The 2003 AASU volleyball squad poses on top of Fort Pulaski, an important historic National Monument in Georgia and the Savannah area. Union troops successfully captured Fort Pulaski in 1862 using an experimental new cannon. After capturing the fort, Major General David Hunter ordered the immediate release of area slaves, many of whom were recruited into the Union army, comprising the First South Carolina Colored Regiment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University

ince its founding in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University has continued to develop to meet the Savannah community's educational needs. From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 250-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the Southeastern United States.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-year unit of the University System.

The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to its present 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university's reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 2001.

The university offers more than seventy-five academic programs and majors in its School of Arts and Sciences, School of Health Professions and School of Education.

The academic community includes approximately 6,000 students and more than 250 faculty members. Enrollment has more than doubled in the last 15 years, from 2,740 students in 1987 to its current number.

Across campus, evidence of the university's growth can be found in its facilities. Recently completed buildings include the Fine Arts Center, with a 1,000 seat theatre/auditorium, the Health Professions Building and an academic computing center, along with 84,400 square foot University Hall, built to make room for a student population of 8,000. A 115,000 square foot, $28 million dollar science building opened in 2002. This fall, the campus welcomes the second phase of Compass Point, an addition to the school's first dormitory buildings. Phase two provides an additional 300 beds to the already existing 275 beds from phase one and campus leaders are in talks for a planned phase three addition to Compass Point.

The athletic department of Armstrong Atlantic State University is housed in the Armstrong Sports Center, completed in 1995. The Sports Center includes offices for the physical education department, training room and weight room areas, basketball courts, indoor track and offices for coaches and athletic department personnel. The building played host to the Peach Belt Conference's basketball tournament in 1998 and 1999 and hosts several in-season tournaments each year.

AASU sponsors eight intercollegiate sports and is a charter member of the Peach Belt Conference, formed in 1991. The Pirates have not finished below fourth in the league's all-sports competition since joining the league and finished third in 2002-03, behind North Florida and Kennesaw State.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and non-traditional students. Sixty percent of AASU's student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

Dr. Thomas Z. Jones University President

Thomas Z. Jones, the sixth president to serve at Armstrong Atlantic State University, begins his third year at AASU. Hired on August 1, 2000, Jones was selected by the Board of Regents and University System of Georgia Chancellor Stephen R. Portch after an exhaustive national search.

Dr. Jones served on the faculty and administration at Columbus State University, as its vice president for academic affairs from 1988-2000, prior to coming to Armstrong Atlantic State. A 30-year veteran of university teaching and administration, Dr. Jones has taught at Indiana State University, Emory and Henry College and the West Virginia Institute of Technology. While at West Virginia Tech, Dr. Jones served as the Westmoreland Professor of Mining, an endowed professorship, and vice president of academic affairs.

Dr. Jones received his bachelor's degree in physics from Fairmont State College, his master of arts degree in geology from West Virginia University and his Ph.D in Geology from Miami (Ohio) University.

Dr. Jones and his wife, Joyce, have two sons, Matthew and Michael.

Dr. Eddie Aenchbacher Athletic Director

Dr. Eddie Aenchbacher begins his eighth full year as the athletic director for Armstrong Atlantic State University.

Dr. Aenchbacher's responsibilities include overseeing the entire athletic department and promoting Armstrong Atlantic State athletics in the community of Savannah.

Dr. Aenchbacher received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Armstrong Atlantic State in 1979, where he was a standout student-athlete for the baseball team as a pitcher. He received his Master's degree and Doctorate of Education from the University of Georgia.

Along with his student-athlete experience at AASU, Dr. Aenchbacher also coached the Pirate cross country teams for five years and started the first AASU men's soccer team, which he coached for seven years.

During Dr. Aenchbacher's tenure as athletic director, AASU's athletic programs have had tremendous success in the classroom and on the playing field. Student-athletes at AASU have excelled in academics with 48 percent earning a 3.0 grade point average or better. The overall grade point average of AASU student-athletes is 2.87, higher than the overall institutional GPA. In 2002-03, the AASU athletic department sent seven of eight teams to the NCAA DII Championships, the best ratio in the nation. The Pirates also collected the third-most points per sport sponsored in the annual NACDA Director's Cup competition, which tracks the performance of Division II schools in all sports. AASU accumulated its most Director's Cup points ever (297) and averaged 37.1 points per sport, behind only Grand Valley State (MI) and BYU-Hawaii.

