To send us information to be considered for publication here in the Inclusive Excellence Newsletter, fill out our Google Form.

The Deep Dive want to do Table Talks with students or organizations to talk about pressing subjects such as intersectionality, up to date news, problems in your community, etc. Feel free to reach out to us at deepdive@georgiasouthern.edu if you are interested or have any questions!

STORIES FROM THE WEEK

African American Irish Heritage Collaboration

On Wednesday, February 16, The Office of Multicultural Affairs hosted a student panel with the African American Irish Diaspora Network who spoke over the relationship between Ireland and African Americans. The group also took the time to address issues, and questions in regard to black issues and experiences.

Impostor Syndrome Among African American Students

African American students are vulnerable to Impostor Syndrome. Based on previous research, some African American students experience Impostor Syndrome due to lack of funding and support for school (scholarships, grants, etc), racial discrimination, and more.

Impostor Syndrome with Nikheal Patel from OMA

Nikheal Patel speaks about Impostor Syndrome among minorities including his own experience with it.
