'B.F.A. Senior Exhibition' Opens at Center for Art & Theatre in May

April 21, 2017

STATESBORO, Ga. –The Georgia Southern University Betty Foy Sanders Department of Art presents the “B.F.A. Senior Exhibition” May 1 – 8 in the University and Contemporary Galleries at the Center for Art and Theatre. The reception is May 5 from 5 – 7 p.m. Light refreshments will be served, and the public is invited to attend.

“The B.F.A. Senior Exhibition is the premier opportunity for graduating students to present the culmination of their fine art studies by exhibiting works that embody their personal aesthetic directions. This exhibition promises to be varied and dynamic as is each student,” said Professor Marc Moulton. “It is my pleasure to be involved with these talented students as they launch into the professional world.”

“This is one of my favorite exhibitions each year,” said Gallery Director Jason Hoelscher. “As practicing artists, one of the goals is to show one’s work, to share it with the world. This exhibition is exciting because it’s typically when our BFA students step up and start showing at a pro-level, and it’s great to see what this inspires them to do.”

This exhibition features work from senior Bachelor of Fine Art, 2D and 3D Studio Art majors enrolled in the BFA Portfolio course taught by Moulton. Students featured are Xed Blankenship, Chloe Coulibaly, Anna Currence, Eleanor Ferrara, Kacheri Glover, Carter Jackson, Jennie Klabnik, Kimberly Page, Ray Pettit, Kasey Roberts, David Rostal, Madeline Shelor, Allyson Schuman, and MacKenzie Willard.

The College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences (CLASS) is the largest of the eight colleges that make up Georgia Southern University, and it plays a central role in every student’s core of knowledge. CLASS, also described as the University’s College of the Creative Mind, prepares students to achieve academic excellence, develop their analytical skills, enhance their creativity and embrace their responsibilities as citizens of their communities, their nations and the world. CLASS offers more than 20 undergraduate degrees and several interdisciplinary minors from its 11 departments and five academic centers. CLASS offers eight master’s degrees, two graduate certificates and one doctoral degree. For more information, visit cah.georgiasouthern.edu.

Georgia Southern University, a public Carnegie Doctoral/Research University founded in 1906, offers more than 125 degree programs serving more than 20,500 students. Through eight colleges, the University offers bachelors, masters and doctoral degree programs built on more than a century of academic achievement. Georgia Southern is recognized for its student-centered and hands-on approach to education. GeorgiaSouthern.edu.
