Lady Pirates Look To Coach

Head Coach Roger Hodge, fresh from success as an assistant coach at perennial NCAA Division I Championship participant Liberty University, begins his first season at the helm of the Armstrong Atlantic State women’s basketball team in 2000-2001. Promising an upbeat tempo on offense and a pressure defense, Hodge has a mixture of talented returnees and newcomers ready to make the first year of this “New Era In Savannah” a successful one.

Last season, the Pirates finished 7-19, 4-12 in the Peach Belt Conference, tying for fifth in the PBC’s South Division. Enter Roger Hodge, a fresh new face on the women’s basketball head coaching scene, bringing a tradition of hard-nosed play and fundamentals to the Low Country, dedicated to the task of turning the Lady Pirate program into a consistent winner.

Six players return from last season’s squad that, despite the record, turned in some quality wins during the season, including the school’s first-ever win over Valdosta State, a 58-56, and an emotional 77-75 win over Columbus State - the last loss CSU would experience until getting knocked out in the Elite Eight.

The player who hit the winning shot over CSU last season - point guard Lexie Martin (5-7, Jr., Youngsville, La.) - returns to anchor an experienced backcourt for coach Hodge and make the transition easier. Martin was the second-leading scorer for the Pirates last season, averaging 11.0 points per game, and at 75.2 percent, is the Lady Pirates’ all-time leading free throw shooter. A two-year starter for the Lady Pirates at point guard, Martin can be used at both guard spots and will be a fixture in the starting lineup in this, her third season for the Pirates.

Also returning in the backcourt for AASU are Shawnte Craig (5-5, Soph., Hinesville, Ga.) and Kristin Brewer (5-6, Soph., Lumber City, Ga.). The duo of sophomores turned in solid freshman campaigns for AASU as Craig finished second on the squad in assists (73) and Brewer averaged 7.9 points and 6.3 rebounds over the Lady Pirates’ last 11 games in 1999-2000. Craig will see time at point guard this season while Brewer will alternate from two-guard and small forward.

Coach Hodge also welcomes back another guard for the Lady Pirates this year as all-time AASU three-point leader Michelle Hubbard (5-6, Sr., Beaufort, S.C.) returns after a two-year absence from the team for her senior season. Hubbard, who has connected on 145 three-pointers and dished out 355 assists in her career, will compete for a starting spot at the two guard but could also see time at the point during the season.

The frontcourt returns two players from last season - Lori Green (6-1, Jr., Richmond Hill, Ga.) and Melissa Germany (5-9, Jr., Macon, Ga.). Green averaged 4.6 points and 4.0 rebounds for the Lady Pirates as a sophomore and should see plenty of time at the power forward position this season for coach Hodge. Germany, who excelled at both guard and forward last season, suffered an injury in the preseason and will be out for most of the 2000-2001 campaign.

Eight newcomers from across the country sail into
Hodge For Success In New Era

Savannah with coach Hodge this season to add considerable talent and depth to the Lady Pirates.

Chief among the newcomers are two transfers from NCAA Division I programs - Zandrique Cason (6-0, Soph., Tempe, Ariz.) and Catherine Compton (6-1, Jr., Lexington, S.C.). Cason starred for NCAA Tournament participant Liberty University as a freshman last season, averaging 6.9 points and 4.6 rebounds per game for the Lady Flames. Compton was an ACC Academic Honor Roll honoree for the Lady Tigers, who captured an ACC Championship in 1998-99. Cason will most likely begin the season playing center for the Lady Pirates, while Compton will see time at power forward.

Two junior college transfers join the Lady Pirates this season, guard/forward Marloes Renskers (5-7, Soph., Enschede, The Netherlands) and forward Becky Thrift (6-0, Soph., Rincon, Ga.). Renskers comes from the College of Southern Idaho and should see time at the small forward spot this season for the Lady Pirates, while Thrift, a hard-nosed rebounder from Middle Georgia College, will see action at both forward spots.

