After First PBC Title, Lady Pirate

When the Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball squad became the first No. 6 seed in Peach Belt Conference Tournament history - men's or women's - to reach the semifinals in 2001-02, little did the league know that it would be simply a small preview of what would be the finest women's basketball season in school history.

The upstart Lady Pirates smashed many school records en route to a 27-4 season in 2002-03, a PBC title, a PBC Tournament title and an NCAA championships berth, all firsts for the AASU women's basketball program.

The three-year climb to the top of the PBC was a hard one, but it pales in comparison to the task now ahead of the Lady Pirates - staying on top. No longer can AASU sneak up on schools and the bullseye of the preseason No. 1 pick in the conference and No. 10 national ranking from the Division II Bulletin will make sure that every other team will bring their "A" game into matchups with the Lady Pirates.

And despite the loss of a few key components, including 1,000-point scorer Zandrique Cason, the talented twins Shanetra and Shaletra Hodge and the PBC's Player of the Year, Tishay Lewis, AASU has several talented players returning, including three starters from last season's squad, and has brought in an exciting corps of newcomers charged with the task of helping the Pirates repeat as PBC Champions.

Heading the list of returnees is second-team All-PBC guard Tasha Washington (5-8, Sr., Phoenix. Ariz.). Washington averaged 13.6 points per game and also earned All-PBC Tournament honors for AASU. The sharpshooter led the squad in threepoint baskets with 49, and helped the Lady Pirates set a new school record in three-point shots made. The shooting guard will again be a major offensive threat this season.

Senior Tasha Washington earned second-team All-PBC honors in 2002-03, averaging 13.6 points per game and hitting 49 three-pointers.

Last year's starting small forward, senior Pam Mayes (5-8, Sr., Columbia, S.C.), also returns. Mayes averaged 4.9 points and 2.6 rebounds per game in her first season as a Lady Pirate after transferring from Hutchinson (Kan.) CC and brings a tenacious defense and quickness to the floor.

The third returning starter for the Lady Pirates is sophomore point guard Alicia Durham (5-6, Soph., Macon, Ga.). The Southwest HS product handled the pressure of starting at the point as a true freshman admirably, dishing out 56 assists while turning the ball over just 39 times, and averaged 3.9 points and 2.4 rebounds per game.

Replacing an All-America player like Tishay Lewis in the starting lineup would normally be a tough task, but senior forward Vandy Noldon (5-11, Sr., Wasco, Calif.) is ready to step up to the challenge. Noldon was the Lady Pirates' leading scorer off the bench in 2002-

(39.2%), the second-best three-point percentage in

03, averaging 5.9 points per game and draining 29-of-73 three-pointers (39.2%), the second-best three-point shooting percentage in the Peach Belt.

Fifth-year senior guard Marloes Renskers (5-7, Sr., Enschede, The Netherlands) received a medical redshirt for her first collegiate season and returns for her fourth as a Lady Pirate. Already the fifth all-time leader in assists at AASU, Renskers will see extensive action at both guard positions in 2003-04.

Junior guard Briana Milam (5-8, Jr., Wittmann, Ariz.) will also be in the mix at the point guard position after redshirting the 2002-03 season, and forward Aiste

Slenyte (5-11, Soph., Vilnius, Lithuania) - a January addition to the team last season - will see extended time this year as a backup to both forward positions.

Five newcomers join the Lady Pirates in 2003-04, including several from the Coastal Empire area, following on the success of players like Lewis and Anita Griffin, who returned home to play for AASU.

Mercer University transfer and former Savannah Morning News Coastal Empire Player of the Year Ramona Wright (6-0, Jr., Clyo, Ga.) will have the difficult task of replacing Cason as the Lady Pirates' starting center. Wright averaged 4.3 points and 2.6 rebounds in her two seasons at Mercer, but averaged 18 points and 10 rebounds a game as a senior at nearby Effingham County HS in 2000-01.

Another local standout staying home to play for AASU is freshman forward Kaneetha Gordon (5-10, Fr., Savannah, Ga.), a first-team Savannah Morning News All-Coastal Empire selection as a senior. Gordon led Liberty County HS to the Georgia state playoffs for the third straight year and was the region's leading scorer, averaging 20.2 points per game, earning honorable mention All-State honors.

