Signs to change on Armstrong and Liberty campus

Students and faculty on the newly consolidated Armstrong and Liberty campuses can expect to see their light pole banners and monument signs replaced with Georgia Southern University signage by the end of the Spring 2018 semester. All campuses can expect updates to interior signage for departments, offices and job titles as final locations are determined. Full Story.

RAC to host mock NFL combine for students

The RAC will host their seventh annual CRI Combine Tuesday where Georgia Southern University students will participate in the same drills performed at the annual NFL Scouting Combine. The combine will consist of events such as the vertical jump, broad jump, the pro-agility drill, the L-drill and the 40-yard dash, giving participants a feeling of what it's like to compete in the NFL Combine.