Four freshmen round out the newcomers for the Lady Pirates. Guard Nicole Joffrion (5-9, Fr., Otsego, Mich.) is a pure long-distance threat who will work into the mix at shooting guard. Guard Melissa Brooks (5-7, Fr., Savannah, Ga.) is a local product who earned All-City honors while at Calvary Baptist HS in Savannah. Forward Dawn Baldwin (5-11, Fr., Jonesboro, Ga.) comes from the highly touted Atlanta prep scene and will be counted on to provide quality minutes at power forward for the Lady Pirates, and center Rachel Baker (6-3, Fr., Santa Rosa Beach, Fla.) is the tallest women’s basketball player at Armstrong in the past five years, since Mary Ann Merritt manned the middle for AASU in 1995-96.

Following the Classic, AASU returns the favor for Catawba by traveling to the Catawba/All Sports Classic on Fri., Nov. 24 and Sat., Nov. 25. AASU will face Catawba and Livingstone during the tournament.

AASU then has home-and-away dates with Spelman College out of Atlanta before opening up its Peach Belt Conference schedule with 1999-2000 PBC champion Kennesaw State on Dec. 9.

Crosstown rival Savannah State comes calling on Dec. 12, then the Lady Pirates entertain Lenoir-Rhyne on Dec. 15 and Gardner-Webb on Dec. 30 before the start of the new year. A Jan. 8 matchup with Nova Southeastern wraps up the Lady Pirates’ challenging non-conference schedule for 2000-2001.

The Pirates’ conference schedule, always challenging, features four teams who advanced to the NCAA Division II Championships last season - Kennesaw State, Lander, Columbus State and Francis Marion. AASU hosts USC Aiken on Sat., Feb. 10 for homecoming, always an exciting time on campus at Armstrong Atlantic State.

Expectations around the league are calling for another tightly-contested race for the conference title, and the Lady Pirates, despite their youth and unfamiliarity, feel they can be in the mix for a berth in the Peach Belt Conference championships in Greenwood, S.C., on Feb. 28 to March 3. Coach Hodge and the Pirates are excited about beginning a new era in Armstrong Atlantic State women’s basketball!
Roger Hodge

Head Women’s Basketball Coach

Roger Hodge begins his first season at the helm of the Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball program in 2000-2001, coming to Savannah after a successful stint as an assistant coach for perennial NCAA Tournament participant Liberty University.

Hodge succeeds Lynn Jarrett, who led the Lady Pirate basketball program for four seasons. Hodge becomes the sixth AASU women's basketball coach in the program's history.

Entering the collegiate coaching ranks in 1997 with Liberty University, Hodge assisted Lady Flames head coach Rick Reeves on two Big South Conference championship squads in 1997-98 and 1998-99 and last year assisted head coach Carey Green. Liberty finished the 1999-2000 season with a 23-8 overall record and a 12-2 mark in the Big South, capturing the conference tournament for the fourth straight season and advancing to the NCAA Women's Basketball National Championships.

Prior to Liberty, Hodge was an assistant coach at Mercer Christian Academy in Princeton, W. Va., and helped lead the school to the 1996 Class A state championship. Hodge also assisted at Summers County High School from 1987-1994 and 1997, while the school captured three West Virginia Class AA State Championships in 1988, 1992 and 1994. Hodge also directed the Southern West Virginia AAU team that finished runner-up in the AAU National Championships in 1990 and finished second in the state of West Virginia in 1990 and 1992.

A graduate of Concord College in Athens, W.Va., Hodge received a bachelor of arts degree in 1992. He also received a bachelor's of science degree in education with a concentration in business principles in 1997. Hodge and his wife, Kristen, recently celebrated the birth of their first child, Madison.

Since its founding in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University has continued to develop to meet the Savannah community’s educational needs. From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 250-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the Southeastern United States.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-year unit of the University System.

The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to its present 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university’s reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

AASU was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 1992.

The university offers over seventy-five academic programs and majors in its School of Arts and Sciences, School of Health Professions and School of Education.