Dr. Aenchbacher has been married for 12 years to Michele and together they are the proud parents of two children, Jesse and Lainey.

Alan Segal Head Volleyball Coach

Alan Segal begins his fifth season as head coach of the Armstrong Atlantic State University volleyball squad after leading the Pirates to a Peach Belt Conference tournament title and an automatic bid to the NCAA Championships, both program firsts. The Pirates have now made three straight trips to the NCAA postseason in his four years at Armstrong Atlantic State.

The 1999 and 2000 Peach Belt Conference Coach of the Year, Segal led the Pirates to 30 victories in 2003, just the second time in school history that an AASU squad has won 30 or more matches in one season. The Pirates defeated No. 1-seed North Florida, 3-0, to win the school's first-ever conference tournament title in four tries and earn an automatic bid to the NCAA Championships. For the second straight year, three AASU players - seniors Sarah Haynes, Erin Melius and Sofie Hakansson - earned All-PBC and All-AVCA honors and together the four-year seniors helped put AASU volleyball on the map.

In four seasons, Segal has compiled a 124-35 overall record at AASU and has a 164-67 overall head coaching record in six seasons.

Segal's second season at AASU saw the Pirates achieve their first AVCA Division II national ranking (No. 24) and advance to their first NCAA Division II National Championship appearance. AASU won its first post-season match, 3-1 over USC Spartanburg, and also had one of its players earn AVCA All-Region honors for the first time in school history in middle hitter Sarah Haynes.

The Pirates matched their 29-10 record in Segal's third season and made their second-straight trip to the NCAAs.

Prior to joining the AASU coaching ranks, Segal coached for two years at Michigan Tech, where he led the Huskies to a 40-32 record over two seasons and a No. 23 national ranking at the end of the 1997 season. Before his inaugural collegiate head coaching position, Segal was an assistant coach at Florida Southern College from 1994-96, where the Mocs advanced to NCAA Tournament play two of three seasons.

Segal has also accumulated coaching experience as head girls' volleyball coach at Agoura High School (1989-92), where he led the team to the Division 3A finals in the California Interscholastic Federation in 1989; assistant men's coach for Pierce Junior College in Woodland Hills, Calif. (1989-91); assistant women's coach at Western Illinois University in Macomb, Ill. (1988-89); assistant women's coach at Delta Junior College in Stockton, Calif. (1983-84); assistant women's coach at Cosummes River College in Sacramento, Calif. (1982); and assistant girls' coach at Cordova High School in Rancho Cordova, Calif. (1980).

Segal is a 1982 graduate of California State University at Sacramento, where he earned a bachelor of science degree in recreation administration. An active member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, Segal is on the 40-member coaches panel that determines the AVCA Division II Top 25 each week.

Segal is also a veteran volleyball official. He officiated the National Junior College Championships in both 1994 and 1995 and for the past ten years has been one of the top-rated officials on the AVP Professional Beach Tour.

Born March 16, 1959, Segal is single and resides in Savannah, Ga.

AASU Assistant Coach Jen Michael

Jen Michael Assistant Volleyball Coach

Former Francis Marion University standout setter Jen Michael enters her second season as the Pirates' assistant volleyball coach.

A four-year letterwinner for Francis Marion, Michael also competed for the Patriot track and field and cross country squads. The 2000 team MVP, Michael was a member of the 1998 Patriot squad (27-6 record) that won the PBC Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Division II national tournament. During her four-year career, she appeared in 120 matches (394 games) and recorded 228 kills, 985 assists, 135 service aces, and 880 digs. As a senior, she ranked sixth in the PBC in assists per game and 10th in service aces per game.

Michael earned her bachelor's degree in mathematics in May of 2002 and graduated magna cum laude. She received the Secondary Education Award at the university's 2002 Academic Awards Day program. AASU Volleyball Live On The Web!