A pair of Savannah area guards also join the Lady Pirates as freshmen. Meghan Jones (5-7, Fr., Savannah, Ga.) is a two-time Savannah Morning News All-Coastal Empire selection who averaged 18.4 points per game as a senior at Calvary Baptist HS. Sarah Brown (5-4, Fr., Richmond Hill, Ga.) earned third-team Savannah Morning News All-Coastal Empire area honors for Richmond Hill HS as a senior.

The final newcomer is forward/center Veronica Campbell (6-0, Jr. Sumner, Ill.), who averaged 11.9 points and 6.1 rebounds for Olney Central College.

The 2003-04 schedule includes 16 league games and several tough non-conference matchups, including opening the season against Charleston (W. Va.) and NCAA Regional participant Fayetteville State in the Chatham Orthopaedics Tip-Off Classic. AASU will also host NCAA participant Shaw and travel for games at Tusculum, Mars Hill and Barry.

Coming off of the school's first PBC crown, the Lady Pirates are picked to repeat as league champions, garnering nine of the 11 available first-place votes - further proof that, despite the rapid rise to prominence under head coach Roger Hodge, the Lady Pirates will continue to be one of the elite teams in the Peach Belt.

First-place votes in parenthesis.

Roger Hodge Head Women's Basketball Coach

Roger Hodge begins his fourth season at the helm of the Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball program after leading the Lady Pirates to their first-ever Peach Belt Conference title, tournament title and NCAA Championships berth. Hodge, who directed AASU to a school-record 27-4 record in 2002-03, was also named the Peach Belt Conference Coach of the Year for his efforts.

Hodge also directed NCAA Division II's best single-season turnaround last season, taking an 11-18 squad that had advanced to the PBC Tournament semifinals and improving on the record by an incredible 15 games. The Lady Pirates turned in their first-ever undefeated season at home, going 13-0, and enter the 2003-04 season with a 15-game home winning streak.

The sixth AASU women's basketball coach in school history, Hodge succeeded Lynn Jarrett in 2000-2001 and was hired from Division I Liberty University, where he served as an assistant on the highly successful Flames program.

Coach Hodge led the Lady Pirates to a 10-16 record in his first season - a three-win improvement over the previous season - and also registered the program's first win over a ranked team in over four years with a 75-72 win over No. 22 Francis Marion on January 3, 2001. In 2001-02, he directed the Lady Pirates to a Peach Belt Conference tournament semifinal appearance, becoming the first No. 6 seed in league tournament history to advance that far.

Hodge entered the collegiate coaching ranks in 1997 with Liberty University, Hodge assisted Lady Flames head coach Rick Reeves on two Big South Conference championship squads in 1997-98 and 1998-99 and assisted head coach Carey Green in 1999-2000 when Liberty compiled a 23-8 overall record and a 12-2 mark in the Big South, capturing the conference tournament for the fourth straight season and advancing to the NCAA Championships.

Prior to Liberty, Hodge was an assistant coach at Mercer Christian Academy in Princeton, W. Va., and helped lead the

A graduate of Concord College in Athens, W.Va., Hodge received a bachelor of arts degree in 1992. He also received a bachelor's of science degree in education with a concentration in business principles in 1997. Hodge and his wife, Kristen, have two daughters, Madison and Emma, and the family resides in Savannah.

As a player, she was named to the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference's all-freshman team in 1998-99.

Armstrong Atlantic State University

ince its founding in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University has continued to develop to meet the Savannah community's educational needs. From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 250-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the Southeastern United States.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-vear unit of the University System.

The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to its present 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university's reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 2001.

The university offers more than seventy-five academic programs and majors in its School of Arts and Sciences, School of Health Professions and School of Education.

The academic community includes approximately 6,000 students and more than 250 faculty members. Enrollment has more than doubled in the last 15 years, from 2,740 students in 1987 to its current number.

Across campus, evidence of the university's growth can be found in its facilities. Recently completed buildings include the Fine Arts Center, with a 1,000 seat theatre/auditorium, the Health Professions Building and an academic computing center, along with 84,400 square foot University Hall, built to make room for a student population of 8,000. A 115,000 square foot, $28 million dollar science building opened in 2002. This fall, the campus welcomes the second phase of Compass Point, an addition to the school's first dormitory buildings. Phase two provides an additional 300 beds to the already existing 275 beds from phase one and campus leaders are in talks for a planned phase three addition to Compass Point.