The academic community includes approximately 5,600 students and more than 250 faculty members. Enrollment has more than doubled in the last decade, from 2,740 students in 1987 to its current number.

Across campus, evidence of the university’s growth can be found in its facilities. A Fine Arts Center, including a 1,000 seat theatre/auditorium, the Health Professions Building and an academic computing center are recent completed buildings, along with 84,400 square foot University Hall, built to make room for a student population of 8,000. A new 115,000 square foot, $28 million dollar science building is currently under construction on campus as well.

The athletic department of Armstrong Atlantic State University is housed in the Armstrong Sports Center, completed in 1995. The Sports Center includes offices for the physical education department, training room and weight room areas, basketball courts, indoor track and offices for coaches and athletic department personnel. The building played host to the Peach Belt Conference’s basketball tournament in 1998 and 1999. AASU sponsors nine intercollegiate sports and is a charter member of the Peach Belt Conference, formed in 1991.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and non-traditional students. Sixty percent of AASU’s student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation - all have come to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

Media Credentials

Media credentials for photo and press are not needed, however seating on press row is limited. Requests for press row seating must be made in advance to Director of Sports Communications Chad Jackson via fax, email or phone at least two (2) days prior to each contest.

Radio Broadcasts

Opposing teams wishing to broadcast from Alumni Arena at the Armstrong Sports Center are welcome, however lines are limited. If you are planning on broadcasting an upcoming game, please contact Chad Jackson at least two (2) days prior to your contest.

Pre-Game Interviews

Requests for interviews with Armstrong Atlantic State players and coaches should be directed to Director of Sports Communications Chad Jackson. Arrangements will be made for players to call media members if a phone interview is requested - it is the AASU Athletic Department policy not to publicize student-athlete’s home phone numbers.

Game Services

The Office of Sports Communications staff will furnish media representatives with game programs, pregame notes and statistics, in addition to halftime and final game statistics and play-by-play.

Press Area

The designated press area for Alumni Arena at the Armstrong Sports Center are on either side of the court. Seats are marked prior to each game and we ask that members of the media adhere to seating arrangements during the contest. Photo areas are at the baseline of either basket, but not directly behind the basket. The balconies above each basket are also accessible for photographers - an elevator is located at the southeast corner of the Sports Center.

Two press row phone lines are available for media members wishing to file from courtside. The numbers are (912) 921-5572 and (912) 921-5473. One phone will be provided on the officials’ side of the court for each contest.

Post-Game Interviews

The Armstrong Atlantic State women’s basketball locker rooms are closed to the media. Head coach Roger Hodge and requested players will be brought out to those needing interviews following a 10-minute cooling off period.

The Peach Belt Conference concludes its first decade of competition this season as the 2000-2001 athletic year marks its 10th year of existence.

In its short history, the league has established itself as one of the premiere Division II conferences in the country.

The 1999-2000 season was no exception with Lander University bringing home its eighth consecutive NCAA Division II men’s tennis national championship and Kennesaw State University advancing to the NCAA Division II softball finals. Peach Belt schools have now won 19 national championships and finished second 13 times in the past five years.

The seven charter members were Armstrong State College, Columbus College, Francis Marion College, Georgia College, Lander College, The University of South Carolina at Aiken, and The University of South Carolina at Spartanburg. The name Peach Belt Athletic Conference was adopted in January, 1990, then modified in the summer of 2000 with the dropping of the word ‘Athletic’ to its current name, the Peach Belt Conference.

Augusta College applied and was accepted in November, 1990, with the effective date of membership on July 1, 1991. Another college joined the Peach Belt on July 1, 1992, when Pembroke (N.C.) State University officially became a member. Kennesaw State University located in Marietta, GA, became the tenth full member of the conference on July 1, 1994. The league accepted its 11th member when Clayton State College, located in Morrow, GA, was accepted in June of 1995.