The Armstrong Atlantic State athletic department will continue to bring home all of the exciting volleyball action in 2003 right to your computer as the Pirates stream live audio and video of all 12 home matches over the Internet.

Fans will be able to catch all of the action from the official Website of AASU Athletics, www.athletics.armstrong.edu, using the power of Windows Media Player.

AASU debuted its Internet broadcasting system in 2001 with incredible success as every home men's and women's basketball game, volleyball match, the majority of the Pirates' baseball and softball games and the NCAA Mid-Atlantic Women's Tennis Regional were available last season.

For more information about the AASU Web broadcast, visit the AASU Athletics Web Site or contact Director of Sports Communications Chad Jackson at jacksoch@mail.armstrong.edu

Peach Belt Conference Tournament Champion Pirates Have Eye On Another League Crown In 2003

The Armstrong Atlantic State volleyball squad embarks on a new era in 2003. The departure of five seniors, including three of the most-decorated players in Pirate volleyball history - Sarah Haynes, Sofie Hakansson and Erin Melius - brings head coach Alan Segal full-circle from his first year in Savannah five years ago.

That season, Segal relied on a core group of juniors and eight freshman to lead AASU to the most victories in school history, a 36-5 record and the beginning of a successful volleyball tradition where there was none. Five years later, Segal again finds himself relying on four returning juniors and an incoming recruiting class of eight players to help defend the Pirates' Peach Belt Conference tournament crown.

Unlike 1999, though, the returning juniors on Segal's roster have plenty of experience

Alexia Piche-Hatch earned PBC
Tournament MVP honors in 2002, collecting 48 kills in three games, hitting .317.

in Peach Belt Conference play. Junior outside hitters Alexia Piche-Hatch, the PBC Tournament MVP in 2002, and Ashley Lavender combined for 410 kills last season and have each played in 65 career matches for the Pirates. The duo will lead a talented group of outside hitters that also includes returning sophomore Cindy Haynes, junior college transfer Jessica Lilly (Altamont, Ill. / Rend Lake College) and freshmen Christina Flores (Addison, Ill. / Addison HS), Caitlin Smyth (Mechanicsville, Ill. / Atlee HS) and Carlyn Dickerson (Athens, Ga. / Clarke Central HS). Junior middle hitter Candice Modlinski returns as the team's leading hitter in 2002, as the Illinois native hit .301 with 265 kills last season. She will be joined by a pair of freshman in the middle in 2003 - Traci Knuth (Columbus, Neb. / Columbus HS) and Gillian Johnson (North Bay, Ontario / Widdifield Secondary).

The right side will be manned by junior Darcey Krug, who contributed 221 kills and 68 blocks in 2003. Freshman Lauren Good (Richmond, Va. / Mills E. Godwin HS) will compete for time on the right side with Krug, but can also fill in the middle if necessary.

The setting position will make coach Segal feel like he's back in 1999 again as freshman Kelly Asbury (Roanoke, Va. / William Byrd HS) will begin this season as the primary setter. Asbury has big shoes to fill, taking over for the school's all-time assist leader in Erin Melius. Sophomore Shannon Tracey, still recovering from a leg injury that forced her to miss all of 2002, is expected to return by late September and provide another option heading into conference play.

The 2003 schedule features five matches against AVCA Top 25 ranked teams and nine matches against teams that advanced to the 2002 NCAA Championships. The Pirates again will host the Chatham Orthopaedics Volleyball Classic on Sept. 12-13, featuring 24 matches over two days and including top teams such as Tampa, Florida Southern and Rockhurst. AASU will also take part in tournaments in Chicago (Lewis University) and Omaha (Nebraska-Omaha) as well as taking on non-conference foes Eckerd, Saint Leo, Florida Southern, Tampa and Nova Southeastern.

AASU has been picked to finish second in a preseason poll of the Peach Belt Conference coaches, behind four-time PBC champion North Florida.

AASU Captures First-Ever PBC Tournament Title Makes Third Straight Trip To NCAAs

AASU's all-time assist leader (Erin Melius) sets the Pirates' all-time kills leader (Sarah Haynes) at USC Aiken on 9/25.