The athletic department of Armstrong Atlantic State University is housed in the Armstrong Sports Center, completed in 1995. The Sports Center includes offices for the physical education department, training room and weight room areas, basketball courts, indoor track and offices for coaches and athletic department personnel. The building played host to the Peach Belt Conference's basketball tournament in 1998 and 1999 and hosts several in-season tournaments each year.

AASU sponsors eight intercollegiate sports and is a charter member of the Peach Belt Conference, formed in 1991. The Pirates have not finished below fourth in the league's all-sports competition since joining the league and finished third in 2002-03, behind North Florida and Kennesaw State.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and non-traditional students. Sixty percent of AASU's student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation - to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

2002-03 Season Review

To call the Lady Pirates' 2003-04 season merely a successful one would be an understatement.

AASU easily experienced the best women's basketball season in the 26-year history of the program last year, accomplishing several firsts for the program and laying the groundwork for continued success at a high level, both within the Peach Belt Conference and on a national stage.

The Lady Pirates opened the season with 13 wins in their first 14 contests, including wins over nationally-ranked Rollins College, USC Aiken and Fort Valley State. After a two-game slide, AASU reeled off a school-record 14-game winning streak that culminated with AASU's first-ever Peach Belt Conference tournament title and first-ever berth in the NCAA DII championships.

The 15-game turnaround from an 11-18 season in 2001-02 to last year's 27-4 record was the best in the nation and ranked as one of the best single-season turnarounds in NCAA DII history. AASU also finished the season ranked No. 21 in the WBCA DII rankings, the first national ranking ever for an AASU women's hoops squad.

The Lady Pirates went a perfect 13-0 at home, the school's first-ever undefeated home season, and carries a 15-game home winning streak into 2003-04.

The 27 wins easily broke the school record for wins

Tishay Lewis hit the game-winning three-pointer with 6.3 seconds left to give AASU a 56-55 win over CSU in the PBC Championship game. Lewis was the PBC Player of the Year and PBC Tournament Most Valuable Player.

(21, set in 1984-85) and AASU also set marks for points scored, three-pointers made, free throws made, free throw percentage and average victory margin.

AASU finished the season ranked nationally six separate categories, including 11th in scoring margin (+15.8), 12th in winning percentage, 23rd in scoring defense (59.3 ppg) and 30th in scoring offense (75.1 ppg).

Two-time All-PBC honoree Zandrique Cason finished her AASU career with 1,212 points (4th all-time) and 774 rebounds (2nd all-time)

The list of accomplishments was not limited to just the team. Savannah native Tishay Lewis, whose three-pointer gave the Pirates the PBC Tournament Championship against Columbus State, was named the PBC's Player of the Year, the PBC Tournament MVP and became AASU's firstever DII All-America honoree, earning Kodak/ WBCA First-Team All-America honors. Lewis averaged a stellar 18.0 points and 8.3 rebounds per game and averaged an amazing 20.4 points per game in Peach Belt contests. She finished the year ranked 36th in NCAA DII in scoring and 37th in steals with 2.94 per game.

Senior Zandrique Cason

- the leading scorer in the previous two seasons for AASU - wrapped up her outstanding Lady Pirate career by averaging 10.7 points and 6.4 rebounds per game and finished as the Lady Pirates' all-time blocked shot leader (84), second all-time leading rebounder (774) and fourth all-time leading scorer (1,212).

Three other seniors - twins Shaletra and Shanetra Hodge and Anita Griffin - wrapped up their Pirate careers with a PBC title.

Head coach Roger Hodge, in his third season as the Lady Pirates' head coach, also earned honors for directing the AASU turnaround. Hodge was named the PBC Coach of the Year and was the WBCA's Region 3 Coach of the Year for Division II.

Although the Lady Pirates' season ended prematurely with an opening-round loss to eventual region champion North Florida in the NCAA tournament, AASU's first trip to the postseason and first PBC title should not be its last.

AASU returns three starters and seven regulars from last season's squad, including second-team All-PBC honoree Tasha Washington and the conference's second-leading three-point shooter in Vandy Noldon, and adds several talented area players, including Mercer transfer and former area high school Player of the Year Ramona Wright.

The Peach Belt Conference

ince its inception in 1991, the Peach Belt Conference has worked tirelessly to become one of the elite conferences in NCAA Division II. Now entering its 13th season with 18 national championships and 16 national finalists, the PBC has accomplished that goal.