Armstrong Atlantic State has fared very well in the Peach Belt, capturing conference championships in baseball, men’s basketball, men’s and women’s tennis and last year adding its first-ever softball conference championship. Last season also saw four of the conference’s Players of the Year come from Armstrong Atlantic State: Kris Bringewatt (volleyball), Robert Campbell (men’s basketball), Stephanie Kovacic (women’s tennis) and Annie Sells (softball).

Former Augusta College basketball coach and athletic director Marvin Vanover was named the interim commissioner in April, 1990, and served in that capacity until his appointment as the conference’s first full-time commissioner in July, 1991. The conference has established an office in Augusta, GA, which houses the commissioner and his staff.

Terralyn Edwards

The 1981-82 Georgia Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (GAIAW) Player of the Year, Terralyn Edwards was one of the most talented women’s basketball players ever to put on an Armstrong uniform.

As a freshman in 1979-80, Edwards averaged 24.4 points per game, still the single-season standard for AASU women’s basketball. Although injuries limited her to just three games the following year, her junior season saw the standout score 653 points and lead the Lady Pirates to their finest season ever, a 20-12 record and a berth in the AIAW Region III Tournament. Even though injuries hampered her again in her senior season, limiting her to just one game, Edwards’ lasting impression on the AASU program was complete.

The first AASU player to score 1,000 career points, Edwards finished her career with 1,275 points, second-most all-time. Her scoring average of 22.0 points per game is third best and she is still the AASU all-time leader in free throws made (361).

In 1995, Edwards, along with her head coach, B.J. Ford, were inducted into the Armstrong Atlantic State Athletics Hall of Fame in the inaugural class.

Historic Savannah, Georgia, is located on the Atlantic Coast, at the confluence of the Savannah River and the Atlantic Ocean. Throughout its history, there has been one adjective consistently used to describe Savannah: beautiful.

The reason? There’s something about the unique beauty of Savannah that cannot be forgotten. Streets with canopies of moss-laden trees are honored venues for scores of historic homes. The town squares that Savannah’s founding father, James Oglethorpe, laid out as public meeting places are now treasured “pocket parks” located throughout the downtown area.

A renovated waterfront area serves as the hub for shopping and entertainment. Nearby sandy beaches draw streams of visitors with persistent cool breezes and the endless lure of the rolling sea. Finally, there’s an indescribable - but readily discernible - feeling in the air that pervades Savannah, a kind of “laid back” approach to the world, a “rootedness” that makes living or working in Savannah an experience second to none.

By way of affirmation, Le Monde, the leading French newspaper, called Savannah “the most beautiful city in North America.”

Savannah has recently captured the imagination of a nation through its history and its appearance in several feature films including “Glory,” “Forrest Gump,” “Something to Talk About,” “Midnight In The Garden of Good and Evil” and the upcoming fall film “The Legend of Bagger Vance” starring Will Smith and Matt Damon. Also, Savannah hosted the yachting events of the 1996 Summer Olympics. As a result, tourism has become one of the leading industries of the city.

Savannah hosts over six million tourists each year. Tourism impacts the Savannah area by over $634 million. The city boasts over 7,000 rooms and more than 100 restaurants as folks have learned that Savannah is more than just a convenient rest stop on the interstate to Florida.

The climate of Savannah features warm, and sometimes hot, weather for most of the year. There are seven months in which the average temperature is 70 degrees or higher. The lowest average high is in January at 60.3 degrees.

The population in Savannah is roughly 130,000 and Chatham County is the fifth most populous county in the state of Georgia.

Savannah also sits centrally located to some of the southeast’s finest beaches. Tybee Island, located less than 30 minutes from Armstrong Atlantic State’s campus, offers six miles of unspoiled sands, tempting seafood and gracious accommodations. Resort areas such as Hilton Head, South Carolina, are less than one hour away and provide even more relaxing getaway options.

Whether it’s the lure of historical settings, the friendliness of a southern community or the beautiful climate of southeast Georgia, Savannah is the place for you.
