Message from the President

JANUARY 08, 2018

To the entire university community, I want to personally welcome you back from the holiday break! I hope your time away was both enjoyable and relaxing.

What an exciting year 2018 is already turning out to be. We've had snow in Southeast Georgia — an unexpected surprise! — and we're beginning a new chapter in our history as a University with three campuses in Savannah, Statesboro and Hinesville.

This new year will bring unprecedented opportunities as we grow together as a university community. I'm looking forward to working with you as we forge ahead into a bright future. I hope you will reach out to me personally at President@GeorgiaSouthern.edu and let me know how your semester is going.

Have a great spring term and a productive and successful new year.

Sincerely,

Jaimie Hebert

President
