GEORGIA SOUTHERN CHORALE FUNDRAISER
Georgia Southern Chorale is asking for alumni, parents, and friends to help support student travel to our competition in Europe, 2019. Our hope is that with your support all 32 talented student musicians will be able to travel across Austria and Germany this upcoming May and June, ultimately bringing home a big victory for the Eagles!

With your help, we can reach our goal of raising $5,000 through our crowdfunding site. Every dollar will help us reach our goal and your support is greatly appreciated!

Southern Saxophones' fall studio recital on Saturday 3 November is presented in celebration of National French Week. The program will include transcriptions of works by composers Georges Bizet and Paul Dukas, music by contemporary French composers, and an arrangement of music from Les Misérables for saxophone choir. The concert will feature soloists, the Southern Quartet, and Southern Saxophones. The concert is at 5:00 pm in the Carol A. Carter Recital Hall; admission is free.
On November 5, Dr. David Murray will present a faculty recital in the Carol A. Carter Recital Hall on the Statesboro campus of Georgia Southern University. The program will consist of works by Joseph Haydn, Alexander Borodin, a set of preludes and etudes by Claude Debussy, and the final piano sonata composed by Ludwig van Beethoven. This recital is free and open to the public.

On November 11, ELEMENTS: Georgia Southern University Symphonic Wind Ensemble & Wind Symphony will take place at the Performing Arts Center. The event is open to the public and will feature works by composers Giroux, McAllister, Grainger, Holsinger, Respighi, Wilson, and Galante.
The Georgia Southern University Percussion Ensemble will perform a concert on Wednesday, November 14, in the Carol A. Carter Recital Hall, located in the Foy Music Building on the GS Statesboro campus. The ensemble has been working hard this semester to present what promises to be a wonderful program! Whether you’re partial to drums, mallet percussion, or the combination of both, there’s bound to be something for everyone on this concert. A wide variety of literature will be performed, including selections by David Skidmore, Jared Spears, James Romig, and Ney Rosauro, as well as a marimba transcription of the classic orchestral work, Farandole. Admission is free and open to the public!
On Thursday, November 15 at 7:30 PM, the Georgia Southern University Jazz Ensemble will present the final concert of the fall semester in the Performing Arts Center. The Jazz Ensemble will perform works from jazz greats such as Thad Jones, Miles Davis, Chick Corea, Bill Watrous, Sammy Nestico, Jeff Jarvis, and Stan Kenton.

Additionally, the Jazz Ensemble will premiere new works by Philadelphia area jazz pianist, Eric Mintel, arranged exclusively for the ensemble by the Eric Mintel Quartet bass virtuoso, Jack Hegyi.

The concert is free and open to the public.