With a squad sporting five seniors, including a quartet of four-year seniors who came to Armstrong Atlantic State University at the same time that head coach Alan Segal took over the program in 1999, the 2002 volleyball season promised to be an exciting one. Nobody knew just how exciting, however, until the Pirates entered the 2002 Peach Belt Conference tournament.

AASU had advanced to the title game each of the last three seasons, but North Florida had turned away the Pirates' bid for the school's first tournament crown and automatic NCAA berth each time. 2002 looked to be much the same as the Pirates dropped games to Augusta State and USC Spartanburg in the first round and semifinals, while UNF breezed through 3-0 wins over Lander and UNC Pembroke.

But this time the Pirates would not be denied.

Sparked by the play of PBC Tournament MVP Alexia Piche-Hatch and strong play from seniors Erin Melius and Sofie Hakansson, the Pirates defeated the Ospreys, 30-27, 30-22, 37-35, to capture the school's first-ever PBC tournament title and an automatic bid to the NCAA Championships. It was also the first time an AASU athletic team other than the women's tennis squad had captured a PBC tournament title in any sport.

With the victory, the Pirates earned their third-straight berth to the NCAAs and also won their 30th game of the season, just the second time in school history an AASU volleyball squad has won 30 matches.

AASU's quartet of fourth-year seniors - Melius, Hakansson, Sarah Haynes and Shelley Weekes - completed outstanding careers that helped place the Pirate program on the college volleyball map. The four players completed their careers with a 124-35 mark and rewrote the AASU record books. Melius set a new single-season assist mark in 2002 with 1,708, and her 5,582 career assists are more than double of anyone's in Pirate volleyball history and rank 18th all-time in NCAA Division II history. Melius again earned All-PBC and All-AVCA South Region honors in 2002 as well.

Haynes concluded her career as AASU's all-time leader in kills (1,383), blocks (420) and games played (496). The three-time AVCA All-Region performer played in 157 straight matches in her four-year career, the 10th-best streak in NCAA Division II history. Haynes also earned All-PBC honors three times in her career and was the 2000 PBC Player of the Year.

Hakansson finished her playing days with the Pirates as AASU's all-time service ace leader with 244 and finished second all-time in kills (1,265) and digs (1,301), joining Tracy Fowler as the only two players to record 1,000+ kills and digs in a career for AASU.

Weekes again earned Verizon Academic All-District III honors and also earned the 2003 AASU President's Cup, given to AASU's top male and female student-athlete.

The breakout seasons of Piche-Hatch (2.86 kills/gm), Candice Modlinski (teambest .301 hitting percentage) and Darcey Krug (221 kills, 68 blocks) - all sophomores - mean that the cupboard is far from bare for head coach Alan Segal next season.

As a team, the Pirates set a new school record in 2002 in kills (2,101), attacks (5,031), hitting percentage (.359) and assists (1,911) and ranked nationally in kills per game (15.93, 23rd NCAA), service aces per game (2.60, 25th NCAA) and assists per game (14.49, 16th NCAA).

AASU Facilities and Athletic Training

The Armstrong Atlantic State University's athletic department prides itself on having one of the finest athletic facilities not only in the conference, but in the region.

AASU's Sports Center, completed in July of 1995, immediately became a top basketball complex by hosting the 1998 and 1999 Peach Belt Athletic Conference basketball tournaments.

This 82,000-square-foot multipurpose building provides expanded academic offerings in spacious, modern surroundings. Students have a threestation computer lab, a 1,965-squarefoot weight training/fitness center with 21 Cybex machine exercise stations and a free weight area; four new classrooms, and two 3,535-square-foot activity areas.

AASU's athletic teams play home events in a 4,000-seat arena that contains theater-type seating for all spectators, and also plays host to a wide variety of social and sporting events.

Directly behind the Armstrong Sports Center sits the home fields for the baseball and softball teams.

Pirate Field seats 750 fans for the Armstrong Atlantic State University's highly successful baseball program. Generally regarded as one of the best playing surfaces in the conference, Pirate Field has seen the baseball squad advance to 10 NCAA regionals over the past 15 seasons.