Starting with only two championships in 1991, in men's and women's basketball, the conference has expanded to 12 championship sports with the addition of women's soccer in the fall of 2000.

The conference traces its roots back to November of 1988 when 11 schools first met in Greenville, S.C. to form a Division II conference. Following a second meeting on Dec. 3, 1989, five of those 11 schools, plus two others, formed the Peach Belt and begin play in 1991.

The Peach Belt was less than a year old before capturing a national champion-ship. The Columbus State golf team took the honor by winning the 1992 national crown, the first of three golf champion-ships the Cougars own.

The PBC has seen continued success in all sports with national rankings and multiple NCAA appearances in every sport last season, including a national championship for the Columbus State baseball team and a national championship finals appearance by the Armstrong Atlantic State women's tennis team.

The seven charter members of the conference were Armstrong Atlantic State University, Columbus State University, Francis Marion University, Georgia College & State University, Lander University, USC Aiken and USC Spartanburg. The name Peach Belt Athletic Conference was adopted in January of 1990 and modified to Peach Belt Conference in May of 2000.

Augusta State joined the conference in 1991 and UNC Pembroke became the ninth member on July 1, 1992. They were followed by Kennesaw State University on July 1, 1994, Clayton College & State University on July 1, 1995 and the University of North Florida on July 1, 1997, to bring the current membership to 12 institutions.

Former Augusta State basketball coach and athletic director Marvin Vanover was named the interim commissioner in April, 1990, and served in that capacity until his appointment as the conference's first full-time commissioner in July of 1991. He established the conference office in Augusta, Ga., which houses the commissioner and his staff.

Dr. Thomas Hallman, president of the University of South Carolina at Aiken, is the president of the Peach Belt in 2003-04.

The conference currently holds championships in 12 sports, six for men and six for women. They are men's and women's cross country, men's and women's soccer, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's tennis, baseball, softball and men's golf.

This Is Savannah

Historic Savannah, Georgia, is located on the Atlantic Coast, at the confluence of the Savannah River and the Atlantic Ocean. Throughout its history, there has been one adjective consistently used to describe Savannah: beautiful.

The reason? There's something about the unique beauty of Savannah that cannot be forgotten. Streets with canopies of mossladen trees are honored venues for scores of historic homes. The town squares that Savannah's founding father, James Oglethorpe, laid out as public meeting places are now treasured "pocket parks" located throughout the downtown area.

A renovated waterfront area serves as the hub for shopping and entertainment. Nearby sandy beaches draw streams of visitors with persistent cool breezes and the endless lure of the rolling sea. Finally, there's an indescribable - but readily discernible - feeling in the air that pervades Savannah, a kind of "laid back" approach to the world, a "rootedness" that makes living or working in Savannah an experience second to none.

By way of affirmation, Le Monde, the leading French newspaper, called Savannah "the most beautiful city in North America."

Savannah has recently captured the imagination of a nation through its history and its appearance in several feature films, including "Glory," "Forrest Gump," "Something to Talk About," "Midnight In The Garden of Good and Evil" and the 2000 hit film "The Legend of Bagger Vance" starring Will Smith and Matt

Damon. Also, Savannah hosted the yachting events of the 1996 Summer Olympics. As a result, tourism has become one of the leading industries in the area.

Savannah hosts over six million tourists each year. Tourism impacts the Savannah area by over $634 million. The city boasts over 7,000 rooms and more than 100 restaurants as folks have learned that Savannah is more than just a convenient rest stop on the interstate to Florida.

The climate of Savannah features warm, and sometimes hot, weather for most of the year. There are seven months in which the average temperature is 70 degrees or higher. The lowest average high is in January at 60.3 degrees.

The population in Savannah is roughly 130,000 and Chatham County is the fifth most populous county in the state of Georgia.

Savannah also sits centrally located to some of the southeast's finest beaches. Tybee Island, located less than 30 minutes from Armstrong Atlantic State's campus, offers six miles of unspoiled sands, tempting seafood and gracious accommodations. Resort areas such as Hilton Head, South Carolina, are less than one hour away and provide even more relaxing getaway options.

Whether it's the lure of historical settings, the friendliness of a southern community or the beautiful climate of southeast Georgia, Savannah is the place for you.

The Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball team enjoys a walk on the beach at Tybee Island. Just minutes away from downtown Savannah, Tybee Island is a popular attraction for Savannah natives and tourists alike, adding to the six million visitors that experience the Coastal Empire area each year.
