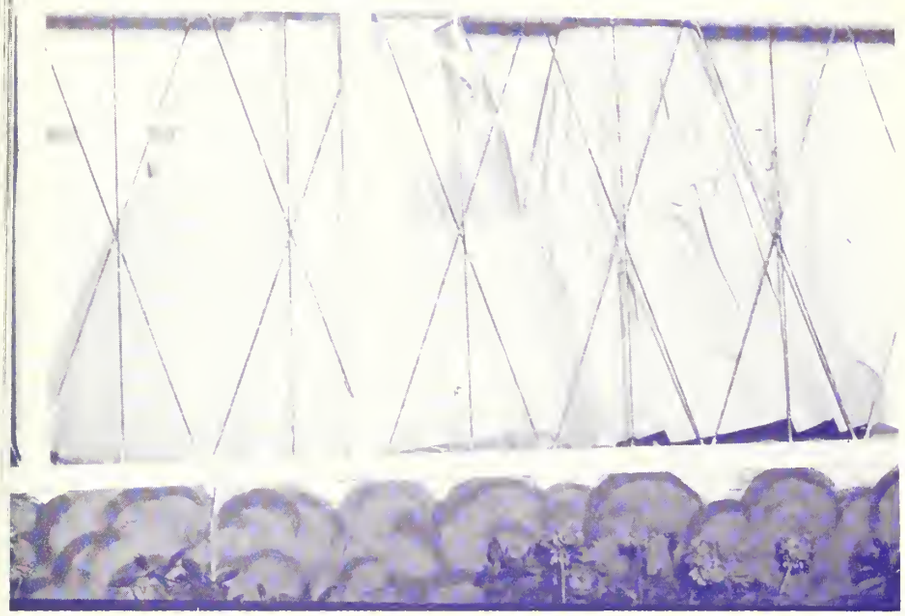
The 1950 BEAUTY REVIEW



4TH ANNUAL BEAUTY REVIEW

Lonadine Morgan from Egypt, Georgia, was crowned "Miss T. C. of 1950" at the fourth annual Beauty Review held in an overflowing auditorium. Sponsored by East Hall and escorted by Keith Clements, Lonadine reached the finals with a natural beauty and winning smile, her poise that of a champion.

The four other finalists featured here in the Beauty section with Lonadine are Dot Holloway, Bettye Lewis, Joan Harper, and Caroline Smith.

The Beauty Review was originated by and has been directed by Mr. Jack N. Averitt, for the past four years. The Art Club under the direction of Miss Freda Gernant was in charge of the decorations, which featured this year an old southern mansion. George Parrish gave the intermission entertainment, with his interpretations of Al Jolson, and Mr. Jack Broucek provided the music for the entire program. Mr. John L. Kelly acted as the master of ceremonies for the evening.