To the west of Pirate Field sits the brand new AASU Softball Complex, home to the Pirate softball squad.

The Aquatics and Recreation Center serves as the host of the AASU volleyball squad. The 1,000 seat arena features newly renovated bleacher seating and scoreboards and is the sole volleyball-only facility in the Peach Belt Conference. The AASU volleyball team has advanced to three consecutive NCAA championships and captured the 2003 PBC Tournament title.

AASU Athletic Training

Dr. Spencer Wheeler

Mylene Ray, ATC

AASU athletic teams benefit from the fine athletic training staff, headed by medical director Dr. Spencer Wheeler and head athletic trainer Mylene Ray.

AASU's training room, part of the Armstrong Sports Center, sits adjacent to the fitness center and across the hall from the Pirate locker rooms. The room offers the most modern and advanced equipment to help players deal with injuries and rehabilitation.

Three other graduate assistant trainers aid Dr. Wheeler and Ray in helping treat and prevent injuries to AASU athletes - Luke Hensel, ATC, Kerrie Evans, ATC, and Stacey Foust, ATC.

Strength & Conditioning

Henry Myers

The AASU volleyball team also benefits from a fine strength and conditioning program, headed by Olympic Weightlifting champion Team Savannah's head coach, Henry Myers.

As the strength and conditioning coach of the volleyball squad, Myers has been integral to the team's fitness and strength for the past two seasons.

Myers, a native of Savannah and a graduate of Jenkins HS in 1989, was named the 2000 USOC Coach of the Year for Weightlifting as five of Team Savannah's lifters represented the United States in the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia.

Myers, 32, is married to Michelle Powell-Myers.

This Is Savannah

Historic Savannah, Georgia, is located on the Atlantic Coast, at the confluence of the Savannah River and the Atlantic Ocean. Throughout its history, there has been one adjective consistently used to describe Savannah: beautiful.

The reason? There's something about the unique beauty of Savannah that cannot be forgotten. Streets with canopies of mossladen trees are honored venues for scores of historic homes. The town squares that Savannah's founding father, James Oglethorpe, laid out as public meeting places are now treasured "pocket parks" located throughout the downtown area.

A renovated waterfront area serves as the hub for shopping and entertainment. Nearby sandy beaches draw streams of visitors with persistent cool breezes and the endless lure of the rolling sea. Finally, there's an indescribable - but readily discernible - feeling in the air that pervades Savannah, a kind of "laid back" approach to the world, a "rootedness" that makes living or working in Savannah an experience second to none.

By way of affirmation, Le Monde, the leading French newspaper, called Savannah "the most beautiful city in North America."

Savannah has recently captured the imagination of a nation through its history and its appearance in several feature films, including "Glory," "Forrest Gump," "Something to Talk About," "Midnight In The Garden of Good and Evil" and the 2000 hit film "The Legend of Bagger Vance," starring Will Smith and Matt Damon. Also, Savannah hosted the yachting events of the 1996 Summer Olympics. As a result, tourism has become one of the leading industries in the area.

Savannah hosts over six million tourists each year. Tourism impacts the Savannah area by more than $634 million. The city boasts over 7,000 rooms and more than 100 restaurants as folks have learned that Savannah is more than just a convenient rest stop on the interstate to Florida.

The climate of Savannah features warm, and sometimes hot, weather for most of the year. There are seven months in which the average temperature is 70 degrees or higher. The lowest average high is in January at 60.3 degrees.

The population in Savannah is roughly 130,000 and Chatham County is the fifth most populous county in the state of Georgia.

Savannah also sits centrally located to some of the Southeast's finest beaches. Tybee Island, located less than 30 minutes from Armstrong Atlantic State's campus, offers six miles of unspoiled sands, tempting seafood and gracious accommodations. Resort areas such as Hilton Head, South Carolina, are less than one hour away and provide even more relaxing getaway options.

Whether it's the lure of historic settings, the friendliness of a Southern community or the beautiful climate of southeast Georgia, Savannah is the place for you.
