Eagles hope to put last weekend behind them as Fairfield comes to town

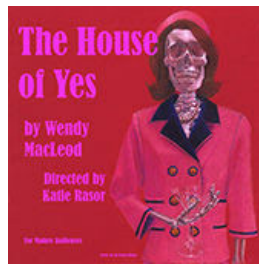

Beginning Friday afternoon, Georgia Southern's baseball team will take on Fairfield University for their first home series of the season. So far this season, the Eagles are 1-3, having dropped their game with Georgia Tech and their series opener at the University of Georgia with a hard-fought, walk-off loss in the 9th inning of their third game. For Fairfield, Friday will be their first game and the beginning of the first series of their season. Full Story.

Softball steps up to the plate against Power 5 powerhouses

Showing an impressive season so far of 7-2, the Eagles look to further improve their record this coming weekend at the University of Florida Aquafina Invitational. Full Story.

"The House of Yes" put on by the theatre department

The Georgia Southern University theatre department is putting on "The House of Yes," which follows the story of a college student who brings his new fiancée home to his dysfunctional family during a Thanksgiving hurricane, until Feb. 28 in the black box theater in the Center for Art and Theatre. Full Story.

Eagles fall in first game of Texas road trip

The Georgia Southern Men's Basketball team dropped a road contest against conference foe UT-Arlington on Thursday by 20 points. The loss closes the gap between the Eagles and the Mavericks for third place in conference standings to just one game.

While going into halftime trailing by just 4, the Eagles just could not seem to get anything going for them in the second half, where they shot an abysmal 12-42 from the floor. Full Story.
